PREFACE

From early childhood I have been interested in family history and Genealogy. Over the years I have collected a great deal of information of the Wilson family. During the past several years I have started putting this information together in an orderly fashion. The result is that I have a book of 446 pages of the decendants of John Wilson (XVI-5), plus early Wilson history plus early history of related famalies, which has never been published before.

I had never given much thought to having this printed in book form. But I have accumulated so much information that I have decided to have it printed in book form so that it may be shared by others.

The original manuscript is of about 600 pages typed on 8½ X 11 paper useing 1½ spaces between the lines. To have it printed; at a price, that one can afford to buy the book, the offset method of printing will be used. To do this I will type this manuscript on special sheets, useing an area of 5 3/4 X 9 inches. During the printing this will be reduced to an area of 4½ X 7 inches. This will be printed on a trimmed page, 5½ X 8½ inches.

To use the smaller space I will abbreviate many words and single space the manuscript.

Example of the abbreviations:- ca.,about; b.,born; d., die, death; m.,marriage; res.,residence, resided, residing cem., cemetry; gf.,grandfather; gmor.,grandmother; ch., child and etc.

My typeing, is not of the best, and the manuscript will be condensed more than I wanted it to be. The right hand margin will be a bit uneven. I have to stop at a certain point and I am not a good enough typeist, to do this. From time to time a punctuation mark will be missing on the right hand margin.

There have been several Historians in the Wilson family, starting with Colonel Benjamin Wilson (XVI-1). C.J. Maxwell (XX-79) has collected and printed more Wilson History than any other member. He was a brother of the Historian, Professor Hu Maxwell (XX-74). Both are decendants of Colonel Benjamin Wilson (XVI-1). William Wilson (XV-1) came to America in 1737. Mr. C.J. Maxwell's book, printed 1943, lists the names of over 7000 decendants of William Wilson (XV-1). He listed the decendants of all eleven children. We will only list the decendants, of the fifth son, John Wilson (XVI-5) plus early Wilson History. This book gives the names of over 3100 decendants of John Wilson (XVI-5).

Mr. C.J. Maxwell, gave William, who came to America in 1737, the Generation number "XV." Then he added 1, meaning that he was the oldest in that Generation. His children, Generation XVI; grandchildren, Generation XVII; great-grandchildren, Generation XVIII and etc. Starting each Generation with the number 1. We will use Mr. C.J. Maxwell's numbers. His highest number was less than 2000. New names added will use the numbers starting with the number 2000.

There is no simple method, in a work of this magnitude, in showing the line of decent. This will be the outline:

2.-ARCHIBALD J. WILSON (XVII-68)-1801-1866.
Archibald J. Wilson b. 10 Jan. 1801 at Beverley in Randolph Co.,VA. and etc. Then lists the number and names of his children with their identifying numbers.

1.-JOHN MARSHALL "SQUIRE" WILSON (XVIII-291)-1827-1916.
John Marshall Wilson b. 16 Sept. 1827. He is supposed to have been b. on Simpson's Creek, Taylor Co. and etc. Then lists the number and names of his children with their identifying numbers.

3.-QUINCY ADAMS WILSON (XIX-621)-1854-1883.
Quincy Adams Wilson b. 28 Oct. 1854. He m. Margaret Wells and etc. Then lists the number of his children.

4.-JOSIE WILSON (XX-1014) b. 2 Feb. 1880. She was raised by her Wilson grandparents and etc. Then lists the number of her children.

2.-MARSHALL RAY FLANAGAN (XXI-1527) a twin of Rex Flanagan. He m. Edith Carney 17 May 1924 and etc. Then lists the number of children.

(1) Ray Flanagan Jr. (XXII-1203) b. 11 March 1925 and etc. His child, (1) Michael Eugene Flanagan (XXIII-2069) b. 13 Dec. 1946 and etc. His child, (1) Michael Ray Flanagan (XXIV-2000).

The number before the name is the number in order of birth. The Roman Numeral is the Generation number (William Wilson who came to America in 1737 is given the Generation number "XV"). The next number is the number in that Generation starting with 1 (C.J. Maxwell); new names will start with the number 2000.

There is a general index in the front of the book. Decendants of each child of John Wilson (XVI-5) are listed under separate indexes. In these indexes, each Generation, is given a separate index. The maiden name of the female decendant is used.

One looking for his name in this book, will have to search the several indexes. Suppose that you are a XXII Generation decendant. Then turn to the page listed in the index. Then count back to the XXI Generation and these will be your parents. Then count back to the XX Generation and these will be your grandparents. Then count back to the XIX Generation and these will be your great grandparents. The family of each XIX Generation decendant is completed before the next XIX Generation decendant is listed.

By careful attention to the Generation numbers and the indexes, one should not have any trouble tracing his ancestry back to William Wilson (XV-1). Capital Letters are used for the names up to the XXII Generation, then small letters are used with the number, in order of birth, in parenthesis (1), (2) and etc.

Many family historians just gives the name, date of birth, date of marriage and date of death. I have tried to make this more of a narrative history. I have tried to tell something about these people--in other words--to make them people--not just statistics.

I have included all the information that has been given me. If your branch is not complete, then some member of that branch refused to furnish information.

The early history of many of the related famalies are given. Most of this information has not been available before. Some present day decendant has gathered this information and given it to me. Some related famalies are not given. Nobody has gathered new information of them and I can add no new information. Some information of these famalies may be in local County Histories. The reader should keep in mind, that some of the information of the related famalies may be in error. Not enough research has been made into these famalies.

The Wilson's were part of the Scotch-Irish migration to America.

The present day decendant will have a much better understanding of the life of his pioneer ancestor if he will read the following books:- "Border Warefare" by Withers; "Notes on the Settlement & Indian Wars of the Western part of VA. and PA." by Joseph Doddridge; "The Border Settlements of Northwest VA." by McWhorter; "History of the Indian Wars of Western VA." by DeHaff; "History of the Valley of VA." by Samuel Kercheval; "The Frontiersman" by Allen W. Eckert; "Our Western Border" by Charles McKnight; "Now and Long Ago" by Glen D. Lough; "History of Randolph Co." by Hu Maxwell; "History of Randolph Co." by Dr. Bosworth; "History of Harrison Co." by Haymond; "History of Harrison Co." by Dorothy Davis and "History of Ritchie Co." by Minnie Kendall Lowther.

EARLY WILSON HISTORY

WILLIAM WILSON (XV-1)- 1722- 1801.

Probably more has been written of the History and Genealogy of the family of William Wilson (XV-1) (1722-1801) and Elizabeth Blackburn (1725-1806), than any other family, that settled in what is now, "West Virginia."

This History and Genealogy is of John Wilson (XVI-5) (1-756-1827), the fifth child of William and Elizabeth Wilson. No one has gathered together his History and Genealogy, except C.J. Maxwell(XX-79), who collected many names and dates. We will only repeat a small part of what has been written before, about any member of the family, except, the son, John Wilson (XVI-5). We will add new information, of the other members, not listed in the reference books.

For a complete History and Genealogy of the family of William Wilson (XV-1) and Elizabeth Blackburn, one should read the following books:-

C.J. Maxwell (XX-79), "Decendants of William Wilson, 1722-1801 and Elizabeth Blackburn."

Roy E. Wilson (XXI-973), "The William Wilson Senior Family, 1722-1851."

Hugh Maxwell (XX-74), "History of Randolph County."

Dr. A.S. Bosworth, "History of Randolph County."

Haymond's, "History of Harrison County."

Dorthy Davis, "History of Harrison County."

Minnie Kendall Lowther, "History of Ritchie County."

Hill's, "History of Licking County, Ohio" Published 1881. This book is closer to the action. The Wilson's that went to Ohio kept better family records than did the members of John Wilson's (XVI-5) family.

Chape Wilson, "William Wilson and Elizabeth Blackburn also children." Written about 1950.

"Magazine of Randolph County Historical Society" Printed 1926.

The above are the main references. There are many references and accounts of this family, in other books, Historical Publications and Newspapers. Some of the writers have used their imagination and added to the original. The reader should use his own judgment and not blindly accept, without question, everything that has been written.

As this is intended to be a History of John Wilson (XVI-5), 1756-1827; his son, Archibald Wilson (XVII-68), 1801-1866; and his grandson, John Marshall Wilson (XVIII-291), 1827-1916, we wil not devise a system to identify them.

We will use the numbers and system used by C.J. Maxwell. To do otherwise, would only lead to confusion.

C.J. Maxwell gives William Wilson, 1722-1801, the Generation number XV. He then adds 1, meaning that William is No. 1 in that Generation; William Wilson (XV-1).

The children of William Wilson (XV-1) would be Generation XVI. The grandchildren XVII. The great grandchildren XVIII and etc. C.J. Maxwell starts each Generation with the number 1and assigns each member of that Generation a different number, in numerical order.All of Mr. Maxwell's assigned numbers are below the number 2000.

I will continue the Generation number. Many new names will be added to Mr. Maxwell's list. I will start the individual with the number 2000 for each Generation. Names with numbers below 2000 will be names taken from Mr. Maxwell's book. Names, beginning with the number 2000, will be new names added since Mr. Maxwell printed his book.

W.Va. separated from Va. in 1863 and became a separate state. Any reference to W.Va., before 1863, would mean that part of Va. that later became W.Va.

On the origin of the Wilson's,the following letter is taken from Roy Wilson's (XXI-973) Book, "The William Wilson Senior Family 1722-1851."

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your inquiry addressed to me at the University, I beg to say that I have voluminous data on the subject of the Wilson family history and its many branches, having studied the matter for a great many years.

In my Genealogical files I find a note to the effect that William, the son of David, the latter being of that branch which moved from Scotland and settled in Ireland (the north of Ireland), was in decent from the Scotch Wilson's of the County Iverness. The history of this branch of the family has never been compiled, so far as I know, hence research from original sources would be necessary to establish the line of decent. The Iverness family is well known, however, and coat-armour has been duly granted to it. You should try and secure a copy of the "License to pass beyond the seas," which was probably issued to the immigrant when he sailed for the American Colonies, as this might disclose considerable information concerning him.

You are probably aware that the Wilsons came originally from Denmark in the 9th Century; settled in England; many of them (they all acquired considerable wealth) were massacred by King Ethelred in 1002; those that escaped took refuge in France and their decendants returned to England with William the Conqueror in 1066.They then separated one branch established itself in England, and the Cadet branches in Scotland and Ireland. The surname does not mean, as many imagine, "The son of William," but "The son of a wolf," which appeared on their shield long before they had any heritary surname, Wilfsen, Wylsome and finally Wilson. The family is of princely origin in Denmark. The Wolf appears on the Coat of Arms today both on that of the main branch of the family in England, of which I am a decendant, and on that of the Wilsons of Iverness, from which, apparently, you are decended. I have emblazoned the Wilson Coat of Arms many times.

Yours Faithfully

R.E. Wilson, esq. Leonard Wilson

The name of the first known ancestor, in our line, was DAVID DAVIS WILSON (XIII-1),b. ca 1646, in Scotland and must have d. in Scotland.

His son, DAVID WILSON (XIV-1) was b. in Scotland ca 1685. All records of the family tradition agree that he took part in the Scotch rebellion of 1715, against the overthrow of the Stewarts, the regular succession, and the placing of a German King (George I) of Hanover on the English throne. Upon the supression of the rebellion many of the leaders, among them David Wilson Jr. fled for safety to Ulster Providence in northern Ireland. He must have d. in Ulster Providence, Ireland. His son, William Wilson (XV-1) was b. 19 Nov. 1722.

From the 1926 Magazine of the Randolph Co. Historical Society, "David Wilson, the Scotch Patriot and soldier, was the son of Davis Wilson, a soldier in Scotland at the time of the union with England in 1706, and the name of Wilson had been prominent there for many generations among the Patriots in the liberty loving highlands.

WILLIAM WILSON (XV-1) came to America in 1737, landing at Philadelphia. He was fifteen years of age. With him were his cousins, John and William White, who must have been of about the same age. To come to America, at this age, they had to have relatives already settled here, but no record of any has been found. See the chapter, "John and William White."

Fredrick Co.,Va. was formed in 1738. William Wilson (XV-1) must have been in Fredrick Co. at this time. Hampshire Co.,Va. was formed from Fredrick Co. in 1753. William Wilson (XV-1) was a resident of Trout Run in Hampshire Co. in 1754, when his son, William Wilson Jr. (XVI-4) was b. Hardy Co.,Va. was formed from this part of Hanpshire Co. in 1785.

C.J. Maxwell and Roy Wilson, both, have him living in Shenandoah Co.,Va. Dunmore Co. was formed from Fredrick

Co.,Va. in 1772. This Co. was renamed Shenandoah Co.,Va. in 1778. He had lived at one time in the part of Fredrick Co. that later became Dunmore (Shenandoah) Co.,but he had left this area long before the Formation of Dunmore Co. The family must have had relatives in Dunmore Co. and kept in contact with them. C.J. Maxwell states that Benjamin Wilson (XVI-1) lived on Cedar Creek when first m. Archibald Wilson (XVI-2) was m. in Dunmore Co. and lived on Cedar Creek at the time of his removal to Wood Co.,Va.

Some land purchases by William Wilson (XV-1):- Book No. 3, Page 64, Hampshire Co.,"Virginia Land Warrant containing 227 acres. By survey bearing date of the 19th day of May 1762 and being in the County of Hampshire on both sides of Trout Run."

The Revolutionary Service of William Wilson Sr. (XV-1) has been proven. He is listed in DAR PATROTS INDEX, with credit for PATROTIC SERVICE.

Mrs. Floyd W. Gaumer, 701 Linsey Ave.,South Bend, Ind. 46616, used the services of William Wilson Sr. (XV-1) to join the DAR. Her DAR number is 410882. Mrs. Gaumer did not give her line of decent.

The enclosed is a copy of a public claim which law called "Commissioners of Provisions Law" was passed in order to secure food for the armies in the field.

"Virginia which was rich in supplies of every type food but her money in a new country was almost worthless; so she passed a law that commissioners in every Co. should take food and give receipts or certificates for the same."

This in 1780/81.

In 1782 the State of Va. began to pay for the food thus taken to feed the soldiers in the field.

The enclosed calim was not paid until 1784 and some were as lately paid as 1785.

After this date a man who had not collected his claim was forced to apply to the Legislature as the Co's. no longer had authority to settle these claims.

WILLIAM WILSON SENIOR (XV-1) was b. 16 Nov. 1722, in Ulster, Ireland and d. 12 June 1801. In 1746 he m. Elizabeth Blackburn, b. 7 Feb. 1725 in Ulster, Ireland and d. 2 Sept. 1806.

From Randolph Co. Historical Society book, pub. 1926, "They were both born and reared in Ulster, were SCOTCH PRESBYTERIANS whose parents had fled from Scotland to Ulster after the overthrow of the Stuarts in England."

The 1782 census of Hampshire Co. lists the William Wilson Sr. family to include six members plus 3 negroes.

From Chape Wilson's (XIX-648) small pamphlet, "Turning back to William and Elizabeth, what shoud be our estimate of them? When they came to America the only English speaking people here were to be found in the Colonies along the eastern seaboard. To the west lay a vast and but little known wilderness. This was occupied and roamed over by various Indian tribes, who made frequent excursions among the white settlements to burn, pillage and massacre. The western border settlements of the colonies were not fit abodes for cowards or weaklings. They were none but God fearing men and women possessed of strong and resolute hearts. Such must have been William and Elizabeth Wilson. And in spite of uncertain, uneasy and indeed perilous surroundings they managed to rear a large family of sons and daughters, educate them well above the average of the time, and train them in qualities of leadership so well displayed in later years."

Both d. on Trout Run in Hardy Co.,Va. and both are buried in the "OLD MEETING HOUSE GRAVEYARD." The location of these graves were not known by later decendants.

In the early 1930's, the late C.J. Maxwell (XX-79) with some help of the older people of the area, found the graves of William Wilson (XV-1) and Elizabeth Blackburn on Trout Run, near Wardensville, Hardy Co.,W.Va.

The late Chape Wilson (XIX-648) organized, "THE WILLIAM AND ELIZABETH WILSON MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION" and collected money and replaced the old field stone markers with a large granite monument.

From Chape Wilson's (XIX-648) small pamphlet:-

OLD MEETING HOUSE GRAVEYARD

"Near the eastern edge of Hardy Co.,W.Va.,on Primary Route 55, and about midway between Moorefield, the County seat, and the city of Winchester, Va. is the little town of Wardensville. Out about two miles, back of the Garrett farm, lies a little burial ground known locally as "The Old Meeting House Graveyard." Here are buried William and Elizabeth Wilson and their little son, Moses. The writer has visited the site several times and various other decendants have been there one or more times. The place is overgrown with weeds, briars, underbrush and large saplings. There is no fence. Once a public road passed by and a church stood near; but the road has long since been annulled and of the church no trace remains. The graves are marked by common, rough field stones on which are cut crude letters and figures. A few other graves nearby are so marked. From still others the stones have been torn away and piled about. This could easily happen to those of our ancestors though they have defied the ravages of time, a century and a half. In recent years numerous decendants have urged that we, who are living, should remedy this deplorable condition without furthur delay."

WILLIAM AND ELIZABETH WILSON MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION, INC.

According in Aug. 1951, a group of decendants organized a non profit organization (Corporation), chartered by the State of W.Va.,with the title shown above. Every decendant is automatically a member. No dues are assessed. Its purpose is to improve the graveyard, above described, by cleaning, fencing and beautifying the place and erecting a suitable monument to the memory of William and Elizabeth and their eleven children. The Association has title to the ground and a "perpetual right of way" to it.

THE MONUMENT

A committee of the decendants will determine just what the monument shall be. We hope, to have it large enough to contain (a) the names and dates of William and Elizabeth and their children; (b) a reference cut near the bottom, to a miscellaneous record book in the Court House at Moorefield, wherein will be recorded a brief history of the early Wilson family. In the same record book we plan to list the names and addresses of all who have contributed to the fund for the improvements described above (omitting amounts contributed.) This record will enable a visiting decendant to learn something of his or her early ancestors, which we believe is quite important.

Note to the above:- The monument contains the names of William and Elizabeth and the names of their children including dates of births and dates of death. To the best of my knowledge no information was ever placed in the Misc. Record Book in Hardy Co. B.W.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions will be voluntary. We know that a great many decendants will deem it a privilege to have a part in this fine, concerted demonstration of devotion. Several have asked some indication of what one should be expected to contribute. If every decendant would give even a small sum we would have ample funds. But, unfortunately, we know of no way to contact more than a small fraction of them. Hence, a larger sum from the rest of us. Finalcial ability should, of course, be considered. To illustrate: A wage earner might without hardship give a half day's wage, or even a full day's. Business and professional people would probably wish to do more than this. Some low income people may wish to do less. But we hope that every decendant who receives this booklet will contribute some thing. We are now extending to you the opportunity.

Dear Mr. Garner:

As one decendant to another of William and Elizabeth Wilson, late of Wardensville, Hardy County, (West) Virginia, I am writing you this letter. We are both decendants from their fifth son, John.

Enclosed is a little booklet, giving a brief sketch of William and Elizabeth and their eleven children. One can hardly read this, I believe, without realizing that these early ancestors of ours were far above the average in intelligence, character in service to their respective counties, their state and their country.

Plans for honoring the memory of these ancestors are outlined in the booklet. I hope these plans will meet with your approval and that you will deem it a privalege, as well as a duty, to participate. The best way to do this is to tell your near relatives about it and to make, promptly, whatever contribution you feel you can afford.

Thanking you in advance and with the best wishes, I am

Sincerly Yours,

The access to "THE OLD MEETING HOUSE CEMETRY" is by footpath. To drive to the cem.,on the day of the dedication, a Mr. Mathias was promised $25.00 for permission to drive across his land to the cem. Money was collected at the deication to pay Mr. Mathias.

The weather was beautiful the day of the dedication. Everyone had a good time and enjoyed themselves, talking and getting acquainted with other members of this Wilson family.

Mr. Mathias may have been left holding the bag. The following from a letter from Mrs. Virgie Gamble (XX-1160) written in 1972.

"I have often wondered what became of the bank account, IF ANY, of the Wilson Memorial Association. I have visited the graves several times in recent years when distant relatives came thru here looking for information. It is almost impossible to get in there now. Minter promised the owner of the farm, Mr. Mathias, twenty five dollars of the money collected the day of the unveiling for allowing us to cross his land. The last time I talked to Mr. Mathias, approxmately five years ago, this had never been paid." (1972).

The will and appraisement of the estate of William Wilson Senior (XV-1) are recorded in Will Book No. 1, Page 207, in Hardy Co.,wv.

MILITARY SERVICE AND FIRST MARRIAGE

"The men in Jas. Harrod's Co. from the Monongahela Valley 1774-JOHN WILSON." Whether this was John Wilson (XVI-5)--I do not know.

At the ambush of Capt. Foreman's Co. at the Narrows, below Wheeling in 1777, John Wilson was wounded. A ball entered his right arm and lodged in the back of his hand, crippling him for life.

DEPLORABLE AMBUSCADE OF FOREMAN'S PARTY.

Capt. William Foreman, a brave and meritorious officer, but totally unfit for Indian warefare, organized a Volunteer Co. in Hampshire Co.,va.,and came to Wheeling in the fall of '77, to help fight the savages. After the withdrawal of the Indians from the seige of Wheeling, just related, the impression was general that they had returned to their towns.

On Sept. 26th, a smoke was noted at Wheeling, in the direction of Grave Creek, some twelve miles below, which caused an apprehension that the Indians might be burning the stockade and houses of Mr. Tomlinson. In order, to asertain this fact, and afford protection if any were necessary, Cap. Foreman and his Co.,and a few experienced scouts, were dispatched by Col. Shepherd for this purpose.

The party proceeded without interruption to Grave Creek, and found all safe. Remaining over night, they started the following morning to return. When they reached the lower end of the Grave Creek Narrows, some of the more experienced frontiersman suggested the expediency of leaving the river bottom, and returning by way of the ridge. The commander, however, hooted at the idea of so much precaution, and ordered the party to proceed. The order was obeyed by his men, including several of the volunteer scouts, but some declined to go with him, and one of these men was named Lynn, whose great experience as a spy, and added to his sagacity and judgment, should have at least rendered his opinion entitled to weight. His apprehensions were, that the Indians, if lurking about, had witnessed the movement of the party, and would most likely attack them at some point on the river. He said that, in all probability, that they had been on the opposide side of the river and noticed the party go down; that they had crossed during the night, and most probably at that time lying in ambush for their return. How fearfully were his apprehensions realized!

During the interchange of opinions between Foreman and Lynn, a man, Robert Harkness, a relative of Mr. Tomlinson's, sat on a log near the parties, and often said the controversy at times ran high. Foreman who prided himself on being a thoroughly disciplined officer, was not disposed to yield to the suggestions of a rough backwoodsman. Lynn, on the other hand, convinced of the fatal error which the other seemed to be determined to commit, could not but remonstrate with all the power of persuasion at his command. Finally, when the order to march was given, Lynn, with six or eight others, struck up the hillside, while Foreman with his Co. pursued their path along the base.

Nothing of importance occured until the party reached the extreme upper end of the Narrows. Just where the bottom begins to widen, those in front had their attention drawn to a display of Indian trinkets, beads, bands, & c., strewn in profusion along the path. With a natural curiosity but a great lack of sagacity, the entire party gathered around those who had picked up the articles of decoy, and while thus standing in a compact group, looking at the beads & c.,two lines of Indians stretched across the path, one above and the other below, and a large party of them arose from beneath the bank, and opened upon the devoted party a most deadly and destructive fire. The river hill arose at this point with great boldness, presenting an almost insurmountable barrier. Still, those of the party who escaped the first discharge, attempted to rush up the acclivity, and with some success. But the savages pursued and killed several.

At the first fire Cap. Foreman and most of his party, including his two sons, fell dead. The loss is supposed to have been about twenty, including the Captain. When Lynn and his party heard the guns, they rushed down the side of the hill, hallooing as though they were five times as numerous. This had the effect of restraining the savages in pursuit, and perhaps saved the lives of many.

Of those who escaped up the hill were Robert Harkness and John Collins. The former, in pulling himself up by a sapling, had the bark knocked into his face with a ball from an Indian gun. Collins was shot through the left thigh, breaking the bone and completely disabling him. Lynn and his companion carried him to a spring, said to have been just over the hill, and throwing together their supply of provisions, left him in a sheltered position, promising to send a messenger on the following day with a horse. Those who were so fortunate, as to escape the terrible affair, made their way safely to Wheeling. Collins, the wounded man, was taken off on horseback the second night, and the rest were buried in one grave.

SLAUGHTER OF CAPTAIN FOREMAN AND HIS MEN.

Captain William Foreman, a brave and meritorious officer, organized a Company of Volunteers in Hampshire Co., and in the autumn of 1777, marched from Romney to Wheeling and went into winter quarters. Several famalies were then residing on the site of Moundsville and the neighboring hills and the savages were threating an attack. The people at Wheeling were doing all that were possible to stay the storm, and to do this they hastened away at every alarm. Sunday morning, Sept. 27th 1777, dense colums of smoke were seen in the direction of Grave Creek, and Col. Shepherd, Commandent at Wheeling, sent Cap. Foreman with his Company to render assistance, should it be necessary.When he arrived all was quiet; they halted for the night and the next morning started to return to Wheeling. When in the Narrows, about four miles above where Moundsville now stands, a deadly fire was poured on them by an unseen enemy. Cap. Foreman, his two sons and eighteen others fell dead upon the field. The few that escaped reached Wheeling. When the war was over, a stone bearing the following inscription was reared upon the fatal spot:

This humble stone is erected to the memory of

CAPTAIN FOREMAN
AND TWENTY OF HIS BRAVE MEN WHO WERE SLAIN BY A BAND OF RUTHLESS SAVAGES
THE ALLIES OF A CIVILIZED NATION
OF EUROPE
ON THE 29TH OF SEPTEMBER, 1777
"So sleep the brave who sink to rest
By all their country's wishes blest."

DeHass, "History of the early Settlements and Indian Wars of Western Virginia."

Captain William Foreman, of Hampshire County, collected a Company of men in the South Branch Valley, and marched to the Ohio, arriving at Fort Henry, now Wheeling, on the 15th day of Sept. fifteen days after the first siege at that place. On Sunday, the 26th ensuing, a great column of smoke was seen down the river and David Shepherd, a County-Lieutenant of Ohio County, believing that the Indians had set fire to the deserted Fort Tomlinson, on the Grave Creek Flats-now Moundsville-dispatched Captain Foreman with forty five men to that place. No Indians were seen, the Fort was intact and the troops spent the night at that place. The next day returning to Wheeling, the party fell into an ambuscade at "McMechen Narrows," on the Ohio river, now in Marshall County, and twenty one of the Virginians were killed at the first fire and several badly wounded. The sad event is known in pioneer annals as "Forman's Defeat," and long was heard the sorrowful story in the homes of the South Branch Valley and among the Hampshire Hills.

The following document, bearing date six days after the bloody tragedy, and which has been preserved, is connected with it:-

NOTES ON CAPTAIN WILLIAM FOREMAN'S DEFEAT.

(From the Journals of the General Assembly of Virginia.)

"Monday, November 2, 1778, the General Assembly received a petition of John Wilson and others; setting forth, that some of the petitioners, and those whom the others represent, being engaged in the defense of the western frontiers in September, 1777, were fired on by a number of Indians, when half of the party were killed on the spot, and many of their guns and blankets thereby lost, and praying some compensation for the same.

"Friday, November 6, 1778, Mr. Lee, from the committee of Public Claims reported that the committee had, according to order, had under their consideration, several petitions to them referred, and had come to several resolutions thereupon, which he read in his place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's table, where the same was again read and agreed to, as followeth:"

"1. Resolved, that it is the opinion of the committee, that the petition of John Wilson and others, who were part of the militia ordered out by Gen. Hand, from the County of Hampshire, under the command of Captain William Foreman, in the defense of the western frontiers, praying to be allowed for the loss of their guns, blankets, powder horns and pouches, in an engagement with the Indians in the month of September, 1777, is reasonable; and that there ought to be allowed to the petitioners, the several sums following, to wit, John Wilson, L9. 10s.: Solomon Jones, L1. 10s.: Abraham Powell, L2; Samuel Lowery, L1. 10s.; Anthony Miller, L1.10s.; the representatives of William Foreman, L11; of Edward Peterson, L11; of Benjamin Powell, L14.15s.; of Samuel Johnson, L10; of Isaac Harness L13; of Jacob Pugh, L10; of Elisha Shivers, L7; of Robert M'Grew, L1.10s.; of Henry Riser, L1.10s.; and of Bartholomew Viney, L1.10s.; and that the same ought to be charged in the accounting of this commonwealth, against the United States of America.

AN ACT PLACING CERTAIN PERSONS ON THE PENSION LIST, JANUARY 19TH 1813.

And be it furthur enacted, that John Wilson (an old Revolutionary soldier, who was severley wounded at Wheeling, in the right arm, which has become useless) shall be placed on the pension list, and receive annually the sum of sixty dollars, to be paid as other pensioners are paid.

Richmond, Virginia

I, George Tucker, Clerk of the house of delegates and keeper of the rolls, do certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the act passed by the General Assembly of Virginia, January 19, 1813.

Given under my hand this 30th day of Jan. 1858 (probably 1958).

S.G. TUCKER, C.H.D.
Keeper of the Rolls of Va.

In the Augusta Co.,VA. records are the appraisement and settlement of the estate of Joel Westfall. He d. 1778.

Both Benjamin Wilson (XVI-1) and Joel Westfall's names appears on the petition of the residents of Tygart's Valley, to the Gov. of Va. in 1776, asking protection from the Indians. Joel must have d, in the Tygart's Valley.

A son was b. to the widow of Joel Westfall, after his d. This son was b. in 1779 and was named Joel Westfall. (See the Joel Westfall family.)

Some time after the birth of this child, John Wilson, m. the widow Westfall. No record of this m. has been found. This m. may have occured in Monongahela Co. The early records of Monongahela Co. were destroyed by fire. They must have gone to Hardy Co. to reside after their m.

Hill's History of Licking Co.,OH.,lists three children or step-children. If John Wilson and the widow Westfall had children, they must have d. young. There are no records of any children or step-children, except the step-son, Joel Westfall, b. 1779 and step-dau.,Hannah Westfall, born 1777.

Hill's History of Licking Co.,OH.lists John Wilson as taking the census in Hampshire Co. in 1782. This John Wilson had nine in family. This is another John Wilson.

The 1782 census of Hampshire Co. by Michl. Stump and Stephen Ruddell overlapped. A number of names appear in both census's. Michl. Stump shows John Wilson with two in family. Stephen Ruddell shows John Wilson with five in family. The census takers probably showed the number of persons that were there when they took the census, whether they were members of the family or not.

The above proves that John Wilson was m. at the time the census was taken. They must have moved to Randolph Co. soon after this census was taken. They were living in Randolph Co. before 1787.

The following letter written by Col. Henry F. Westfall has John Wilson living on the South Branch of the Potomac. As Joel Westfall was large enough to wield a sword, this episode must have happened in Randolph Co. in the late 1780's.

The following letter, written by Col. Henry F. Westfall to L.C. Draper.

Buckhannon Town Lewis County, Virginia, Feby. 24th 1849.

My father was but a boy in the days of the invasion here. He resided on the South Branch. At one time the Indians came to the house of John Wilson, who was his step-father, after Wilson had done with the labors of the day, laid himself on his bed to rest while the wife was preparing the supper, the dogs sprang from their slumber to an attack in the yeard the night being dark the old Gentleman knew too well the cause, he sprang from his bed to the Door, the Door was standing open and throwd back against the wall from where the old man were. he consequently had to pass the Door way to get to the door and shuved it shut, while he was closing the door the Indians struck with a stick on the Door step. the old man making fast the Door calling to the old lady to put out the fire, after he had fastened the door as well as he could he took down his old trusty gun prepared her for action, while the old lady took the ax and my father took an old rusty sword, the Indians made several attempts to forc(e) open the door, but not being able to do so, again they would fall back to get rid of the Dogs. at every attempt they made at the Door, the old man would encourage the Dogs. they being cross no Doubt but they took holt to the savages at every attempt they made to force open the Door, they thus continued during the night until the appearance of Day drove them off, knowing if they waited to light the old man would reak his vingence on them for disturbing himself and family during the night.

I now close my communication by saying that I have not been able to obtain as much information as I had expected I should-Wm. White as I before mentioned was kilt and treacherously kilt too, and deserves more honor for active service in defending his country against a savage for than his memory ever received in the pages of History, White had but two children one son & one daughter; his son Wm. W. White still lives here the Daughter Elizabeth married Joel Westfall my father, raised a large family and died here Whites widow never married but lived to an old age and died near this place. (See John and William White.)

Note to the above- White's widow is the grandmother, who narrates the "Grandmother's Story," Page 77, History of Ritchie Co.

Mrs. Mary Houston Westfall Wilson, the wife of John Wilson, died in the year 1795 at Beverley in Randolph Co. At this early time, when a man's wife died, he remarried within a year or two.

PUBLIC SERVICE

The Act of the Virginia Assembly, passed in October 1786 forming Randolph Co. provided that the first Court should, "Be held at the house of Benjamin Wilson in Tygart's Valley."

The first County Court was held May 28, 1787, and the following gentlemen were Justices of the Peace, and under the laws at that time they constituted the Court: Jacob Westfall, Salathiel Goff, Patrick Hamilton, JOHN WILSON, Cornelius Westfall, Edward Jackson, Robert Maxwell, Peter Cassidy, Cornelius Bogard, John Jackson, George Westfall, Henry Runyan, John Hadded and Jonathan Parsons.

Hu Maxwell, "History of Randolph Co." "That Court (1787) numbered among its members some very able men among them being JOHN WILSON and John Hadded, Randolph's two first representatives in the Virginia Legislature."

JOHN WILSON was a member of the County Court from its formation until at least the year 1809 and maybe longer.

The late Chape Wilson (XIX-648) stated that John Wilson was Clerk of the County Court for twenty seven years. Chape may be mistaken in the length of time. He was probably Clerk of the County Court until the year 1809 or 1810, covering a period of 22 or 23 years.

Those early Justices formed a closed society. They kept the County jobs and the County business for themselves. John Wilson probably kept the Clerks job during the time he was sheriff and during the time he collected the taxes.

At the first Court, John Wilson was elected by the Justices as their Clerk and he gave as his bondsman, Jacob Westfall and another man whose name is unreadable. He served two terms as Clerk of the County Court, from 1787 to 1793. John Wilson was probably the County Clerk after 1793. If he was not the County Clerk, he remained a member of the County Court until the year 1809 or 1810.

The Court appointed John Wilson, commissioner of Revenue, 1788 to 1789.

At the Sept. Court, 1787, John Wilson was allowed 200 pounds of tobacco as pay for labor in collecting the land tax.

In 1788, John Wilson was allowed 300 pounds of tobacco for his services in collecting taxes. In 1790 the Clerk's fees amounted to 6,650 pounds of tobacco, which was duly inspected by John Jackson. It appears that this was all the pay the Clerk received for some time. At any rate his mind was not clear on the subject for at the Sept. Court 1791, this order occurs: "The Clerk received nothing from Sept. 1, 1790 to Jan. 1, 1791, for any fees to him that he can always collect."

The town of Beverley, the County seat, was established by Legislative enactment 16 Dec. 1790, on lands of James Westfall. The seven trustees of the town of Beverley in 1790 were: JOHN WILSON, Jacob Westfall, Sylvester Ward, Thomas Phillips, Hezekiah Rosecrantz, William Wamsley, Valentine Stalnaker.

John Wilson was sheriff of Randolph Co.,1798 to 1800. The sheriff's job was rotated among the Justices, usually beginning with the eldest and working down to the youngest and then beginning over again.

From the date 1803 till 1808 Court was held in the house of John Wilson. Hu Maxwell refers to this,"as the fifth Court House."

The Circuit Court of the Co.,formerly sometimes called the Superior Court, has had Clerks as follows; No.1-John Wilson, 1809 to 1811. The Superior Court was not established in Randolph Co. until the year 1809.

At a Superior Court of law held for Randolph Co. on the 16th day of May 1811:- John Wilson, the Clerk of the Superior Court of this Co.,having forewarded his letter of resignation to the Court.

John Wilson had removed from the Beverley area before this time. This must be the reason that he resigned, the position, of Clerk of the Superior Court.

The first County Court of May 28, 1787, recommended John Wilson for Major of Militia. He held this rank from 1787 to 1794.

John Wilson was appointed surveyor of the highways from Mudlick in Tygart's Valley to foot of mountain on northeast side of Horseshoe Bottom.

The Minute Books show this lawsuit, John Wilson vs Uriah Gandy. The jury rendered this verdict, "THE PLAINTIFF MUST HAVE THE HORSE."

In 1788, John Wilson, asked the County Court to prosecute Edward Hart for importing negroes into the state, contrary to law.

John Wilson (before 1800) is named as an executor of the will of Raphael Warthen (d. 1798) being mentioned as his, "Trusty Friend." Raphael Warthen was a son of John Warthen and a brother of Mary Warthen.

Randolph Co. had two delegates to the Convention, held at Richmond, Va.,in 1788.

The final vote was 89 for ratification and 79 against. There were 16 delegates from what is now W.Va. These delegates voted 15 for ratification and 1 against ratification. These 15 yes votes set the future destiny of the United States.

If Va. had not ratified the Constitution, many of the other states would have followed her example. If this had happened, we would not have a United States, as we know it today.

Howard B. Lee of Wirt Co. did much research on this convention. He assembled this material and used it in an address before the Mercer Co. Bar Association in the fall of 1932. I am giving this speech in full, as I think every decendant of Benjamin and John Wilson should be proud of the part that their ancestors, played, in setting the destiny of the United States.

The speech was printed in the W.Va. Hillbilly, June 30, 1973.

THE BATTLE OF THE GIANTS.

By Howard B. Lee.

I am indeed proud of this hour. First, it is a distinct honor to be invited to address the members of this distinguished bar. Secondly, it gives me an opportunity to renew old friendships that I have long cherished.

America is a land of conventions--political, business, and even Sunday school--some important, some unimportant. This evening I want to talk with you about the historic Virginia Convention that ratified our Federal Constitution. Some historians classify it as the most important, far reaching,and the most spectacular convention ever held in America. In addition it was the first law-making assembly in our history to be reported in shorthand. The reporter, however, stopped too often to listen to the speeches of the intellectual giants, but got enough to make a book of over 800 pages.

Article VII of the Constitution provided that when it was ratified by the conventions of nine states, the new Government should immediately become effective in those nine states. Eight states had already approved it and Va., the ninth state, called its convention for June 2, 1788. It was the largest of the states in both population and area. Its population numbered 750,000 and its domain included what is now W.Va. and Ky.,and extended from the Atlantic to the Mississippi. It was also a wedge that divided northern from southern states. Its approval of the Constitution was absolutely necessary if the new government was to come into being.

The divergence of opinion over the constitution divided the people of the entire country into two political parties--the Federalists, who favored it; and the anti-Federalists, who opposed it. In Va. these forces seemed about evenly divided; and a similiar division extended to the convention delegates.

This opposition to the constitution, however, was not due to a lack of Patriotism on the part of the opponents. It was rather a state of mind. Va. was free, independant, and a soverign nation. And its people were proud of that sovereignty. They had fought for years to gain it, and many of its citizens vigorously opposed surrendering any part of it to a superior national setup. To them, Va. must remain supreme.

Also there was a strong element of selfishness on the part of many Virginians in their opposition to the constitution. At that time the Va. planters owed English merchants over ten million dollars, and the State Legislature had passed a law denying to those merchants the right to sue in the State Courts for the collection of their money. Therefore those debtors bitterly opposed Section 10, Article I of the constitution which forbade a state to pass any "law impairing the obligation of contracts."

The Convention conveined June 2, 1788, and the great debates, which William Wirt described as the "Battle of the Giants," began immediately. Of the distinguished statesmen of the commonwealth, only Washington and Jefferson were absent. The latter was in Paris as our Minister to France, and played no part in the work of the Convention. While Washington from his Mount Vernon home helped to direct the stragedy of the Federalists.

In ability and character the leaders of both groups were second only to those delegates in the great Convention in Philadelphia. The leader of the Federalists was James Madison, "Master Spirit of the Constitution" and a future

President. He was aided by John Marshall, later Chief Justice; Edmund Randolph, Governor of the State; Edmund Pendleton, President of the Convention; George Wythe, Chancellor of Virginia; and General Henry (Lighthorse Harry) Lee, Revolutionary hero and later the father of Robert E. Lee.

At the head of the Anti-Federalists was Patrick Henry, chief critic and most savage assailant of the Constitution. He was ably assisted by James Monroe, later President; George Mason, who refused to sign the Constitution at Philadelphia; William Grayson, John Tyler and Benjamin Harrison, the last two, fathers of future Presidents.

On their respective sides Henry and Madison bore the brunt of the fight which lasted 23 days. Henry spoke on 18 separate days. On each of several days he made three speeches; on one day, five, and on another day, eight. One of his speeches lasted seven hours. While Madison spoke less often, his labors were no less onerous. Of the two, Henry was the more eloquent, but Madison surpassed him in reasoning power and logic. Of these two giants, John Marshall later said "of all the men I have ever known, Henry had the greatest power to pursuade, while Madison had the greatest power to convince." Second only to Madison in the debates were John Marshall and Governor Randolph. By his brilliant advocacy of the Constitution in Richmond, the latter largely atoned for his failure to sign it in Philadelphia. His was the last voice to be raised in its defense in the Convention. Just before the vote was to be taken, and with reference to his own vote about to be cast, he said:...for every other act of my life, I shall seek refuge in the mercy of God, but for this I request "His Justice only."

Henry savagely attacked the Constitution as forming the gigantic consolidated government which destroyed the States and all "State Sovereighty;" that it established a "convenant among the people instead of a league between the States;" that the first clause should read "We the States" instead of "We the people;" that it contained no Bill of Rights. In the office of the President he foresaw "the likeness of a kingly crown;" and in the control of the "purse and sword," as vested in Congress by the Constitution, he discerned "the extinction of liberty."

Henry's tremendous efforts occupied nearly one third of the time of the Convention and so alarmed the Federalists that on June 23, Chancellor Wythe offered a resolution (similar to that adopted by Mass.) ratifying the Constutition but proposing certain amendments to be submitted to the people by the first Congress to be convened under the new government. Henry opposed it with equal tenacity, and offered a counter resolution to require the amendments to be added before ratification. Upon his substitute resolution, Henry spoke three times. His second speech, on June 24, is famous as his great "Thunderstorm Oration," in which he seemed to surpass himself. Of this speech, one of the delegates later said that as he "listened to Mr. Henry, he sensed the doors of the dungeon closing upon him, heard the clank of the chains, and felt the fetters tightening on his wrists." As Henry reached his powerful climax, he cried: "I see the awful immensity of the dangers with which (the Constitution) is pregnant. I see beings of a higher order, anxious concerning our decision."

"When Lo!"says Wirt, " A storm at that instant rose which shook the whole building, and the spirits he had called seemed to come at his bidding. Nor did his eloquence or the storm immediately cease; but availing himself of the incident, with a master's art, he seemed to mix in the fight of his ethereal auxilliaries, and rising on the wings of the tempest, to seize upon the artillery of heaven and direct its fiercest thunders against the heads of his adversaries. The scene became insupportable; and the House rose without the formality of adjournment, the members rushing from their seats with precipitation and confusion."

"Had a vote been taken at the conclusion of Henry's speech," says Wirt, "undoubtedly the Constitution would have been rejected."But the next day, the phantoms built up by Henry were beaten down under the crushing blows of Madison's logic. Henry's substitute resolution was lost, and Wythe's resolution to ratify adopted by a vote of 89 for and 79 against, and thus ended the most spectacular convention ever held in America.

We must not misjudge Patrick Henry, for no country ever had a greater patritot. His opposition to the Constitution was due to two things: (1) His love for his native Va.,and his desire to keep it in a position of preeminence; and, (2) his mistaken judgment as to the ultimate effect of the Constitution upon the States. Undoubtedly, his powerful opposition brought about the adoption of the first ten amendments (Bill of Rights) to that document. Thus placing him among the great framers of the Constitution. When his State had spoken, he patritotically declared, "I am no longer a Virginian, I am an American." Thereafter his failing energies were directed towards securing the new Government in the affections of the people of his state. (He died June 6, 1799.)

In that historic Va, drama the territory of what is now W.Va. played a conspicuous role. With the exception of seven counties in the southern part of the State, and which were then a part of Montgomery Co. (Va.), the entire W.Va. territory was then divided into eight counties, each with two delegates. Fifteen of these delegates voted for ratification, and one against. Thus W.Va. furnished five votes more than the ten majority by which the Convention ratified the Constitution of the United States. (Note: Those W.Va. Co's.,names of their delegates, and how each voted, are as follows: Berkeley Co.,William Darke and Adam Stephen, for; Greenbrier Co.,George Clendenin and John Stewart, for; Hampshire Co.,Andrew Woodrow and Ralph Humphreys, for; Hardy Co.,Isaac Vanmeter and Abel Seymour, for; Harrison Co.,George Jackson and John Prunty, for; Monongahela Co.,John Evans, against and William McClung, for; Ohio Co.,Archibal Woods and Ebenezer Zane, for; and Randolph Co., BENJAMIN WILSON and JOHN WILSON, for.)

Unfortunately for the country, this doctorine of State Sovereignty of States Rights, as it was later called, so ardently championed by Patrick Henry, did not die with the adoption of the Constitution. But as time passed the differences became even greater and the antagonisms more bitter. The growth of population, developement of territory, increase in wealth, and spread of slavery only complicated the issue with fresh interests and increased the danger by adding strength and confidence to the opposing forces.

Forseeing the catacclysm into which the Nation was drifting, many able but despondent statesmen vainly tried to compromise those divergent and at times belligerent views. But the differences were too fundemental for meditation or conciliation to settle permanently. In the end one side had to prevail, the other had to submit. At the critical period, however, came Lincoln, who had the courage to maintain the Union even on the stricken field. State Sovereignty surrendered at Appomattox, and by the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution that "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the Jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and the State wherein they reside." thus foreever destroying the doctorine that the citizens owed allegience to his State only. At long last, the Union was secure.

John Wilson was one of the leaders, in the establishment of, Randolph Academy at Clarksburg.

From History of Harrison Co.; "The Randolph Academy was chartered by an act of the General Assembly passed Dec. 31, 1787, and provided that the first meeting of the trustees, shall be held on the second Monday in May, 1788, at Morgantown and 'Fix upon some healthy and convenient place within one of the counties of Ohio, Monongahela, Harrison and Randolph for the purpose of erecting therein the necessary buildings for the said Academy.'"

At this time the law required that one sixth's of the Co. surveyor's fees should be applied for the support of William and Mary College at Williamsburg, but this act authorized the surveyors of the four counties named to turn the one sixth of their fees to the support of the Randolph Academy.

It is supposed that the meeting of the board of trusteees was held at Morgantown, as authorized by the act chartering the institution, and that Clarksburg was selected as the place to construct the buildings, but as some of the first leaves of the Old Minute Book, in which was recorded the proceedings of the Board, are missing, the facts cannot be ascertained. It cannot be proven, but John Wilson must have attended this first meeting of the Board of Trustees at Morgantown.

The first meeting of the Trustees contained in the minute book is as follows:- Clarksburg, Harrison Co. the 18th of August 1788.

Pursuant to an adjournment of the Board of Trustees for the Randolph Academy the following trustees met, viz:

George Jackson, John Powers, JOHN WILSON.

John Haymond is by the said trustees appointed Clerk pro tempore. The number of trustees not being sufficient to make a board, the trustees adjourned until to-morrow at twelve o'clock.

John Haymond, Clk. pro-tem.

After two more failures to secure a meeting, on Sept. 16, 1788, a quorum of the Board of Trustees finally was brought together at which were present, Robert Maxwell, George Jackson, BENJAMIN WILSON, NICHOLAS CARPENTER, JOHN WILSON, John Powers, Jacob Westfall, John Jackson, John Prunty, Hezekiah Davisson, Joseph Hastings and William Berkley. John Haymond was chosen Clerk and Robert Maxwell, chairman.

Other trustees were leading men of Va.:- Edmund Randolph Benjamin Harrison, George Mason and Patrick Henry.

The Randolph Academy was constructed on the north side of Pike St.The present Towers school occupies this site.

NICHOLAS CARPENTER is my ancestor on my mother's side.

There was more than one, John Wilson, so we cannot identify land owned by John Wilson. We can identify the following;

From Hardesty's of Barbour Co.-1883, Philippi Dist.:- "The first settlements within the limits of the Dist. was made on the present site of the town of Philippi, in the year 1780. In that year William Anglin came and erected a cabin upon a tract of 400 acres, which he had previously patented. Some time after his settlement he sold the land to John Wilson, who removed to it in 1798. He in turn sold it to Daniel Booth, upon the death of whom the title became vested in Judge Duncan. From him it passed into the possession of Eli Butcher, who transferred it to Thomas H. Height, and from him to William Wilson (XVII-60), who, in 1843, laid out the town of Philippi."

If John Wilson resided here, he remained for only a short period of time. He returned to Philippi ca 1810 but no record of his owning land, at this late date, has been found.

There is a deed recorded in Randolph Co. signed by John and Mary Wilson, dated 1793, showing they sold land.

SECOND MARRIAGE

Marriage records in Randolph Co. show that John Wilson m. Mary Warthen, 2nd of Aug. 1796. This m. was performed by Matthew Ryan.

Mary Warthen was b. 1 Apr. 1780 in Montgomery Co.,MD. She was called, "MOLLY."

She was the dau. of John Warthen, who came to Randolph Co. in 1795. He came from Montgomery Co.,Md.See the chapter on the Warthen family.

Raphael Warthen, who d. in Randolph Co. in 1798 was his son. The executor of his estate was, "John Wilson his good friend."

From History of Ritchie Co.,copyright 1911:-

"JOHN WILSON, the fifth son, and the first one b. in America, was a native of Shenandoah Co.,VA. He m. Miss Mary Warthen, a French maiden, and from him the Ritchie Co. branch of the family is decended. He being the father of Archibald, John. Mrs. Dorcas (Augustus) Modisette, of this Co., Blackburn of Walker; Mrs. Temperence (Moses) Thompson of Harrison Co.;and Mrs. Mary (G.W.) Shinn, Doddridge, Co.

He (John Wilson) lived and died at Beverley in Randolph Co.,where he served as Clerk of the Co. Court for more than thirty yrs. He was engaged in a desperate Indian fight at Wheeling when he was a lad of eighteen yrs.,and was severley wounded.

His final resting place is at Beverley."

Note to the above:- He was the fifth child b. in America. He was not b. in Shenandoah Co.,VA. He was 21 yrs. of age at the time of the Indian fight. He did not d. at Beverley and is not bur. there.

We know that his right arm was crippled and useless. If he was not left handed, he must have learned to use his left hand to write. He could have not been County Clerk, unless he could write.

John Wilson was not a farmer, and with his useless rt. arm, it would not have been possible. What did John Wilson do for a living? His services as a member of the Co. Ct. would not provide much income. Even when he was Clk. of the Crt. and assessor, this would not have provided an income sufficient to raise a family.

The following information in Callie Dotson's (XXI-1690) notes may give a clue to his occupation.

"John Wilson had a store in Beverley. Well to do dau., Mary, could cut silk material any time from her father's store."

Mary was b. in 1816. John Wilson had left Beverley long before the b. of Mary. It may be that John Wilson, had a store or an inn or tavern.

Outside of his military service and his public service, we know very little about John Wilson.

John Wilson was residing in Beverley in 1808 as this was the last year his dwelling house was used for the Ct. House. He is not listed in the 1810 census of Beverley.

John Wilson is listed in the 1810 census of Randolph Co. His name is next to the name of Abraham Ingram.

Abraham Ingram wrote his will in Aug. 1817. He d. less than a year after writing the will. He wills140 acres on Hacker's Run to his son, Jacob. John Wilson (XVI-5) and his son, Archibald Wilson (XVII-68) were witnesses to this will.

Hacker's Run is about two miles below Philippi. The Harrison- Randolph Co. line must have been in this area as this will was recorded in Harrison Co.

If John Wilson had a store or an inn or a tavern, this would have been an ideal location. One road went up Hacker's Run and over the hill intersecting the Old Philippi Pike on Brushy Fork of Elk Creek, one road went up Fox Grape Run and over the hill to Simpson's Creek; one road went down the valley, north to Fairmont and Morgantown and one branch went south, up the Valley river to Beverley and Valley Head.

John Wilson is shown in the 1820 census of Harrison Co. with eight in family. Prunty's and Wm. Thompson were names near his. Prunty's lived on Elk Creek and this William Thompson was named in the will of William Thompson. This is more proof that John Wilson was living on Hacker's Run or Fox Grape Run in 1820.

From Haymond's History of Harrison Co.; "William Thompson, 400 acres on Fox Grape Creek, a drain of Tygart's Valley, adjoining lands claimed by William McClery, to include his settlement, made 1775, with a preemption of 1000 acres."

Moses Thompson was named in the will of William Thompson. The estate inventory, dated 7 Oct. 1818.

This land of Moses Thompson was sold by the sheriff in 1823. Archibald Wilson (XVII-68) bought this land.

In Harrison Co.Deed Book No. 15, Page 517, Feb. 1823- Moses Thompson to A.J. Wilson. Mary Wilson and her son, Blackburn Wilson (XVII-70) witnessed this deed. This land situated on Fox Grape Run.

John Wilson d. 12 Apr. 1827 in Harrison Co. Hill's History of Licking Co.,OH.,states "That he died at Philippi." From the above evidence, he must have been living on Hacker's Run or Fox Grape Run at the time of his death.

There is an old Quaker Cem.,on the ridge, about two miles from Philippi. This is also called the "Mt. Olivet Cemetry." One can view most of Hacker's Run and Fox Grape Run from this Cemetry.

This Historical marker has been placed in the center of the Cem. "Meeting place and burial ground- Richland Meeting- Society of Friends- This marks the center of the original burying ground, part of a ten acre tract deeded by Isaac Votaw and wife to trustees of the Society of Friends in 1800. The original corner stone is 600 feet south."

"Administered by trustees appointed by the Circuit Court of Barbour County under an act of the West Virginia Legislature, 1897. This marker placed here by Public Spirited and Historically minded citizens, October 1951."

There is a large space around this marker, with no grave stones. This may have been the old part of the Cem. The graves were probably marked with field stones and these have eroded away or have been removed or covered over.

I find no mention of this Quaker Cem. in any local history books. It was probably not a strong meeting and was only in existance for a few years.

Barbour Co.-Law Orders- Book No. 15, Page 6- "4 June 1897- In matter of appointment of Trustees for a burial Ground & c. in name of Benjamine Yates, John Votaw, Zachariah Ellison, Moses Votow, Preston Beck and Isaac Votow Jr. deceased, by deed 15 Sept. 1800 to said Trustees.

Trustees appointed; David W. Shaw, Ed R. Dyer, J.W. Talbott, Delbert M. Proudfoot and Augusta J. Zinn.

It cannot be proven but John Wilson must be bur. in this old Quaker Cem. William Friend Wilson (XVII-60) b. 1787, the son of William Wilson Jr. (XVI-4) is bur. here. William Friend Wilson owned the land upon which Philippi stands. This old Cem. must have served an area of several square miles.

Deed recorded in Randolph Co. in 1828, "Mary Wilson gave up her Dower Rights in three lots, in the town of Beverley in Randolph Co.

In the year 1828, Archibald Wilson (XVII-68) sold his land on Fox Grape Run. His sister, Temperence Wilson Thompson (XVII-71) (wife of Moses Thompson) signed this deed, giving up her Dower right in this land.

Barton Hudkins, father-in-law of Archibald Wilson (XVII-68), came to White Oak, Ritchie Co. in 1826.

Dorcas Wilson (XVII-67) m. Augustus Modisette 23 Dec. 1816. From records of Mrs. Daniel Jones (XXI-2136), "They took up residence on Middle Island Creek in Tyler Co."

After the d. of John Wilson, 12 Apr. 1827, all of this family, except, Temperence Wilson Thompson (XVII-71) must have started making plans to come to what is now, Doddridge, Ritchie and Wood Co's.These plans were fulfilled in 1828.

All of the children were m. except, John Jr. (XVII-69) and Mary (XVII-72). Whether John, Mary and their mother, after coming to the Doddridge-Ritchie area, had a separate home, or resided with some of the other children, is not known.

The 1850 census of Ritchie Co.,lists Mary Wilson, living in the home of her son, Archibald Wilson (XVII-68).

Ca 1856, Mary Wilson made application for a pension, being the widow of a Revolutionary war soldier.

The following depositions are in support of her application for a pension.

COPY OF LETTER

Note on top of this letter:- "His constitent (name not given) stated he wanted John Wilson R.11676, Va. Troops- whose widow Mary, drew pension under the act of 3 Feb. 1853 at which time she was a resident of Ritchie County (West) Virginia."

October 16, 1928.

Honorable M.M. Neely
United States Senate,
Washington, D.C.

My Dear Senator:-

In response to your letter of the 13 instant, I have the honor to advise you that from the papers in the Revolutionary war pension claim, R.11676, it appears that John Wilson married August 2, 1796 in Randolph County, Va. Mary Warthen, a daughter of John Warthen who moved from Montgomery Co.,Md. in 1795, to Randolph Co.,Va.

John Wilson died April 13, 1827 in Harrison Co.,Va.,aged about seventy one years.

His widow, Mary, applied for a pension March 3, 1857 while a resident of Ritchie Co.,Va.,aged seventy seven years and stated, John Wilson served as a private in the Revolution, length of service and officers name not given. It is also stated that he was in a battle below Wheeling at the "Narrows" on the Ohio river, under Captain Foreman, where he was severley wounded in the right arm, the bullit lodging in his hand.

He was a pensioner of the State of Virginia on account of his Revolutionary war service.

The widow's claim was not allowed as she failed to furnish proof of six months service as was required by the U.S. Pension law.

One Joel Westfall stated in 1856 in Harrison County, Va. and then aged seventy seven years, that the above named John Wilson was his step-father, his (Wilson's) first wife being his (Westfall's) mother. Her name is not given.

Very Truly Yours

WINFIELD SCOTT

Commissioner.

ANCESTORS SERVICE

"John Wilson was a private, a member of Cap. William Foreman's Co. of Hampshire Co. Volunteers who went to the defense of Fort Henry in 1777. He was wounded at McMichen Narrows on the Ohio river in Va.,now Marshall Co.,WV., and was pensioned by VA.

In 1788 he was a delegate to the Convention of VA., which ratified the Federal Constitution. (From, "Decendants of William Wilson" by C.J. Maxwell.)

Mrs. Mabel Hatfield Garfield (XX-2122) first proved the Revolutionary services of John Wilson, to join the DAR. All of the proof and research was by Mrs. Garfield.

Mrs. Foley (XX-1156) and Mrs. Dresbach (XX-2137) used Mrs. Garfield's membership to join the DAR.

Mabel Hatfield Garfield (XX-2122) is a granddaughter of Basil Wilson (XVIII-292) and Mary Ellen Fowler.

Mrs. Foley (XX-1156) and Mrs. Dresbach (XX-2137) are gr. dau's. of Evaline Wilson (XVIII-296) and Dr. A.J. S. Bee.

Hill's Hist. of Licking Co.,OH.,states that Mary Warthen was still living in 1869. Mrs. Garfield's, date of her d. is Sept. 24, 1866 at Beverley. This is probably the correct date but I do not know where Mrs. Garfield secured this information.

Mrs. Garfield has been a patient in the nursing home at Harrisville, WV. for the past 15 yrs. (1975). Her mind is completely blank. I have asked many questions of her relatives and husband, but no one knows where she secured this information. Some Wilson decendant must have it!

Two Questions are:-

WHERE IS MARY WARTHEN BURIED?

AT WHOSE HOME DID SHE DIE?

We know nothing of Moses Thompson and Temperence Wilson (XVII-71) after 1830. If they were living around Beverley and she d. at their home, she would probably be bur. by the side of John Wilson.

If she d. at the home of some of John Warthen's decendants, she would probably be bur. at Beverley, as none of her children would have been present to make the arrangements.

In 1973, THE RANDOLPH COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY PLACED A MARKER, IN MEMORY OF JOHN WILSON. This marker was placed in the Cem. at Beverley. I have never seen this marker (1975). Any decendant who happens to be in the Randolph Co. area should go and view this marker. The Society paid for the marker, and the labor, to have it erected.

Children of John Wilson and Mary Warthen:-

1.- DORCAS WILSON (XVII-67) b. 13 April 1799. She is bur. in Hardman Chapel Cem. This Cem. is located on WV. State Rt. No. 47, east of Smithville, Ritchie Co.,WV.

2.- ARCHIBALD WILSON (XVII-68) b. 10 Jan. 1801. He is bur. in the U.B. Cem.,Pennsboro, WV.

3.- BLACKBURN WILSON (XVII-70) b. 1803. He d. Left Hand Fork (Tug Fork) Walker Creek, Wood Co.,WV. He is bur. in the Mount Cem.,on Walker Ridge, Wood Co.,WV.

4.- JOHN WILSON JUNIOR (XVII-69) b. 1808. He is bur. in the Greenwood Cem.,Doddridge Co.,WV.

5.- TEMPERENCE WILSON (XVII-71) b. 1811. No information.

6.- MARY AMY WILSON (XVII-72) b. 11 Nov. 1816. She is bur. in the Piggott Cem. in Doddridge Co.,WV. This Cem. is located on Arnold's Creek, below Central Station.

1.- DORCAS WILSON (XVII-67)-1799-1883.

Dorcas Wilson b. 15 April 1799 in Randolph Co.,probably at Beverley. She m. Augustus Modesitt, in Harrison Co., VA.,23 Dec. 1819. They were m. by the Rev. Levi Shinn.

They took up residence on Middle Island Creek in Tyler Co. This may have been on Arnold's Creek. At this time many branches of Middle Island Creek were referred to as Middle Island Creek.

They later moved to Barbour Co. and came to Ritchie Co. in 1849. They resided one mile from the Iris postoffice. Augustus Modisett spent some yrs. teaching school.

Augustus Modesitt's tombstone shows he was b. 1789. The 1850 census of Ritchie Co. shows his b. 1796.

The 1850 census of Ritchie Co. lists Augustus with nine children, but it does not list Dorcas Modesitt. This must have been an oversight as she was still living.

2.-ARCHIBALD J. WILSON (XVII-68)-1801-1866.

Archibald J. Wilson b. 10 Jan. 1801 at Beverley in Randolph Co.,VA.

In 1817, Archibald Wilson, with his father, John Wilson, were witnesses to the will of Abraham Ingram.This was on Hacker's Run, about three miles below Philippi.

The sheriff of Harrison Co.,Va.sold land belonging to Moses Thompson. Archibald Wilson bought this land. When Moses Thompson made him a deed, Mary Wilson and Blackburn Wilson, his mother and brother, were witnesses to the deed This land was on Fox Grape Run, a branch of Hacker's Run.

Archibald Wilson m. Elizabeth Hudkins, 27 July 1826. He was 26 yrs. of age at the time of this m. Most young men, at this early time, were m. by the age of 20 yrs. It may be that John Wilson, father of Archibald, was physically handicapped and Archibald had to remain at home to help the family make a living.

Elizabeth Hudkins was b. in Randolph Co.,27 Oct. 1809. She was the dau. of Barton Hudkins and Naomi Ingram.

Barton Hudkins was the son of Bennett Hudkins and Nancy Anglin.

Naomi Ingram was the dau. of Abraham Ingram and Elizabeth Slaven. Elizabeth Slaven was the dau. of John Slaven Sr. and Elizabeth Stuart.

Archibald Wilson sold this land on Fox Grape Run in 18-28. In 1828 he bought land, in what is now Ritchie Co., from a Mr. Lowther.

He removed to this land in 1828. This is the Charley Broadwater farm, near Oxford, Ritchie Co.

Miss Minnie Kendall Lowther wrote in the Parkersburg News in 1943:- "The Wilsons have not only been one of the outstanding famalies of Wood-Ritchie, but of the state. Few realize the large part that they have played in our history. It was Archibald and his wife, Elizabeth Hudkins Wilson, who set the line going in this section of the State when they removed from Taylor Co. to what is now the Broadwater farm, near Oxford in 1828. When our grandparents, Archibald and Charlotte Willard Lowther, removed as the first settlers of Holbrook, six years later, they and the Wilsons were neighbors in the wilderness, and the friendship formed then lasted throughout the years, and has extended somewhat to their posterity. Grandmother always referred to them as "Uncle Archie" and "Aunt Betty." By and by the Wilsons removed to the Pennsboro vicinity where they were destined to rest."

"Archibald Wilson's ability became one of the strong forces in the developement of Ritchie Co. He taught school, was its first County surveyor, was a member of the first Constitutional Convention of the State, and was the first to suggest that the Counties be divided into Districts for educational purposes, and was the author of the resolution making such provisions, which, somewhat altered, bacame part of the Constitution. All the years the Wilson's have figured in educational matters."

In the yr. 1838, Archibald Wilson and his family removed from Oxford to the mouth of Lynn Camp. An incident to the moving as related by a grandson, "Dick" Wilson of Cairo; "My grandfather Lowther started working for grand pa Wilson when he was a very young man. When grand pa Wilson moved from Oxford to the Taylor farm, grand pa Lowther was helping him move. Grand pa Lowther was on a horse carryiig, "THE POT OF FIRE," and had one of grand pa Wilson's daughters on the horse. A turkey scared the horse, the horse jumped. Grand pa Lowther had to throw the fire to save the baby."

They resided where Paul Headley now lives (1975). There is an old graveyard close to the house. The exact location is not known or the names of any persons bur. there. There are colored people bur. there.

From earliest times, the main road from the Toll Gate vicinity to the Harrisville vicinity, went down Hughes river. Archibald Wilson's residence was on this road. They probably served meals to travellers and kept them overnight.

This road figures in several entries in the Ct. Order Bks.

Blackburn Wilson was a brother of Archibald Wilson. Simon Davis was the brother-in-law of Archibald Wilson, both having m. sisters (Edith Hudkins and Elizabeth Hudkins.)

Elizabeth Hudkins Wilson d. 18 July 1892. She is bur. in the U.B. Cem. at Pennsboro, WV.

The following inscription on her tombstone:-

ELIZABETH WILSON, BORN 27 OCTOBER 1809, DIED 18 JULY 1892.

They were the parents of twelve children:-

1.-JOHN MARSHALL (SQUIRE) WILSON (XVIII-291).
2.-BASIL H. WILSON (XVIII-292).
3.-HORATIO NELSON WILSON (XVIII-293).
4.-BARTON HUDKINS (BAIL) WILSON (XVIII-294).
5.-LEROY P. (DUMP) WILSON (XVIII-295).
6.-EVELINE WILSON (XVIII-296).
7.-TEMPERENCE JANE WILSON (XVIII-297).
8.-LOVE ANN WILSON (XVIII-298).
9.-SARAH ELIZABETH (SISS) WILSON (XVIII-299).
10.-ARCHIBALD BLACKBURN (DICK) WILSON (XVIII-300).
11.-WINFIELD SCOTT WILSON (XVIII-301).
12.-JOSEPHINE JACKSON WILSON (XVIII-302).

3.-BLACKBURN WILSON (XVII-70)-1803-1885.

Blackburn Wilson was the third child of John Wilson and Mary Warthen. From his age in the 1850 census of Wood Co. he would have been b. 1802. From his age, at the time of his 2nd m.,he would have been b. 1804. We can say, for a fact, that Blackburn Wilson was b. in the yr. 1803.

He m. (1) at the age of twenty five yrs. Archibald Wilson m. at twenty five yrs. of age. At this time most young men were m. by the age of twenty yrs. These late marriages of Archibald and Blackburn, seem to prove, that their father, John Wilson, was physically handicapped in later life. It may be that Archibald and Blackburn were the support of the family for several yrs.

Blackburn Wilson m. (1) Aprima Mount. This record of the M. in Harrison Co.,VA.:- "21 April 1828, Blackburn Wilson and Aprima Mount by Hamilton Goss." (C.J. Maxwell, in his book, has Aprima Mount m. to Blackburn Wilson, son of Col. Ben Wilson. He is in error. Aprima Mount m. Blackburn Wilson, the son of John Wilson.)

Several famalies of Mounts settled, on the ridge, between Walker and Volcano. The center of this settlement must have been between, where the road branches off to Petroleum, and the top of the hill, where the road drops down to Volcano.

There is a Mount Cem. about half way between the Petroleum road, and the top of the hill, where the road drops down to Volcano. This Cem. is a few hundred yards off the road on the Wood Co. side. It has not been used for yrs. and is grown up in brush and briers. Many Mounts are bur. here, whose gravesare marked. There are many graves that are not marked by stones of any kind.

When Blackburn Wilson m. he must have come to the Walker area. He resided on the Left Hand Fork of Walker Creek, now called Tug Fork of Walker Creek. He resided in a well built log house.

The 1830 census of Wood Co. lists Blackburn Wilson with a wife and one child under five yrs. of age.

Blackburn Wilson's family must have been one of the unfortunate famalies that contacted TB. This must have been the cause of the d. of Aprima and five of the children.

Aprima Mount must have d. ca 1863. There is no marker to prove it, but she must be bur. in the Old Mount Cem.

Blackburn Wilson and Aprima Mount had seven children:-

1.-MARCELLUS WILSON (XVIII-2000).
2.-FRANKLIN WILSON (XVIII-2001).
3.-TEMPERENCE WILSON (XVIII-2002).
4.-WILLIAM WILSON (XVIII-2003).

7.-ARMSTRONG WILSON (XVIII-2006).

3.-BLACKBURN WILSON (XVII-70)-1803-1885.

Blackburn Wilson m. (2) Kizziah Thorn. This m. recorded in Doddridge Co.,"25 Oct. 1864, Blackburn Wilson, 60, widow, b. Randolph Co.,resident Wood Co.,son of John and Mary Wilson and Kizziah Thorn, 47, b. Harrison Co.,resident Doddridge Co.,dau. of Abraham & Prudence Vanhorn. M. performed by A.J. Ashburn.

The 1850 census of Doddridge Co. shows that her husband was Hiram Thorn, with one child, Adeline, 13 yrs. of age. The same census shows Cinderilla Baton with this family.

No children were b. to Blackburn Wilson and Kizziah Thorn. Blackburn Wilson d. the first part of March 1885.

Mrs. Laura Curran of Walker, WV.,who is eighty six yrs. of age (1973) said that when Blackburn d.,that they loaded him on a sled and buried him out on the ridge next to Volcano.

I think we can state, for a fact, that Blackburn Wilson is bur. in the Old Mount Cem. There is no marker.

No one seems to know what became of Kizziah Thorn.

4.-JOHN M. WILSON (XVII-69)-1808-1880.

John M. Wilson b. 1808 in Randolph Co. The letter "M" in his name probably stands for "Marshall." He probably was named for John Marshall, Chief Justice of the Supreme Ct. The name "Marshall" is a common Wilson name, especially among the decendants of Archibald Wilson (XVII-68). Some of his decendants say his middle name was "Newton."

He came to the area of Ritchie-Doddridge (Then Harrison) in 1828. He and his mother and his sister, Mary, must have resided together but we know nothing of this. They may have resided on Arnold's Creek but this is only guessing.

He m. Charlotte Dotson in 1831. She was b. 1811, a dau. of William Dotson and Mary Franks. This William Dotson resided at Greenwood. Charlotte Dotson is a granddaughter of Richard Dotson, b. 1752, d. 1847. Every Dotson in this area of WV.are decended from Richard Dotson. See the Dotson family.

Teste G.W. Amos Clerk

Told to Mrs. Leon F. Wilson, April 1972, by a grand-daughter, Mrs. Willa (Nutter) Simmons (XIX-2071) at her home in Salem, WV.

"Grandmother Charlotte (Dotson) Wilson and Grand Pap cooked at the camp near Toll Gate when the R.R. went through (Now B. & O.) the Greenwood, Pennsboro, Toll Gate area. A lot of Irishmen worked on this work--Grand Pap bought Whiskey by the barrel, and the Irishmen came early in the morning, before work began for them, bringing their big pitchers to get their whiskey in. One of the daughters, perhaps, Mary, got an abcess on her leg, and as a result of this, the grandparents had to quit their job of cooking to take care of their child. For the time they were there- she did not recall how long it was- They were paid $400.00 in gold for the cooking."

Told to Mrs. Leon F. Wilson, May 9, 1972, by Mrs Dow Duty (Hattie Smith) (XX-1300).

"I recall my folks telling of Uncle John and Aunt Charlotte having been paid a large sum of money, cooking for the R.R. and that some relative came and stole it. Or anyhow they didn't get to keep it."

Henrietta Wilson m. Lewis Bond 8 Dec. 1881. They removed to Indiana. Henrietta Bond, took her mother, Charlotte Dotson Wilson with her.

Told to Mrs. Leon F. Wilson by Willa (Nutter) Simmons (XIX-2071) April 1972.

"I can recall very vividly my mother, Mary Ann (Wilson) Nutter (XVIII-308), getting word from her sister, 'Aunt Retta,' (Mrs. Henrietta Wilson Bond (XVIII-311), who lived away in Indiana, telling of the death of their mother, Charlotte Dotson Wilson. She died of dropsy. It was near 1895 as I was near 6 years old, or there abouts, at the time. There was no transportation at that time that would get her to Indiana in time for her mother's funeral. Transportation prohibited them sending her mother's body back here for burial. The letter by Retta stated, 'her mother had a little stand table by her bed all of the time. When Grandmother Charlotte could not get her breath she would lean upon the little stand; elbows on the table; bend over; and seemingly she could get her breath easier.' Aunt Retta, told my mother they buried her and they put the little stand upon the top of her grave, and left it there."

Willa said to me, "You could look West Virginia over and over and her grave would never be found--for I know she is buried in Indiana."(Note-some of this family res. in Madison Co.,IN.

John Wilson and Charlotte Dotson were the parents of twelve children:-

1.-EDITH MARTIN WILSON (XVIII-303)
2.-ELIZABETH JANE WILSON (XVIII-304).
3.-ANGELINE WILSON (XVIII-306).
4.-JASPER NEWTON WILSON (XVIII-305).

10.-JOHN DOTSON WILSON (XVIII-313).
11.-CHARLOTTE M. (SIS) WILSON (XVIII-312).
12.-WM. (BILLY) WILSON (XVIII-2007).

5.-TEMPERENCE WILSON (XVII-71)-1811-____.

Temperence Wilson b. 1811. She m. Moses Thompson before 1828. When Archibald Wilson soldland on Fox Grape Run in 1828, Temperence Thompson, signed the deed, giving up her Dower Right in this land. This was land that had been deeded to Archibald Wilson in 1823 by Moses Thompson. This proves that she was the wife of Moses Thompson and also proves that they were m. at this time.

The 1830 census of Harrison Co. lists Moses Thompson with several other Thompson's. This was probably the area of Hacker's Run, Fox Grape Run.

Nothing more is known of Temperence Wilson and Moses Thompson. The name, Moses Thompson, does not appear on any papers in Randolph or Harrison Co. after 1830.

They must have left this area. It does not seem possible that they could have remained in Randolph, Barbour or Harrison Counties without leaving some record.

6.-MARY AMY WILSON (XVII-72)-1816-1900.

Mary Amy Wilson b. 11 Nov. 1816. She must have come to the area, of what is now Ritchie and Doddridge Cos. in 1828. We know nothing of her until her m. in 1843.

On 24 Dec. 1843, she m. George Washington Shinn, who was b. in 1816. This m. was recorded in Tyler Co. and was performed by the Rev. Samuel Archibald. Rev. Samuel Archibald was a farmer, preacher and res. on Middle Island Creek or Arnold's Creek, in that part of Tyler Co. which later became Doddridge Co.

The following information by Ernest Wilson Shinn (XIX-737). "According to data from the family bible, George Washington Shinn d. 7 Jan. 1871. Mary Amy Shinn d. 24 October 1900."

Ernest Shinn states that her name was MARY AMY WILSON and not MARY ANN WILSON.

Both are bur_inthe Piggott Cem. on Arnold's Creek. There are no monuments at their graves.

They were the parens of eight children:-

1.-WILSON KIRK SHINN (XVIII-314).

1.-JOHN MARSHALL (SQUIRE) WILSON (XVIII-291)-1827-1916.

John Marshall Wilson b. 16 Sept. 1827. He is supposed to have been b. on Simpson's Creek, Taylor Co. Later information points to his having been b. on Fox Grape Run, two or three miles below Philippi, in what was then Harrison, Co. but now Barbour Co. He was the only child, not b.,in what is now,Ritchie Co.

In later life he was known by the name of "Squire."

He m. 20 Aug. 1850, Rebecca Jane Clayton, a dau. of Elijah Clayton and Millie Amos of White Oak. Rebecca Jane Clayton was b. 16 Sept. 1833, in Marion Co.

Elijah Clayton was a very religious man and would not let Rebecca m. John Marshall Wilson. So, John Marshall Wilson joined church and became a very devoted member until after the wedding.

They probably had only three different residences. The first res. was near the Wilson Cem. (McDougal Farm) on Beason. They then moved to Spring Run, where Joe Wilson now lives (1975). Before 1900 they moved to Pennsboro and res. there until their deaths.

From the 1860 census of Ritchie Co.:-John M. Wilson 33; Rebecca J. 26; Sherman V. 8; Leman C. 7; Quincy K. 5; Wm. M. 4; Alpha 2 and Lincoln 4/12.

FROM HIST. OF RITCHIE CO.,PUB. 1911- "JOHN MARSHALL WILSON, bro. of L.P.,is one of the oldest as well as one of the most prominent citizen of the town of Pennsboro.

He stepped upon the 'Battle Field of Life' on Sept. 16, 1827, and at the age of 24 yrs. claimed Miss Rebecca Clayton, dau. of Elijah Clayton, as his bride; and for almost 60 yrs. he has been a thrifty farmer of the Pennsboro vicinity; he having res. on the homestead now owned by his son, Alpheus, and on the McDougal farm before removing to the outskirts of town, and he is a large landowner.

His ch.,all of whom grew to yrs. of maturity and m.,were 12 in No.:Sherman, Quincy A.,and Josephine (Mrs. Howard Broadwater) have all passed on. Lehman, William, Ben F.,Lincoln, John, Hooker, Creed and Ingaby, who is Mrs John McDougal, all belong to this part of the Co.,and all are heads of intelligent famalies."

The Wilson Cem.,on Beason, is located on the McDougal Farm.

John Marshall Wilson was a trader in lands and loaned money. If one was a good risk, it was easy to borrow from him. If one was not a good risk, no money was to be had. He would be "Very Hard Up" and be desperately in need of money. Then he (John Marshall) would try and borrow money from the would be, borrower.

The coming of the banks in the 1890's and early 1900's, upset him very much. He had no use for the banks and was very mad at them.

Louie Foster made her home with him. In his older days he kept his money in a safe, in the kitchen. When he made a loan. Louie would open the safe and count out the money. She was the treasurer.

Rebecca Jane Wilson, carded the flax, spun the wool and made clothes for all 12 ch. The family, except for salt, sugar and coffee, was almost self-sufficient.

Everyone was welcome and were always asked to eat. Many preachers made a point of stopping here and trying to convert John Marshall. They always ate a good meal before making their "Pitch."

Mrs. Judd H. Dresbach (XX-2137) wrote the following in Jan. 1970, "I am the only dau. of Fonton Bee- son of Evelyn Wilson Bee, sister of your gf.,Marshall Wilson, and have lived in Ohio since 1901. I spent almost the entire summer of 1914 visiting my gmor. who lived with Mrs. James Foley's parents, Mollie Bee and Luthur Shafer in Pennsboro. There was something of a 'Gathering of the Clan' that summer and Uncle Marsh's home was headquarters. Our great Aunts, Love Prunty and "Ciss" Collins were still living in Pennsboro (She is mistaken, "Ciss" Collins d. 1908); Aunt Temperence Ireland came by train from Morgantown; Aunt Josephine Hammond came from Portsmouth, OH.;and Uncle Columbus Collins came from a Confederate home somewhere in the south. I was elected to serve as escorts for the elderly aunts as they crossed the dangerous railroad tracks in Pennsboro to and from your grandfather's home. After they had all gathered in, they all stayed at your grandfather's home and I remember played cards all of one night, and Aunt Josephine's granddaughter, who came from Portsmouth with her, and I slept on the third floor of the big house and had a wonderful time. While there, I met your father, Creed, who as I remember had a large blue scar across his forehead. Also I met your Aunt Ingabee and was a guest in her home one day. Ingabee and Uncle Marsh had visited our home in Chillicothe sometime before 1909, but I don't believe your father ever did."

A print of Pennsboro by a Mr. Fowler, 1899, shows this large three story house, upon the hill, above the present Allen's garage.

John Marshall Wilson d. 16 April 1916. His d. resulted from a cancer, located in the corner of his mouth.

OBITUARY- John Marshall Wilson was b. in Barbour Co., 16 Sept. 1827. D. 16 April 1916, age 88 yrs.,seven months.

He was united in m. to Rebecca Jane Clayton, 23 Aug. 1850 and to this union 12 ch. were b.,viz: Sherman V.,Leman C.,Quincy A.,William M.,Alpha O.,Lincoln, Hooker, Ingaba McDougal, Creed, Josephine Broadwater, John A.,and Ben. Of this No. two sons and one dau. have preceded him to the grave; Sherman V.,Quincy A., and Josephine Broadwater.

Mr. Wilson was an old landmark in Ritchie Co.,having lived here practically all his life and by industry and economy had accumulated a large fortune which he leaves to hid ch. and gch. The family of Mr. Wilson raised in this community are all highly respected and well to do citizens. He leaves an aged wife, 82 yrs. old and 9 children.

"Death borders on our birth and our cradel stands in our grave." God, to prevent all escape has sown the seed of d. in our very Constitution and nature so that we can as soon run away from ourselves as from death. Every ache, pain and wrinkle you see stamping itself on the brow, every accident which reveals the uncertain tenure of life, every funeral bell that tolls is only God's reminder that we are only tenants, at will and not by right pensioners on the bounty of the hour his not ours.
We live by deeds, not years, in thoughts not breaths, infeeling, not figures on the dial. We should count time by heart thrills. He most lives who thinks most, feels the nobelest and acts the best.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C.B. Gruber, Rev H.S. McCulty and Rev. J.M. Knight. W.F. Sill, undertaker, had charge of the funeral.

The funeral was held at the big house at Pennsboro. He was bur. in the Wilson Cem. at the mouth of Beason, within a few hundred feet of where he went to housekeeping.

The inscription on the tombstone:-
JOHN MARSHALL WILSON, 1827-1916.

The funeral procession from Pennsboro to Beason was by buggies and horses. Mr. Sill headed the procession with his old hearse and a black team of horses. We were in a two seated buggy.

It took so long to go there. Mr. Sill drove his team very slowly. He just let the team with the hearse just creep along. It seemed like we were hours on the road. It was the longest trip I have ever taken.

Rebecca Jane Wilson only survived her husband by a few months. The cause of her d. was Flux.

OBITUARY- Rebecca Jane Clayton Wilson was b. 16 Sept.

1833,and departed this life 21 Aug. 1916, aged 82 yrs.,11 mo.,5d. She was m. to John Marshall Wilson 20 Aug. 1850, who departed this life 16 April 1916. To this union were b. 12 ch.,10 boys and 2 girls, viz.,Sherman V.,Leman C., Quincy A.,William M.,Alpha O.,Lincoln, Hooker, Ingabee McDougal, Josephine Broadwater, Creed, John A. and Ben. Of this No.,3 have preceded her to the great beyond, viz.,Sherman V.,Quincy A., and Josephine Broadwater.

Funerall services were conducted at the home by Rev. C. B. Gruber, assisted by Rev. J.M. Knight, after which the remains were laid to rest by the side of her husband, on the old home farm on Beason.

Mr. Sill's hearse led the slow procession from the home in Pennsboro to the Cem. at Beason. We did not go by buggy this time. Bruce Rogers had a Model T Ford Touring car and we hired him to take us. We went on ahead and waited for the funeral procession at the Cem. This did not seem like the long trip of the spring before, at the funeral of John Marshall Wilson.

Inscription on her tombstone;
REBECCA CLAYTON WILSON, 1833-1916.

Both are bur. in the Lawnwood Cem. at Morgantown. Raymond Davis was a large stockholder in the Consolidated Coal Co. He became a wealthy man.
At a family reunion, many yrs. ago, Raymond and Fannie came from Morgantown in a large limousine with a colored chauffer. This show of wealth, over-awed these Ritchie Co. Wilson's, they being simple farm folk, more used to overalls and calico than to silk and broadcloth. Callahan's "History of W.Va.,old and new" Copyright 1923 gives the following account of this family.
"RAYMOND MOSES DAVIS, coal operator and broker at Morgantown, is one of the vital and progressive young business men of this city and is a native son of W.Va. He was b. on a farm 18 miles south of Pennsboro, Ritchie Co., Jan. 28, 1882, and a son of Moses H. and Mary Ellen Davis who now res. at Pennsboro, the father having been b. in OH. and the mother in W.Va. On the home farm Raymond M. Davis was reared to an adult age and that he profited fully by the advantages afforded in the public schools is shown by the fact that as a youth of only 16 yrs. he passed the required examination that gained him a teachers certificate of the 2nd class. The youthful pedagogue then bent his energies to securing a school in which to put his acquirements to practical test. He walked 3 miles to the top of a hill for a conference with one of the school trustees, who was working in a clearing. Upon making application to this trustee the latter after a careful survey of the applicant, said, "Boy, you should be in school instead of trying to teach." Thereupon Mr. Davis rode on horseback through all parts of his native Co. in search of a school, but his youth caused him to be unsuccessful in his quest, with the result that he abandoned his pedagoric ambition and entered the employ of the Eureka Pipeline Co. in Ritchie Co. He continued 3 yrs. in the employ of this Co. at nominal wages, and in the meantime learned from an operator at the Co. headquarters the rudiments of telegraphy. Until he had attained his legal majority Mr. Davis sent his wages to his parents, and at the age of 21 yrs. he entered the Mountain State Business College at Parkersburg, and he paid his own way while pursuing his studies in this institution 8 months. There after he passed about 3 months in the RR office at Pennsboro, after which he went to New Martinsville, Whetzel Co.,where for a short time he held the position of telegraph operator at the station of the B. & O. RR. He next engaged in the hotel business at Pennsboro, on borrowed capitol, and 2 yrs. later he sold the hotel business at a good profit, marking this successful issue by marrying and going with his bride to CA. There he passed 2 yrs. as a street car conductor in the city of Los Angeles, and in 1907 he and his wife returned to W.Va. and established their residence at Reedsville, where he became station agent and telegraph operator for the M. & K. R.R.,at a salary of $35.00 a mo. In Jan. 1908 he transferred to Albright, at an increased salary, and there he continued his service until 1911, when he was promoted train dispatcher and relief agent at Morgantown, in which city he has since maintained his home. Here he was promoted agent and dispatcher at the Saberton yards of the M. & K. R.R.,and in 1917 he was advanced to the position of train dispatcher. This office he resigned July 15, 1918 and permantely retired from R.R. service. In the meantime he had invested his savings in the timber business in Braxton Co.,and after a period of 3 yrs. he sold his interest in this line at a good profit. In Jan. 1918, Mr. Davis and Ernest H. Gilbert, who had long been associated in the R.R. services and who had gained considerable knowledge of the coal industry through handling large shipments from the mines organized the Gilbert, Davis Coal Co.,a partnership concern, and they have since continued as successful coal operators and brokers (Gilbert Davis Coal Co.). In 1919-20 they purchased 8 different mines in the Morgantown District, the same having an approxminate output of 4000 tons daily, and under normal conditions the annual brokerage business of the firm involves the handling of 1,000,000 tons of coal. Messers Davis and Gilbert have won success entirely through their own ability and efforts and have made for themselves secure vantage ground as reliable, progressive and successful young businessmen. Mr. Davis m. Miss Fannie Wilson, who was b. at Pennsboro Ritchie Co.,a dau. of Sherman V. and Alice (Broadwater) Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have 2 children:- Alice Irene b. "Wilson has been an industrous and successful farmer and now owns 456 acres of fine grazing land, said to be the best kept land in Ritchie Co. It is "Clean as a Pin" as he expresses it. Included are 40 acres of meadow, which is cut on the shares. The farm in general is rented out for grazing purposes only. He does light work on and around the premises now, such as looking after his garden, attending to 1 horse and 2 cows, he now keeps and seeing that the fences are kept in repair. He sells his share of the hay not used by the horse and cow.

"Indian Creek, on which the farm is located is a 17 mile stream with its source a mile distant above his house and empting into the S. Fork of Hughes river 2 miles below Smithville. Along its banks is a fertile valley, which produces abundently. The Wilson res. is half way between Harrisville and Pullman, but off the main highway about 1 mile "Modern equipment with running water, natural gas facalities and other conveniences, the res. is an ideal country home. However, while natural gas is used almost throuout the house, 1 room is reserved for a stove wood fire in winter such as "puts gas fires in the shade," and is used as a life long custom of the family.

"Such fruits as the family needs as well as the vegetables its members eat are mostly grown on the farm. The son, Arden, who lives a mile away, assists in the management of the farm and fondly looking after every need of the aged couple. Mrs. Wilson does her own housework. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have an old buggy, once very servicable but now in the day of the automobile, practically out of commission.

Mr. Wilson, reared on a farm, cleared a great deal of the land and did all other kinds of farm labor, although he never made shingles but sometimes had them used on him, as he joculary recalls. He turned out Hoop Poles by the thousands and helped get out lots of staves, which were sent to the railroad at Harrisville for shipment. Much of the fine timber on his farm was burned as there was no market for it. Some oak timber is still left on the farm. He obtains his gas fuel from the main line extending up Indian Creek and across the country by the way of Oxford from Chevaux De Frise Creek.

"Like farmer boys in his youth, Mr. Wilson attended school about 3 months a yr. and in the winter time, when there was little to do on the farm. His education therefore, never reached the academic stage, he says. He was too young to know much about the civil war, although he remembers about his father and others reading about its progress. He and one of his brothers about that time carried his fathers mail to and from Pennsboro, a distance of 2 miles, and did the same for John Cross, who was a neighbor. He recalls that for carrying Crosse's mail for an entire year, the latter gave him two cents. They took the money, but were too timid to tell Cross what they thought of him.

"Wilson remembers seeing soldiers drill from time to time at Pennsboro, and was thrilled. He had several Uncles on the Union side in the war.

"Mrs. Wilson attended school in her girlhood and acquired the fundamentals of an education. While she did not pursue arithmetic into higher mathematics, she says she learned to count money readily.

"Mrs. Wilson remembers that Jones Raiders in 1863 stole a horse belonging to her father when they marched through Ritchie Co. on the way to the Ohio river.

Mr. Wilson, one of the communities aged citizens will be sadly missed in all church affairs, and the community in which he lived and we trust our loss will be his eternal gain. Scripture Lesson taken from 8 chapter of ROMANS.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation or distress or persecution or famine or weakness or peril or sword? As it is written, for thy sake we are killed all the day-long; we are more than conquerors through him that love us. For I am persuaded that neither d., not life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor power, nor things present nor things to come, nor heights, nor depths or any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God.

I want to say to the bereaved relatives that I would much rather, this p.m.,take my seat with them than try to pay tribute to the dec'd. It is the fact that Uncle Lincoln, as I shall continue to call him, has preached his own funeral services, and that there is no other words that I might add, or any other preacher could add, or take from that might add consolation to those that are sad this p.m. and as I set in this church in 1914 I went through the same ordeal these children are going through this p.m.

I think as the good book teaches us we should rejoice with those that rejoice and weep with those that weep. We should be proud of the evidence we have this p.m. Let not your heart be troubled if you believe in God believe also in me. In my father's house there are many mansions, I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go, I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am you may be also, and we confine our hope on these words. Although we love to cling to this thread of life and loved ones, yet, when it comes down to that point and Jesus reaches down his arms and receives us it is easy for us to lay down the armor and pick up the crown of glory and I want to say that few days ago when I met Lincoln in the church he was so gracious and ask me to take the seat beside him where he had so often set in front of the alter. He said I want you to occupy a seat right here by me in order that I may hear what you have to say in regard to this Sun. Sch. lesson

Last Thur. noon when I sat in the room with him, I set down by his bed side. He arranged his fun. as completely as any man I ever heard in my life. This is what he said, "I am looking into the future and into the Realms of Glory and I have nothing to fear, nothing to dread and I have nothing else to say." When you conduct my fun. service say that,"I am going home to Glory." Since he said this I have nothing more to say, only as I have said before I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto my self, that where I am you may be also. Uncle Lincoln has made his mistakes and there have been sticks and thorns in his road and in his home, but in that 50 yrs of preparation and testimony he gave to one of his nearest neighbors in the 72 hours while he set beside his bed, trying to warn those in the present period of distress to cling to God with renewed energy, if we could just set the veil aside and see into the realms of eternity we would find that he ended his life gloriously. Come unto me all that are weary and heavy laden, take my yoke and lean on me.

I want to say to relatives and friends this p.m. in my closing as we take a last view of the remains, to lean on God and place your trust in him, you will need him in the end, and may God bless each and every one.

To the widow this P.M. it is going to be only just a few days and you will be re-united in the Glory Land.

To the children, who are going back to the vacant chair at home, clasp your hand with him and walk by his side.

Rev. Webb introduced Judge S.O. Prunty who made a very nice talk regarding the life and friendship of his friend.

SONG: God be with you.

Mr. Lincoln Wilson
Harrisville, W.Va.

My Dear Sir
Your letter received and I will be glad to do what I can to look after Grovers things until you can and keep you informed as to how things are. We do very much regret the occasion for it. And my sympathy goes out to you people at this time in the loss of your beloved son and brothers. Grover was one of my best friends and neighbor and I miss him and my boys who chummed with him miss him very much. He was clean never took a drink of booz did not use tobacco in any form or drink coffee. He was rich in love and talked facts instead of fiction. He knew the things of this world just as they are; He was farsited and honest. He, like the village blacksmith, could look the whole world in the face and say I owe not any man a dollar. It is to bad he could not live to enjoy his hard earned money. For he has given this world big value for every dollar of it. Civilization may mourn such men. The anarchest the Bolshevik was afraid of him. The whole county of Bingham Idaho mourns the loss of him. I have not the language to express my feelings or the facts as they are. I do hope his beloved relatives will use his properrty for their comfort and as a means for their happiness
With Kindest regards, I remain yours,

The following, "A TRIBUTE" was given by C.R. Sullivan, retired high school principal;
"Relatives and friends of Miss Ora-----
Last Sun. morning all of Pennsboro was saddened to learn of the passing of Miss Ora. Today we meet with loving hands and heavy hearts to gently lay the body of our dear friend within its final earthly resting place.
Miss Ora was a devoted daughter, a kindly neighbor, a helpful friend. We treasure these memories of her. But even more, I think, we appreciate Miss. Ora's life time of service as a patient, understanding skillful teacher. Seemingly Miss Ora was born to teach. For nearly half a century she helped the little ones take that giant step from their mother's sheltering arms to the outside world of school. Her love of children, her understanding heart and her skill as a teacher helped bridge the gap that looms so wide and deep for many youngsters.
Not only did she teach these hundreds and hundreds of little ones with matchless skill,-but think of the thousands and thousands of coats and caps, overshoes and mittens which she sorted; the tears she dried; the fears she overcame. Truly hers was a labor of love. Many gathered here today got their first start in school under Miss Ora's kindly guidance. Others of her boys and girls are scattered everywhere. And whereever they may be I am sure they cherish the memory of their kindly teacher.

It would seem to some that Miss Ora's years following her retirement would have been lonely years, but I think not. I think nor for the reason expressed in Elizabeth Browning's lovely poem, "Reward of Service," which I am sure Miss Ora would understand.

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds both great and small
Are close-knit strands of an unbroken thread,
Where love enobles all.
The world may sound no trumpets, ring no bells
The Book of Life the slurring record tells.
Thy love shall chant its own beautitudes,
After its own like working. A child's kiss
Set on thy stinging lips shall make thee glad;
A poor man served by thee shall make thee rich;
A sick man helped by thee make thee strong;
Thou shalt be served thyself by every sense
Of service which thou renderest.

And so today, I think, Miss Ora would have us remember her by the following, the adonition of another poet:-

Be not like the others sore undone, who keep Long Vigils by the silent dust, and weep.
For my sake turn again to life and smile,
Nerving thy heart and trembling hand to do Something to comfort weaker hearts than thine,
Complete these dear unfinished tasks of mine,
And I, perchance, may therein comfort you.

To you the family of Miss Ora, all of Pennsboro extends its deepest sympathy. But the loss is not yours alone for Miss Ora belongs to us, too. And as we share your sorrow we join you in treasuring the memory of her life.

9.-CREED WILSON (XIX-628)-1865-1943.

Creed Wilson b. 6 May 1865. He was probably b. near the mouth of Beason, within a few hundred yds. of the Cemetry.

He must have had to work very hard from the time he became large enough to do farmwork. He attended the country schools and probably attended school in Pennsboro the last yr. or two of his attending school.

At a very early age he started teaching school. One of his first schools was on Beason. Molly Bee was one of his pupils. When punishing one of the larger boys, this boy cut him with a knife. The cut started in the center of his forehead, and above the left eye and through the top of his left ear. Dr. A.J. Smith Bee and Evaline Wilson resided near the school. When this happened, Molly Bee ran home and told her mother, Aunt Evaline Bee.

Aunt Evaline Bee, ran to the school house and in some way stopped the bleeding and saved his life. He carried this scar of this knife wound as long as he lived. Teaching school in that day was not a high paying position. The salary was 25 or 30 dollars a month and the teacher boarded with some of the parents. Also, a teacher had to be in command or some of the larger boys would make trouble for him and maybe "Run Him Off."

He saved enough money to take a Short Normal Course at Glenville teachers college and grad. in 1890. To get to Glenville, he walked from Pennsboro, at the beginning of the school term and walked back at the ending of the term.

He then attended W.V.U. Law school and grad. first in his class. This was the class of 1894.

He was admitted to the Bar, but never practiced law. He continued teaching school. He taught at Beason, Ellenboro, and at Toll Gate. He continued teaching until ca. 1905.

Each yr. the teachers took an examination at Harrisville. This period of examination lasted 2 days. The teachers were then graded; No. 1, No.2, or a no. 3 certificate, and the pay was according to the grade of the certificate. Creed Wilson taught with a No. 1 certificate.

Each school usually had 3 local trustees and these trustees hired the teacher for the school. Although there was a Co. superintendant, the schools were managed locally.

On 20 Sept. 1893 he m. Allie Barr, the widow of James Broadwater. She was b. 16 Nov. 1866 at Centerville, Tyler Co.,daughter of William E. Barr and Sarah Emeline Ripley. For her complete history, see, "The Barr Family," The Ripley Family," "The Gregg Family,"and "The Nicholas Carpenter and Christopher Carpenter Famalies.")

Gf. wanted all his children to be farmers and he gave Creed a farm at Toll Gate, so he never practiced law, but settled down to making a living by farming. He was a hard working man and kept his farm clean and the fences and buildings in good repair.

After he quit teaching school he was one of the Toll Gate school trustees. He was a member of the Co. Board of Education for several years.

As a younger man he took part in the schools literary programmes. Each school, during the winter, had what they called "Literary" on Friday nights. Large crowds attended. Each week had a very hot debate by four of the adults of the community, two pro and two con. These debates created much interest and sometimes personalities became involved.

Allie Barr, like all the Ripley women, was a good cook and housekeeper. She did a great deal of reading until her eyes began to fail her. There was no radio and my parents entertained themselves and the family by reading aloud of an evening. There was a large library and the bible was read, although no one belonged to or attended church.

At the time of her d.,Allie Barr's hair was as black as it was when she was young. People that had known her all her life said she looked very little different than she did as a young woman. For the last few yrs. of her life she had a great deal of trouble with her eyes. This was a great handicap. to a woman, that had led a very active life and who secured much pleasure from reading.

She d. 26 July 1933, at St. Joseph's Hosp. in Parkersburg, of Pellegra- A very rare disease in this part of the country. The fun. was held at the U.B. Church at Pennsboro. She was bur. in the U.B. Cemetry. A very large crowd of people attended the funeral.

The inscription on her tombstone;

Signature proved by Mrs. E.L. Waldo and Carrie F. Stinespring. No apprasial or settlement is recorded.

Creed Wilson continued to res. at Toll Gate. He lived by himself most of the time but at times he had a housekeeper

In the fall of 1942 he was operated upon for cancer of the stomach. The operation was successful for atime but during the late fall and winter his condition worsened.

He seemed to enjoy life and get along fine until after the operation. The last few months of his life was spent in bed. For an active outdoor man, this was not a very happy time. He d. 8 April 1943 at Toll Gate and was bur. in the U.B. Cem. at Pennsboro, WV.

The inscription on his tombstone;
CREED WILSON, 1865-1943.

PENNSBORO BEWS, APRIL 1943. CREED WILSON. More friends than the U.B. Church could accommidate attended the fun. Sun. p.m. of the late Creed Wilson, conducted by the Rev. Ralph Richards, assisted by the Rev. C.E. Ruble. The remains were taken to Pittsburg, PA.,for cremation, by Lewis Rogers, who had the arrangements in charge.

Mr. Wilson would have been 78 yrs. of age, May 9. He was of pioneer stock. His ggf.,John Wilson was the first of the family to be b. in America. He achieved distinction as an Indian fighter, was severley wounded near Wheeling, became a soldier of the Revolutionary war, and later served as County Clerk of Randolph Co. for 30 yrs. His gf.,Archibald Wilson, was a teacher and surveyor and a member of the convention that wrote West Virginia's first constitution. His father, J.M. (John Marshall) Wilson was one of the counties best financiers and largest landowner. Mr. Wilson, himself, taught school as a young man, grad. from Glenville Normal school and later W.V.U. law school. He was admitted to the Bar but preferred agriculture- although he would have been a successful lawyer. He had an unusually good mind, was of rugged integrity, and was a public spirited kindly gentleman.

His wife, Allie Barr Wilson d. a number of yrs. ago. There survive 3 sons:- William E. of Carbondale, IL.; Brooks of Pennsboro and Barr, who is in the navy; 2 step-sons, Frank and Fred Broadwater of Parkersburg; a step-daughter, Ramona Broadwater and a brother, Mayor Ben Wilson of Pennsboro- the last named being the last surviving member of a family of twelve children.

The News has lost in Mr. Wilson, one of its staunch and highly appreciated friends. It extends to all the bereft, its deep sympathy. Final Rites were held in the U.B. Cem. conducted by the Rev. C.E. Ruble, Tuesday morning.

(Note to the above- John Wilson was not the first b. in America- He was the 5th. child b. in America.)

PARKERSBURG PAPER, APRIL 1943. CREED WILSON, 77, DIES. "Pennsboro April 9- Shortly afternoon Thur.,Creed Wilson, 77, one of Ritchie Co's. prominent farmers and leading citizen, d. at his home at Toll Gate after an illness of several months. He was b. near Pennsboro, 6 May 1865, the son of the late John Marshall and Rebecca Clayton Wilson, both members of pioneer famalies. He taught in the public schools of Ritchie Co. and after grad. from what was then Glenville Normal school, about 55 yrs. ago.,completed the law course in the W.V.U. and was admitted to the Bar. However, he never practiced law, devoting his ability and energies to agriculture.

His wife, Allie Barr (Broadwater) Wilson d. several yrs. ago. There survives 3 sons, William of Carbondale, IL.;Brooks Wilson of Pennsboro and Barr Wilson, who is in the army and has probably gone overseas. Mayor Ben Wilson of Pennsboro, his brother, is the last surviving member of a family of 12 children. Frank Broadwater and Fred Broadwater of Parkersburg and Miss Ramona Broadwater of Toll Gate are his step-children.

From the column,"LEFT HAND TURNS" by J.(Joe) A. Wooddell "The passing of Creed Wilson removes from this visible world a gentleman between whom and myself a friendship began more than half a century ago that has endured through the yrs. and which means much to me. His was a useful and therefore as I see it, a good life. He had a fine mind; read much, observed keenly; reflected upon what he had read and seen; put the result to work. Not even the wisest man can evaluate what his life was worth to the community...He was one of 12 children- 10 sons and 2 daughters. One of these, Mayor Ben Wilson is the sole survivor. I deeply sympathize with him as I am in a like position.

Large famalies seem to have been the rule in those days. Not only were 12 children in Squire Wilson's family but there were many sons and daughters at L.P. Wilson's, T.J. Broadwater's, Ashford Broadwater's, Edmund Taylor's and other homes in pre-civil war days.

Note to the above- John Marshall Wilson was called Squire Wilson. L.P. Wilson was LeRoy P. (Dump) Wilson and a brother of John Marshall Wilson. T.J. Broadwater was Thomas Jefferson Broadwater of Toll Gate, a son of Jefferson Broadwater. Ashford Broadwater res. on McKim Creek in Tyler Co.and a brother of Jefferson Broadwater. Edmund Taylor res. at the mouth of Lynn Camp.

Joe Wooddell wrote a very interesting column which appeared each week in the Pennsboro News.

PARKERSBURG NEWS, 1943. CREED WILSON CROSSES by"Evangeline."

April 8, 1943 was marked by the crossing of Creed Wilson of Toll Gate, a native and life long resident of Clay District, Ritchie Co.,at the age of 77, and one of its most intellectual and industrous citizens. He was the son of the late J. Marshall and Rebecca Clayton Wilson, both of whom came out of outstanding pioneer famalies, and one of 12 children, all of whom preceded him to the grave except Mayor Ben Wilson of Pennsboro. The Wilsons have not only been one of the outstanding famalies of Wood-Ritchie, but of the state. Few realize the large part that they played in our history. It was Archibald Wilson and his wife, Elizabeth Hudkins Wilson who set the line going in this section of the state when they removed from Taylor Co. to what is now the Broadwater farm, near Oxford in 1828. When our grand parents, Archibald and Charlotte Willard Lowther removed as the first settlers at Holbrook, 6 yrs. later, they and the Wilsons were neighbors in the wilderness, and the friendship formed then lasted throughout the yrs.,and has extended somewhat to their posterity.Grandmother always referred to them as "Uncle Archie and Aunt Betty." By and by the Wilsons removed to the Pennsboro vicinity where they were destined to rest.

Archibald Wilson's ability became one of the strong forces in the developement of Ritchie Co. He taught school, was the first Co. Surveyor, was a member of the first constitutional convention of the state, and was the first to suggest that the Co's. be divided into districts for educational purposes, and was the author of the resolution making such provisions, which, somewhat altered, became part of the Constitution.

All the yrs. the Wilson's have figured in educational matters, and Creed was not only a teacher, but completed a law course at the State Univ.,and was admitted to the Bar. And as evident in his bearing he was a born student of affairs.

WILSONS IN BACKGROUND. In our wide search of the ancestors of the famalies of Ritchie Co. for our coming history, no other one was so voluminous or more intensely interesting than that of the Wilsons, back to William and Elizabeth Blackburn Wilson who set the Virginia line going in young America. Three of their sons, Col. Ben, John Wilson of Randolph Co.,from whom the Ritchie Co. line comes and Archibald Wilson, who went to Ohio--in almost neighboring distance of us today, in Licking Co.,and made voluminous history and left innumerable posterity as did the W.Va. brothers. No other family in our study has equalled them in posterity.

Col. Ben Wilson, who has numerous decendants among our readers, was the father of 30 children, and when he d.,his posterity then numbered 136 persons, and imagine it today. John had a large family, as did Archibald, their brother; and Col. Ben and John had the signal honor of being members of the Richmond Convention that ratified the Constitution of the U.S. Archibald left a wonderful record in OH., which has been our pleasure to uncover.

ON LOCAL SOIL. But let us just pause for a moment and find him on Parkersburg soil. He joined the forces of Lord Dunmore's army in 1774, and was with him in his famous expedition with the savages in the Scioto Valley, and according to Wilson's own statement, while on the return from Ohio, Archibald Wilson and the White Brothers, at their own request, were discharged from the army, at the Ohio river for the purpose of looking the Country over. They crossed the Ohio into VA. near the mouth of the Little Kanawha, where they blazed the trees with their tomahawk titles, and carved initials of their names and dates, hoping at sometime to occupy the places, but coming upon fresh signs of Indians hastened their steps homeward.

This is but a mere glimpse of the pages that have been set apart of this family for our coming history of Ritchie County.

Creed always liked our pen, and in coming in contact with him, shortly after we became connected with the News,he not being of its political faith, was not on the list, and hardly knew how to arrange. But finally said, "However, I must have what Evangeline writes," and this is just a little tribute for his tomb and a word of sympathy for his living brother, Mayor Ben Wilson of Pennsboro, from the pen of "Evangeline."

(Note to the above- "EVANGELINE" was the pen name used by Minnie Kendall Lowther when she wrote for the Parkersburg News. Miss Lowther wrote the History of Ritchie Co., copyright in 1911. From the above, she must have been gathering material for a second History of Ritchie Co.)

LEFT HAND TURNS by Joe A. Woodell, 23 May 1935.

"I write this paragraph just after Ben Wilson told me how gravely ill was his brother, that quietly kindly gentleman, my friend, John Wilson. To us who live in rural communities, sickness and death among us carry a deeper signifiance than with those who live in large cities. One who has lived long in a little town like ours knows almost everyone else who lives in it. Many of these are his friends One cannot speak of what touches any of them without being touched himself...John Wilson and his good wife are to me as to many others-and have been these many yrs.,neighbors; good neighbors. I think of him as one from whom I have received naught but kindness and courtesy...I remember last Christmas he sent the welfare committee of the Womans Club a quarter of beef for their baskets. That was only one of his many good deeds. To me it had in it more of the spirit of the Nazerine than has any blind adherence to the 39 artcles of religion...This is a paragraph that should have been written months ago. We speal our wordsof appreciation oftimes too late.

"I believe that you will find that your gf's. Brother, Horatio Wilson did not live exactly on Spruce Creek but on a branch of Spruce called 'Straight Fork.' My gf. Gragg bought a part of the Wilson farm so they were neighbors for yrs. My mother dated one of the Wilson boys, Claude, who was later shot to d. in Clarksburg. From my parents and gp's. I know a lot about the Horatio Wilson family. One of my uncles, the late John Conrad bought the old Wilson homestead and lived in the old log house for some time so I have spent many a night there. Later they had the house torn down and a smaller house moved to the sight. There was a huge barn and a good orchard. Horatio Wilson and several other members of the family are bur. on the farm on a little hill overlooking the farm house. It is in the woods and my sister and I often played among the grave stones. Mr. Wilson's monument was rather large and of granite with the Masonic Emblem on it."

FROM HIST. OF RITCHIE CO.,PUB. 1911, CHAPTER ON BURNT HOUSE. "H.N. WILSON- In 1883, this dwelling and mill passed into the hands of H.N. Wilson, and here, the following spring, one of tha saddest pages of Mr. Wilson's life was written when the mill exploded, instantly killing his little son, Burr Wilson, and dreadfully scalding his eldest son, L.B. Wilson.

Shortly after this sad occurance, Mr. Wilson sold his mill to the late G.W. Fling, and his step-son, A.C. Fisher and a few months later disposed of his interest in the store to his partner, Mr. Stalnaker, and went to Cornwallis, early in the yr. 1886, where he was engaged in the merchantile business for the next 18 months, until the store was accidently destroyed by fire; He then returned to Burnt House and again in 1890, opened a store here, and continued to sell goods until his d. in 1892.

Mr. Wilson was b. near Oxford in 1831; was a member of the pioneer family of Wilsons whose history appears with the South Fork settlers. In 1859, he m. Here he passed from earth and, here he sleeps. His wife was laid by his side in December 1907.

le type about when he was a little boy. My favorite was something about a rabbit that travelled from Lick Skillet to Lynn Camp. There was also some hollows in the location but I cannot recall the names of them, anyway, after I would exaust his imagination in making up stories I would ask him to tell me the same ones over and over. He had a good voice and made up songs for me. He also sang about the house and while at work about the place. I do not know what formal education he had but do doubt that it was beyond grade school. But he was self-educated. Mother told me he was very good in mathematics. People would come from all around to have him figure things for them. He workedin the oil fields in WV. and OK. My family spent two winters in OK. during which he worked there. Then his health failed and he d. of heart failure complicated by pneumonia. He was bur. in Ellenboro. Mother, too, was a fine woman. You may remember her when we lived in Pennsboro. She was a daughter of Joseph Clinton Lacy and Irene Pickering. Her formal education was in public schools at Ellenboro and Miss Kinney E. Smith's school in Parkersburg. Many yrs. later she took some work in Library Science, at Central State Univ.,Edmond, OK. Soon after that he was m. in CA. They lived in Santa Monica for several yrs. During this time he was active in Civil Defense work. He served in the U.S. Army in WWII. Due to his heart condition he was not sent overseas but was trained and served as a baking supervisor at a training camp. She was very capable and lovely person. She did the letter writing until her d. in 1954. Donald's yrs. with her had been happy ones and he was terribly broken up when she d. He had a heart attack soon after and was hospitalized for some time. When he became able to trav-

When these farmers wanted to ride the train, they just stepped out of their front door and flagged the train. Many of them spent their spare time riding the train, gossipping about the neighbors and playing jokes on each other. The victim of the following joke was the late Harry Grant Cline, who resided on Buck Run. Grant was an old time school teacher and taught school all his life. This must have been one of his first schools.

From Harrisville Weekly Review, Dec. 10, 1885. "One morning recently an amusing occurance took place on the train between this place and Pennsboro, the Conductor and a passenger by the name of Cline, being the prominent participants. The regular Conductor was off duty, and Mr. Clark Hess, of this place, was acting in that capacity. The P.& H. is famous for dead-head passengers. It happened on this occasion that there was some half dozen or more free riders on board. "Dump" Wilson was among the number (He has rights that is bound and must be respected), and is every ready and willing for a spot of fun. At Goose Creek a gentleman by the name of Cline, who wields the birchen rod over the Rock Camp School, boarded the train. "Dump" immediately "sniffed" fun in the air. To pave the way for the racket that was being hatched in his fertile brain, he immediately entered into conversation with Cline, and filled him to the upper gauge. Mr. Hess was on the platform attending to duty. "Dump" says to Cline, "Do you see that fellow on the platform, with a cap on?" Cline replied, "I do." "Dump" again remarked, "that he was a regular fraud and dead-beat, and that he made a practice of going along the railroads and collecting fare from unsuspecting passengers, and he might well to 'look a little out' as he very likely would try the old game on this occasion." In due time Mr. Hess entered the car and politely asked Cline for his fare. Cline, of course refused to pay it. Clark informed him that he must either pay him or be put off the train. Cline still refused to make the payment. After considerably parley was had over the matter Cline drew from a private receptable a huge purse, the identidy of which was not at first recognized and intended from his actions to pay his fare; "Dump" right eye is not under very good control, and on this occasion gave a very sly wink, which Cline unfortunately saw, and interepted to mean, "Don't pay him." Clark saw the action of that eye and immediately caught on. The purse was returned to the pocket. Clark started for the door of the car for the purpose of stopping the train and ejecting Cline. Cline concluded that he had better accept the situation and pay Clark his fare, which he did. He remarked as he handed the conductor the exact change, that he wanted all present to witness the fact that he paid his fare, and that he did not intend to leave the car until he reached Pennsboro. The next stop the train made Tom McDougal stepped aboard. Tom loves a joke as well as any other mortal man, and was appraised of the racket. "Dump" advised Tom to enter the car and ask Cline for his fare. At this point the pressure became very great and the safety valve acted like a charm. He (Cline) called them all kinds of pet names. Tom was unable to play his part well and Cline tumbled to the racket. He saw the point. He politely and in No. 2 style, informed "Dump" that he was the "fraud and dead-beat." Cline promptly apoligized to Clark for his hesitancy of paying his fare and for any uncouth language that he might possibly have used toward him. "Dump" wears a broad grin and says he is quietly waiting for another opportunity to raise a racket.

I have a good friend, Doctor Jim
And I owe many thanks to him,
For kindly deeds, and thoughts exprest,
That came from deep within his breast.

He still lives in the "Old Home Town"
That he has helped to gain renown;
Along the Old Northwestern Pike,
Where there are many folks I like.

I love to visit Doctor Jim,
And read my poetry to him;
And try to touch, with eager zest,
Responsive chords within his breast.

Quite often times I climb his stairs,
And come upon him unawares
But never find an air of gloom
In Doctor Jim's reception room.

He's a fine physician, too,
And when he goes to Doctor you,
No matter what may be your ills,
His smile's effective as his pills!

When scorching fever seared my soul,

And almost took my life for toll;
My loved ones called for Doctor Jim,
That's why I owe my life to him!

Back yonder in my younger days,
When I'd get reckless in my ways,
And do things that I wouldn't now,
He stuck right to me anyhow.

And since I've found the talents hid,
He says he's mighty glad he did.
And now until my eyes are dim,
I'll not forget good Doctor Jim!

Annie Wilson b. 23 May 1869, d. 22 May 1924. She m. Hall Hamilton in 1902. Her obituary in Pennsboro News;

"Mrs. Anna Hamilton, wife of S.H. Hamilton, d. Tues. May 23, 1924. Had she lived until the next day she would have been 55 yrs. of age. The fun. service was conducted from the family residence Sun. p.m. by the Rev. Arthur Lazenby and internment in the U.B. Cem. in the family plat. The fun. was largely attended and the floral tributes were many and beautiful. She is survived by her husband and by one dau.,Louise; and by her mother: 6 brothers and 3 sisters, the mother being Mrs. Virginia Wilson; the brothers, Dr. J.B. and Marsh Wilson of Pennsboro; Archie J. of Harrisville; B.F. of Bowling Green, KY.;Lee and Okey who are in the southwest; the sisters, Miss Anges formerly of New Mexico, but who is now here, Mrs. C.J. Boppell of Spokane, WA. and Mrs. A.L. Davis of Charleston.

Mrs. Hamilton was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church; belonged to the Order of the Eastern Star, and had for a number of yrs. been a teacher in the local schools. Mrs. Hamilton was one of Pennsboros best and most useful woman and her place will be hard to fill.

Ever since the school has served lunches to the children the lunch room has been practically under her charge. She has made it her business to see that those, whose parents were unfortunate, were properly nourished and warmely clad. Her influence for good, quiet unobtrusive but persistent-her cheerful courage, her devotion to her duty, her readiness to serve under all circumstances, will long be a force in the community. Her whole life was one of service, she gave herself without stint, freely and unselfishly

And as the shadows began to lenghten she faced the close of the day as she had met its tasks-cheerfully and unafraid. The heart of the entire community goes out to her immediate family, the mother, husband and dau.,more especially. But the loss is not only theirs nor is it confined to her wide circle of relatives and friends.

Pennsboro has lost one of its priceless possessions- a good woman, of rare common sense, kindly, cheerful. modest brave, unselfish, whose life as modeled after that of him who had come not to be ministered unto but to minister to others.

Evaline Wilson Bee's gdau.,Mrs. Avis Grace Bee Dresbach (XX-2137) has written the following;

"Evaline Wilson Bee was the 6th child and 1st dau. b. to Archibald J. Wilson and Elizabeth Hudkins, being one of 12 children. Since she d. 1920 and all her children were d. before I became interested in her total history. I have been unable to learn very much about her younger yrs. I am sure she profited greatly from the public education which was available in Ritchie Co. at that time, for she always spoke correct grammar, loved good books and had considerable ability in managing her own affairs after being widowed before she reached 50 yrs. of age. She was a hansome woman and while not tall, carried herself so erectly that she always gave the impression of great dignity. Her voice was well modulated and she always spoke quite softly. It seemed the more annoyed she became the more softly she spoke. She was possessed of a delightful wit and a sense of humor that sparkled forth from her rather large blue eyes!"

"When I was a teenager who always seemed to be the lone girl in an all-boy neighborhood, my material gmor. used to become annoyed by my careless dress and held gmor. Bee up as an example I should follow. Having lived for 20 odd yrs with a dairy farmer, I find her statement rather amusing, but can still hear her say, 'I NEVER SAW YOUR GMOR. BEE EVEN GO OUT TO MILK A COW WITHOUT FIRST COMBING HER HAIR AND PUTTING ON A CLEAN APRON. Amusing or not, I have definately learned that having one gmor. so extole the other is of itself no mean compliment. By the time I was 16 her hair was almost entirely white; she liked to have me wash it and put a bit of laundry blueing in the rinse water to keep it white, and that all through the summer months she dressed in the afternoons in all white including white shoes. When she was 75 she had a beautiful gown and bonnet made from rich grey satin, and another from crisp black taffetta and set out alone to travel by B.& O. train from Pennsboro, WV. to Oklahoma City, OK. to visit her oldest son, Dr. Archie Bee. My mother and I walked some distance to the depot in Chillicothe, OH.,to talk with her for the 15 minutes the train stopped there. Completely composed, elegantly gowned, she sat there without a trace of self-pity that she was so alone, but only with that delicious twinkle in her eye and the anticipation of soon seeing her first born child."

"Less than 2 months before her 28 birthday, she was m. in Pullman, WV.,by the Rev. John Conwell, to Augustus J. Bee known throughout my life and inscribed on his tombstone as Dr. A.J. Smith Bee. Dr. Bee was the 8th of 10 children b. to Ephriam Bee and Catherine Davis, both of Doddridge Co.,WV. Ephriam Bee was a member of the first Leglislature which wrote the Constitution for WV.,and having a dau. b. on this very day that Pres. Lincoln declared W.Va. a state, named the poor child, 'West Virginia!'"

"Mrs. James Foley (Beulah Shafer (XX-1156) has in her possession a deed showing that Dr. Bee bought a tract of 100 acres from his parents in Doddridge Co. The deed is dated 1 Jan. 1866, but since Dr. Bee and Evaline Wilson were m. in 1864, there is no record that they ever lived in Doddridge Co. It is presumed that they went to housekeeping on Beason in Ritchie Co. where they were known to have lived when their 1st child was b.,possibly on the tract of 400 acres willed jointly to Evaline Wilson and her sister, Josephine Wilson Hammond (XVIII-302) by their father, Archibald Wilson, at his d. in 1866. They were living there at the d. of gf. Bee, 25 May 1885, leaving gmor. a widow at age 49 with 6 children still at home, the youngest only 8 yrs. of age."

"The family says, gf. returned one late sfternoon, after having been gone 2 or 3 days on a maternity case, called his dau.,Molly, to take care of his horse and went into the house. He mentioned to gmor. that he was very tired and hungry, but learning that supper was not quite ready, walked out on the porch to rest and just fell over d. with a heart attack. The oldest son, Ephriam Archibald, went off to medical school at the Oler Starling Loving Medical Academy in Columbus, OH.,and gmor. with the help of her dau. and my 17 yr. old father, continued to manage the farm until about 1907 or '08 when she went to Pennsboro to live with her dau.,Mollie Shafer. She continued to make her home with Molly until her d. in Parkersburg, WV.,on 1 March 1920."

"Possibly in accordance with her early training, Evaline Bee, paid a small amount weekly for her board and room, after she left the farm and when visiting with others of her children insisted upon giving them the same amount that she paid for what she considered her permanent home. Even when they demurred, saying she was 'visiting' them, she was adament about 'paying her own way' and even through a widow for 34 yrs. was able to leave a modest legacy to each of her 6 children. She visited in OH. from time to time and lived in Chillicothe for 2 brief periods; the 1st about 1911-1913 when she made a home for her son Archie's 2 sons. They lived just across the St. from our home, both 1 floor plan houses, and when the great flood of 1913 hit, gmor. found refuge in the unfinished attic of a nearby house where she won the undying admiration of the neighborhood because of her courage and good humor during those trying days, completely without heat, with little food or water and the knowledge of death nearby. When the waters receded and she was comfortable in her dau Katherine's home outside the flooded area, she announced that just as soon as the first B.& O. train was able to run again she was going back to the W.Va. hills and never leave them again. However, she did return a few yrs. later to make a home briefly for her dau.,Gay and gdau.,Christina LaBarte."

"The trait that made the most profound impression on me was that she never discussed one child's troubles with any other of her children, and as we grew older, she admonished us gch. to be sure we 'never washed our dirty linens in public.' Just recently, because of deaths in the family,I have learned that both my brothers lived very largely by both those precepts. Always interested in education, gmor. donated the land on which the Beason school was built but there is no record as to that date. At her d. the Parkersburg newspaper printed in her obituary this last tribute, 'The News of her d. will be learned of with regret by her many friends, for she was one of the best loved women of the community.'"

"She rests in the U.B. Cem. in Pennsboro beside her husband and dau.,Emma, who d. in childhood."

an encounter with Russia, the army sent Col. Mollie Bee was b. on Beason, 3 March 1870 and continued to live there until her m. to Thornton Luther Shafer on 14 May 1894 in a ceremony performed by Rev. I.A. Hall. She was attending the Beason school when one of the older boys cut the teacher, Creed Wilson, with a knife, almost entirely across his forehead. Mollie ran home to fetch her mother who was able to control the bleeding, and by quick thinking is credited with saving Mr. Wilson's life. Luther Shafer was a son of David C. Shafer and Jane Hayhurst and was one of the most kindly and patient man, I have ever known. He travelled for a time for a wholesale store in Pennsboro, which I believed he owned jointly with Ephriam Bee, a cousin to his wife. When I visited the family in 1914, he owned a retail grocery in the downtown area of Pennsboro and lived near the top of the hill, just off the main St.,that went up from the B.& O.R.R. tracks. On 2 different days he took his 9 yr. old dau. and me to the Ritchie Co. Fair, even took us to the races and seemed to actually enjoy showing 2 children around.

After leaving Pennsboro, the family lived for a few yrs. in CO.,but soon returned to WV.,where they lived in Parkersburg, where I visited gmor. Bee just 2 weeks prior to her d. Sometime later Mr. Shafer retired from active business and moved to a large country home near Boaz, WV. Gay Bee was b. 22 Dec. 1874. She was the prettiest of Evaline Wilson Bee's dau's. but not the Great Beauty she seemed to consider herself when I first knew her. There are no dates for this family. It must have been around 1914 or '15 when she arrived in Chillicothe, to make her home for less than a yr.,as I recall. Her mother came to Chillicothe to live with her. She had been m. for several yrs. to Warren LaBarte from WV.,I believe they had been living in IL. when "Shorty" as he was called by all the family, including his young dau.,was connected with the oil business. He was reputed to have made a great deal of money and to be a very friendly and likeable young man. He and Gay Bee had separated and had a dau.,Christina, who must have been no more than 7 or 8 yrs. old at the time. After a few months they left Chillicothe and went to visit her brother, Dr. Archie Bee, in Oklahoma City, OK. She had secured a divorce but the family said she remarried Mr. LaBarte in a very pretty ceremony in her brothers home. The m. could not have lasted very long, for when her mother d. in March 1920, she was already remarried. 1 dau.:-

1.-CHRISTINA LABARTE (XX-2140) m. at a very early age, a man considerably older than she. She d. while yet a young woman. No children.

6.-GAY BEE (XIX-680)-1874-1955.

Gay Bee m. (2) George Wentzel of Pasadena, CA.,and both were present for her mother's fun. in Parkersburg. My mother d. on 3 April 1920 and they came to Chillicothe for her funeral and stayed a week or two with my father. I was teaching out of town at that time and saw them only briefly on the day of the funeral.

Gay's personality seems to have undergone almost a complete change after her m. to Mr. Wentzel. He owned a small acreage in CA. where they raised many chickens and sold eggs to grocery stores.

They also attended Amie Semple McPherson's Tabernacle in Pasadena, were greatly affected by her faith healing and became very religious people, devoting much time to the church and its work. She did not attend my father's funeral in July 1949, but wrote to me explaining why and we continued to write fairly regular until her d. in Torrance, CA. on 15 July 1955, the last surviving member of Evaline Wilson Bee's children. She had not answered my last letter but had asked a church friend to write to me after her d. Aunt Gay had told me that there were some family records and pictures that she wanted me to have. I answered the friend's letter and inquired about them but received no reply. She never mentioned her dau. in any letter.

7.-JOSIAH BEE (XIX-681)-1877-____.

Josiah Bee was b. on Beason 29 Aug. 1877 but I have been unable to learn anything of interest about the family. My mother once told me that Joe lived in our home for a short time before his m. to Ocea Cain, and their removal to Boise, ID. There was a son, Wendall and a dau.,Evaline, because while I was still in grammer school, Evaline secured our address from our gmor. and wrote to me. She must have been several yrs. younger than I and I cannot recall that the correspondance lasted very long. There must have been at least 5 children b. into the family because gmor's. obituary listed 15 gch. and I am quite sure of the number in all the other famalies. Josiah did not return for his mothers funeral, but was listed as a survivor with no address given. When I asked the cousins about this family, all have said, "They're all Dead," but since all the children would have been younger than I, it seems a bit unlikely. There must be some decendants still living- BUT WHERE? Parents of at least five children:-

1.-WENDELL BEE (XX-2141).

2.-EVALINE BEE (XX-2142).

3.-_____ BEE (XX-2143).

4.-_____ BEE (XX-2144).

5.-_____ BEE (XX-2145).

The total decendants of Evaline Wilson and Dr. A.J. Smith Bee of whom there are definate records are:- 7 ch.;15 gch.;22ggch.;38gggch. and 4 ggggch.

At this momnet, 1974, there are 5 living gch.:-Bronnie Bee, Williamstown, WV.;Gorham Bee, Lansing, MI.;Arlie Bee, Chillicothe, OH.;Beulah Shafer Foley, Lincoln, NB. and Grace Bee Dresbach, Ashville, OH.

This records excludes any possible decendants of Josiah and Ocia Cain.

This record of the family of Evaline Wilson and Dr. A.J. Smith Bee has been put together and written by Mrs. Avis Grace Bee Dresbach. She asks the following question;

"IF ANYBODY WHO SEES THIS RECORD AND KNOWS ANYTHING ABOUT ANY MEMBER OF THIS FAMILY, WOULD YOU PLEASE CONTACT, MRS. JUDD H. DRESBACH, ROUTE 1, ASHVILLE, OH. 43103??"

7.-TEMPERENCE JANE WILSON (XVIII-297)-1838-1916.

Temperence Jane Wilson b. 14 Dec. 1838. She m. the Rev. Thomas Wesley Ireland, a Methodist Minister He was the son of Thomas Ireland and Katherine Lowther.

FROM HIST. OF RITCHIE CO. "Thomas W. Ireland, who was identified among the teachers of this Co. in former yrs. and served one term as Co. Superintendant, is now a Minister of the M.P. Church and Morgantown is his home."

They res. on a farm on Leatherbark Creek near Smithville WV. They removed to Morgantown in 1892. Temperence d. in 1916. Both are bur. in the Mount Union Cem.,Morgantown.

Mrs. Ruth Price (XX-1173), a gdau.,wrote the following about her gmor. and other members of the Ireland family:-

"Dau. of Archibald J. and Elizabeth Hudkins Wilson. Wife of the Rev. Thomas Wesley Ireland."

"I stayed with my grandma and grandpa quite a bit when I was young and growing up. One reason, in order to get to our country school I would have to cross a large farm with horses and cattle. My cousin, Rose Ireland and I stayed one winter. She was about 14 and I about 10. We attended school and I took music lessons. Another older girl cousin Flossie Hardman and I stayed one term. Grandma read and studied all the time. She sent me to the W.V.U. Library a couple of times a week for books. She never tired of reading to me- Alice in Wonderland, Black Beauty, Uncle Tom's Cabin and Huckelberry Finn. My Aunt Addie was in Art School in Chicago. Then she came home and taught in the Fairmont Normal School. After that she was farther away from home, teaching in Shepherd College, Shepherdstown, WV."

"She always had some of the gch. stay with her, 'Ma and Pa.' They needed our help and our company too. Grandma was a very intelligent woman. She told me she started teaching school when she was only 16 yrs. old and she and Tom taught all the yrs. after they were m. (Tom preached on Sun.)

While the first children were small, they hired 2 neighbor girls to stay and care for the home and children. One girl many a time, took the baby by horseback to the school, to nurse.

Then when Dolly and Blanche grew up they stayed home and took care of the younger children and had supper ready for all in the evening when they came from school. They had a large family, 5 girls and 5 boys.

Each Fall time when grandma saw the first snow flakes falling, she came over the way her school children read a lesson in the old 2nd reader;(Itsnows cried the school boy It snows cried the Bellie (bell).' She had grey eyes, but one was partly brown. She said, 'at a lunch hour at school one day, a little boy threw a hard crust of bread out of the doorway just as she entered from the outside, and the bread crust caught her in the eye.'

She spoke often of her parents, most often of her "Pappy." When his dau's. were going to get m. he took them to the city and bought them, what they wanted in new clothes.

She had 6 silk dresses and just 1 cotton dress, when she was m. There was an embargo on cotton. I asked her how they travelled to the city- usually on horseback, she added. She often told us her "Pappy" was a wealthy man. That he gave each of his dau's. 500 acres of land when they were m.,also the sons, and money besides. I had no idea, then, he owned 5000 acres of land. They lived on this land most of the time until the children grew up in Ritchie Co. I saw the house the summer of 1916 when my mother, Aunt Addie Ireland, my little cousin Bettie Ocheltree and I visited Aunt Dollie and Uncle Dick Lawrence who lived nearby. The house was very old and falling apart then.

Grandma had 7 brothers, and like her sons, she thought them to be near perfect. She said when an older brother, John Marshall Wilson, wanted to see her or her other sisters he sent them a letter with money to pay their train fare, to come to visit his home in Pennsboro.

I can remember all the sisters came, as often as they could, as they all came to grandmas. I remember them all well, Aunt Evaline Bee and grandma looked very much alike, both on the plump order. Aunt Evaline was dressy and her hair neat, was nearly white, a pretty woman. Grandmas hair never did turn gray. She always dressed nicely and wore a white, lace or embroidered collar on black and always wore her 'Corset.' Aunt Love Prunty, Aunt Josephine Hammond and Aunt "Siss" Collins were more slender as I remember them.

Grandma and her sisters played cards all the time. I was amused at Mrs. Dresbach's letter telling of her visit, with her grandma (Evelyn) to their brother Marsh Wilson's home, and how those sisters played cards all of one night. Thats the way they did when visiting grandma in Morgantown Grandpa very often helped them play. What fun they had.

I can say truthfully I've never seen a family as clannish, as the Wilson family. They just loved to be together, loved each other, never an argument, no trouble, ever.

They would visit the different famalies, it seemed, in preference to grandmas nephew, Wayne Wilson. I remember him well, he came to visit his Aunt "Temp" practically every week or two. He often came and took her to his home out near where the Monongahela Gen. Hosp. is now located. I would get to go with them. One dau.,Thelma, was my age. She died soon after that.

Also, grandmas great niece, Fanny Wilson Davis visited "Aunt Temp" often. She brought Alice and later Mary, after Alice started to school. They lived in Morgantown.

Nephews, Chape and Minter Wilson came to Morgantown a little later, after grandpas d. My Uncle A.J. Wilson Ireland's wife, Maggie, d. leaving a small baby and 5 other small children. Grandma went to his home to care for the children, but called Mamma asking her to come help her care for the baby. But she was too old. They found a nurse for Glenn, the baby, and a housekeeper. I stayed and went to school, to be with the housekeeper. She would not stay unless I did, and grandma went back up to her home on Wiles Hill, 4th Ward. Different ones of the grandchildren lived with her, at all times.

She was anxious to see some of the gch. m.,and it turned out that I was the one, only one. Carroll and I were m. at her home 11 March 1916 by Dr. Frederie F. Briggs of the Prices, First Baptist Church of Morgantown.

My mother and others, served a sit down dinner afterwards, as the wedding took place at 11:00 a.m. on Sat. My cousin Rose Ireland (Jemison) and her brother, Tom, just my age, were our attendants. Just our parents and close relatives attended.

Grandma d. one month later, 16 April 1916. A grandson, Bernard Ireland came home from school about 3:30 p.m. and found her sitting in her rocking chair, asleep, as she often slept in her chair. But God had called her home. She was 78 yrs. old. She sleeps beside grandpa, her youngest son, Watts; youngest dau.,Addie Rosalie and "Kate" Catherine Elizabeth Ocheltree, in Mount Union Cem. Dr. Dewitt Franzell, her oldest son and wife, Viola, are at East Oak Grove Cem. A little 7 yr. old son, Winfield Scott, died and is buried in Ritchie Co.

Archibald J. Wilson, anotherson and his first wife, Margaret Choen, and second wife, Edi "Ross" Roos, two sons, Paul Baird and Hugh Lowell, sons of Margaret, and a little dau. by Edie, Dorothy Jean, are buried in Mount Union Cemetry, Morgantown.

And my own darling mother d. 2 yrs. later, my brother, the youngest, just passed 12 yrs. old at the time of her deah."

Uncle "Lum" and "Sis" res, on the N.F. of Hughes river. This was across the river from where Obera Collins later res'd. At that time the road crossed the river, crossed the long neck of land and then recrossed the river opposite where Gerald Hall now lives.

He was a night owl and never went to bed. When Cliff Wilson was about 2 yrs. old, Uncle Ben lived in the old Marsh house along the river. There was a big flood one night and the water was up in Cliff's low bed when Uncle "Lum" came down and awakened them. He probably saved their lives

Uncle "Lum" was never accused of working. Uncle John Wilson went over to "Lum's" one winter day. "Lum" was sitting by the kitchen stove with his feet in the oven, a fence rail, with one end in the stove and the other end on a chair. When the end of the rail would burn off "Lum" would move the chair closer to the stove. No cutting wood this way. They later moved to Pennsboro where Uncle "Lum" became a Justice of the Peace.

This story by Dick Wilson of Cairo, "Uncle Lum was a Justice of the Peace. When the Pennsboro Fair was on, his Constable, arrested a bootleger at the Fair. He took him to Uncle Lum's, sit him down on the porch, with Aunt "Sis" The Constable went into the house to tell Uncle Lum something."

"Aunt Sis says to the prisoner, 'if you had a speck of sense you will get out of here.' He was gone. When Uncle Lum and the Constable came out of the house, the prisoner was topping the hill at the Cemetry."

"Aunt Sis liked to play jokes."

She d. at Pennsboro, 11 Nov. 1908. She suffered a great deal before her d. She had cancer of the breast. She completely lost the use of her arm before her d. Bur.,U.B. Cem Uncle "Lum" never remarried. He res. with his son. He paid us a visit every fall and again in Jan. or Feb. These visits lasted 3 or 4 weeks. This was after all the summer work was completed.

He visited here, at Silas Taylor's, at Banks Martin's, and all the Collin's that lived up the river. He was a great card player and we were always glad to see him come. Pedro was the game they played here. They sat up every night until 12 or 1 o'clock. Uncle "Lum" was very exciteable and one night I remember him spitting on the table and thtowing his cards in the spittoon.

Everyone had a good time when Uncle "Lum" paid us a visit. He d. 2 March 1922, Bur. in U.B. Cem.

10.-ARCHIBALD BLACKBURN ("DICK") WILSON (XVIII-300)-1843- 1906.

Archibald Blackburn Wilson b. 18 Aug. 1843. The following information, by his son, "Dick" Wilson (XIX-714);

"When Pa was a young man a circus come to Ellenboro. A Hammond boy sit down on a wagon tongue. One of the show men slapped him and that started a fight. Soon everyone was gone but Aunt "Sis", Jesse Hammond and Pa. They were still fighting. The show was whipped."

He m. Sarah Judith Lowther, 5 May 1878. They res. near the mouth of Lynn Camp. Archibald J. Wilson willed land to his sons, Archibald and Scott Wilson. Archibald Wilson bought his brother, Scott Wilson's interest in this farm in November 1886. He sold this farm in 1895.

His son, "Dick" Wilson (XIX-714) story of the sale.

"Archibald B. Wilson, son of Archibald J. Wilson owned the Edmund Taylor Sr. farm since 1886, when he bought Scott's interest in the farm."

"In 1895 Archibald B. Wilson sold this farm to Edmund Taylor Jr. France Wilson done the trading for Pa. At that time Ed Taylor and Uncle Marsh were the only ones that had enough money to buy it. France Wilson went to Uncle Marsh, got a bid and then to Taylor and back to Marsh for his bid He made several trips. Taylor got up to 10,000, Uncle Marsh would not call him, so Taylor got the farm."

After selling this farm, Archibald B. Wilson, prospected for a farm in KS. The KS. country did not suit him and he returned to Nutter Farm in Ritchie Co. and bought a farm.

Continueing with "Dick" Wilson's acct.:"Pa bought 350 acres of the Nutter Farm and moved on it on 5 March 1896."

"He was very prosperous. Later he added 58 acres and then a half interest in 200 acres. Both of these farms hada lot of timber on them."

"Pa was a banker, merchant, farmer, manufacturer of lumber and a live stock dealer."

"Phillip Ireland of Pennsboro told me that him and Pa went to buy cattle. They had to take money with them. Each had enough to buy 2 carloads of cattle. Phillip said people knew they had the money and they knew they had guns and that they knew how to use them. No one bothered them."

"When Pa came to Nutter Farm, there was no church. The Brethern were useing the Nutter Farm Schoolhouse. The Methodists used the Nutter Fork school house. Pa tried for 8 yrs. to get a Brethern church, but failed. Pa then turned to the Methodists in 1905. He got the church. He gave the ground for the church."

"Everyone that knew Pa, called him, 'UNCLE DICK.'"

"In 1896 Bryan came to Parkersburg and made a speech. After the speech a crowd was around Pa, shaking hands with him and calling him, Uncle Dick. Bryan worked his way through to Pa and called him, 'Uncle Dick.'"

Another interesting item by "Dick" Wilson of Cairo:- "My Grandfather Lowther started working for grand Pa Wilson when he was very young. When grand Pa Wilson moved from Oxford to the Taylor farm, grand Pa Lowther was helping him move. Grand Pa Lowther was on the horse carrying oneof grand Pa Wilson's daughters and also carrying the 'POT OF FIRE.' A turkey scared the horse, the horse jumped. Grand Pa Lowther had to throw the fire to save the baby."

Minter's brother, "Dick" writes of Minter; "Minter L. Wilson started teaching when he was 15. He taught the home school. He had scholars older than him. He taught where South Charleston is. He had one boy that was 19 yrs. old. This man had been running out the teachers. He came at Minter with a knife. Minter used his fist and whipped him until he was not able to stay in school the rest of the day and was not able to be at school the next day. No more trouble with John Carr"

"Minter told me John Carr came into his office to get some work done. He said, 'the fight was not mentioned.'"

"Minter had to work his way through school. At Marshall making speeches, running foot races for something to wear. At W.V.U. currying cows and waiting tables."

"When he was judge he put all the officers in their place. A State police by the name of Martin, that was stationed at Morgantown, told me that the police were all afraid of him. Minter knocked one of them down."

He took his Court cases quite seriously and at times he became so angry that the Court attendants would have to restrain him from committing physical violence. During his life he wrote and published 7 small books.

Steve Clayton told me of attending a political meeting where Senator Neely was to make a speech and Minter was to introduce him. Previous to this meeting, Minter and Senator Neely, had had some political differences and there was some ill feeling between them.

Everyone was on the stage getting ready to start the meting. Suddenly Minter took Senator Neely by the back of the neck and the seat of his pants and threw him out into the audience.

This caused quite an uproar and it was some time before quiet was restored. After everyone calmed down, Minter introduced Senator Neely, and, the Senator, made his speech.

Minter made the speech at the dedication of the monument at William Wilson's (XV-1) grave in Hardy Co. in 1953. Former Governor, Homer Holt, was to have made the speech of dedication but he had business in NY. and was not present.

"Uncle Scott was funny. He was not in trouble. He could not make any money in livestock."

No one seems to know whether Scott Wilson was m. or not.

Scott Wilson's d. record should be recorded in TX. at Austin. The d. records of TX. are by Co's. and a separate request for a d. record must be made for each Co. There are so many Co's. in TX. that this is impossible unless one could visit Austin and take the time to go through each Counties records. His d. record is not registered in McLennan Co. of which Waco is the Co. seat.

The following letter was written by Scott Wilson, to his brother, Basil H. Wilson, probably 1883;

Colorado, Texas
Jan. 23, 18__

Mr. B.H. Wilson,
Dear Sis & Brother.

I have not heard from you for sometime, and am anxious to hear from you or someone, as to Mother's health. I got a letter from Wayne yesterday saying Mother had been sick.

Have nothing to write more than business is very good here and prospects of a boom by the first of March. The weather is the finest I ever saw, no rain for two months, one small snow.

Stock is in good fix and sellers are wanting big prices. Sheep, cattle and horses are plenty. The town is still growing. Claims two thousand inhabitants. It will fall short about five hundred.

By the way, how is all brothers-in-law getting along? Is Wayne stuck on Texas yet? How is Rash? I never heard a word about him. Tell Doc Martin he had better come to Texas. He can ketch big fish here, the finest in the land, and with a little labor can kill buffalo. I have only four this winter, but do not hunt a great deal. Write soon.

Yours,
Scott.

P.S. My health never was so good.

Mrs. Delphia E. Menefee of Zephyrhills, FL.,furnishes the following information. "Dudley Robinson b. MD. 17 Aug. 1841, d. 7 June 1884. He is bur. in Dill Cem." She did not know the location of the Dill Cemetry.
Both are bur. in Dill Cemetry.
From the date of his d.,it is possible that he d. of T.B It may be that Prudence d. at about this time of T.B.
Mrs. Menefee lists 7 children; Mortimor Robinson, Mary Robinson, George Robinson, Eva Robinson, Evelyn Robinson, Mattie Robinson and Myrtle Robinson.
Mr. M.F. Robinson, 712, 27th St.,NE.,Canton, OH 44714 found 8 children listed in the 1880 census. Some of the names are different but the list probably includes the ones named by Mrs. Menefee. Armstrong Wilson b. 1842, d. after 1883. He was killed by a train at Bremen, Ohio. He is buried at Bremen, Ohio. He never married.

He ofter visited Archibald Wilson's at Nutter Farm and the Shinn's on Arnold's Creek. He was very punctual. When he left home, his trip was planned and he knew the minute he would arrive at his designation. When he visited Archibald Wilson's he would arrive just as they would be sitting down at the dinner table. He would walk through the kitchen door, pick up a chair, go into the dining room and sit down at the table and start filling his plate--never saying a word to anyone.

Archibald Wilson, before moving to Nutter Farm, prospected for land in Kansas. When they arrived in Kansas, there was Armstrong waiting for them. He had already prospected the land and was waiting to show it to them.

He was very high tempered and cussed everyone when he was mad. Nobody could get along with him. When he was at Archibald Wilson's or George Washington Shinn's, they tried to ignore his temper and cussing.

There must be several present day decendants of Blackburn Wilson. Mildred Curran was the only living decendant that I have been able to find. She said she thought she had some cousins on the Wilson side of the family who resided in the Wood County area. She knew no names or had any other information.

There must be some decendants of Prudence Robinson and also some decendants of Franklin Wilson.

T.B. is a terrible disease. We, at the present time, do not comprehend that it could wipe out entire famalies over a period of years.

In the family of Barton Hudkins Wilson several members died young. I am told that they died with T.B.

I have recently been told that the Dill Cemetry is in Wirt Co.,WV. located on a country road that runs from Creston to WV. to WV. State Route No. 14. I hope to investigate this in the future.

Most of the information of the family of Archibald Blackburn Wilson has been furnished by Mrs. Leon "Farmer" Wilson, 700 Stealey, Clarksburg, WV. 26301.
Archibald Blackburn Wilson was b. 15 June 1842.
Mrs. Willa Nutter Simons (XIX-2071) told Mrs. Leon F. Wilson the following in April 1972.
"Grandmother, Charlotte Dotson Wilson, went to visit one of her neighbors one day. This neighbor was Mrs. Jacob (Ruth Jones) Richards, and she had a small baby dau.,named Virginia Belle Richards. Grandmother had her small son, Archibald Blackburn Wilson, with her. Grandmother picked Virginia Bell up and asked her little son, Archibald B. to hold 'his future wife' for a bit."

Archibald Blackburn Wilson was in Co. E, 6th W.Va. Inf. in the civil war.

More by Mrs. Simons, "When Archibald came home from the civil war, he was 23 yrs. old and Virginia was 17. They were m. on the 28th day of Dec. 1865 by W.H. Diddle. He and his wife, Virginia Belle Richards, lived the whole time on Buzzard's Run of Lynn Camp. Some how he was cutting down a tree--a limb from the tree or a falling log struck him across the head and he d. almost instantly."

He d. 15 May 1882 at the exact age of 39 yrs. and 11 months. He is bur. at the head of Lynn Camp on the Cline Riggs farm. His army Veterans tombstone was never placed on his grave. It is being uses as the base for the back steps for a house on Beason.

Virginia Belle Richards b. 1848, dau. of Jacob Richards (b. 27 Oct. 1808, d. 30 April 1899) and Ruth Jones (b. June 1814, d. 7 Dec. 1875.)

They had 5 children when he was killed, a young man of39 All of the relatives helped her out with the children. She was widowed at the age of 34. She remarried when she was 47 to Franklin L. Shaw on 2 April 1895. No children by this marriage. She d. 1898 or 1899 of TB. at West Milford in Harrison Co.,WV. She is bur. in the IOOF Cem. but there is no marker at her grave.

From Willa Nutter Simons, "Worked in timbering. Co. E, 6th W.Va. Inf. The family had not heard from Uncle Archie, feared he was killed. Willia's mother went to visit one of her 4 married sisters, who lived near Charlotte and John. While the girls were milking---A rooster Crowed, each time the rooster crowed he would circle the cow. Mary Ann went home and told her mother, Charlotte, the story, and said, 'this is a sign of news, I'm going to Greenwood to the post office.' There was a letter from Archie--the first in months. He told of his narrow escape. He was on his horse going through a wooded section. He was fired upon by a cannon ball; this knocked him from his horse, and the horse escaped, throwing Archie in a ditch behind a fallen log. The blast covered him with mud and dirt. Enemies stepped upon the log three or four times and over him lying in the dirt. They left and he was lost in the woods--wandered and was soon befriended, at a nearby home. He broke a twigg as he wandered from the woods and used it as a pen to write this letter to his folks."

Mary Ware of Clarksburg, gdau. of Virginia's youngest brother, Benjamin Richards, told this to Mrs. L.F. Wilson in 1972, "Aunt Ginny was doing some sewing, mending, quilting or such like near a window. She looked out at the exact moment, her husband, Archie, had felled a tree--A large limb, hit him across the head, at the temple, and he was killed in front of her very eyes. Her baby, Aries Blackburn, was only a small child, less than 1 yr. old.

MOSES WILSON 2ND (XVI-7)-1761-____.

Moses Wilson 2nd b. 8 April 1761. We have the date of the d. of a Moses Wilson, 7 April 1786. The Moses Wilson who d. in 1786 must be a gson of William Wilson (XV-1), but whether his father was Moses 2nd or one of the other children is not known.

Since we have found the family history of Solomon Wilson (XVI-9) we know that he left Hardy Co. and settled in OH.

Moses Wilson 2nd is not mentioned in the will of William Wilson (XV-1). This is unansewered question. Maybe his father had given him his share of the estate before his d. and just did not mention it in the will. Maybe he was mad at him and ignored him in his will, or it could be that the Moses Wilson who d. 7 April 1786 is Moses Wilson 2nd.

C.J. Maxwell states that he was not m. I suspect that he came to this conclusion from the d. of Moses Wilson 2nd in 1786 and that Mosesnot being memtioned in the will.

It may be that Moses m. twice. It may be inferred from the record of the m. in 1790 that he res. for a time in the Shenandoah Valley. Moses 2nd must have been the only child that spent his entire life in Hardy Co.

He must have many decendants in the area of Hardy Co. At the dedication of the monument of William Wilson (XV-1), 4 listed their ancestor as Moses. 17, with Wardensville addresses, did not list their ancestor. These 21 people must be decended from Moses 2nd.

Moses 2nd had Revolutionary war service. From Winchester in VA. by F. Norton, "Capt. John Holder's Co.,June 10 1779 in Madison Co.,at or near Boonesboro--MOSES WILSON."

Moses 2nd must have been m. after the war.

Copied from Mrs. Roy Pilgrim's family bible:-

"My gmor's. m. (Mrs. Roy Pilgrims gmor.) M. on Tues. 17 Nov. 1857 at Burlington, Hampshire Co,,VA. to Mr. Horace Allen Pease by Rev. Wm. Welsh, Miss Francis Virginia Wilson, both of Hardy Co.

Horace Pease b. Middlefield, CN.,1830 settled in the vicinity of Winchester before the rebellion (civil war).

My gf. and gmor. of Wardensville (This must mean the gp's. of Francis Virginia Wilson). David Henning Wilson b. 25 Dec. 1787, Ann Hale Lydnor, his wife, b. March 1790, Fairfax, CO.,VA. David Henning Wilson and Ann Hale Wilson m. 22 Sept. in the yr. of our Lord 1808.

My father and Mother m. 29 June 1887."

The unansewered question. Is David Henning Wilson a son of Moses Wilson 2nd and was his mother's maiden name,Henning?

The following written by Roy Wilson. At the time Roy wrote the following, he did not know that Solomon Wilson (XVI-9)left Hardy Co.,went to the Shenandoah Valley and later to OH.,where he d. He still thought that Solomon, res. in Hardy Co.,raised his family in Hardy Co. and d. there.

"QUEST B- RELATION OF AN UNKNOWN MOSES WILSON TO OUR FAMILY. Among the 58 persons attending the dedication of the Wilson monument 30 Aug. 1953, at Wardensville were 4 reg. from Wardensville as being decendants of Moses Wilson. I have never met any of them personally but corrosponded with Miss Mabel Davis, dau. of Alice (Wilson) Davis, prior to her d. 1969. The mother, Alice, d. in the 1950's. I also had correspondance with 2 of Mabel's cousins, but have never been able to secure names of gp's.,spouses, vital dates, etc.,in order to establish lineages. Here is a summary of what I learned:

All claimed to have decended from Moses Wilson 2nd, shown on the monument as their great grandfather and his son, John Wilson as their gf. The names of 3 of John's children are as follows:

A.-Alice Wilson (dau.) m. Charlie Davis. D. when 82. She had a dau., Mabel Davis. She never m. and d. 1969 at Wardensville, Hardy Co.

B.-George Wilson (son) living 1955 in Wardensville.

C.-Edward Clarendon Wilson (son) b. 4-16-1881; d. 3-16-1955; m. Norma Orndorff 3-2-1888 (must be 1898); d. 12-4-1949. They first lived at Wilson's Cove, 7 miles from Wardensville, later moved to Wardensville. Edward was a lumber, bark and fur dealer. They had 7 daughters:

1.-Mrs. Herman Rudolph, Star Tannery.
2.-Mrs. John G. Miller, Winchester, VA.
3.-Mrs. O.C. Western, Mechanicsburg, PA.
4.-Mrs. Levi S. Combs, Wardensville.
5.-Mrs. S.P. Sanders, Rockville, MD.
6.-Mrs. W.P. Byrd Jr., Alexandria, VA.
7.-Mrs. Suel Vance, Star Rt.,Strasburg, VA. 22657.

Practically all correspondance was with Mrs. Vance, who furnished a newspaper obituary of her father from which the above data of her family was taken.

The will of William Wilson Sr. (Roy Wilson's history p. 18)was written 25 May 1794; had his son, Moses Wilson 2nd, had a son, the gf. most certaintly would have left him some of his acres as he did other gsons whose fathers were living (will p. 17 Roy Wilson's history) at the time.

Since 2 attempts had failed to perpetuate the name "MOSES" in the Wilson family, it is only reasonable to believe that one of the 2 unnamed children of Solomon (p.107, Roy Wilson's hist.) was a boy and was named Moses, by his father, in honor of his 2 dec'd. bros. of that name. (Roy is in error. Atthe time he wrote this nothing was known of Solomon Wilson. See chapter on Solomon Wilson (XVI-9)).

As of the present we have no record of Solomon's m. or what became of his family after the sale of the homestead 4 April 1814, when a wife by the name of Margaret signed the deeds for the sale of this land. This is a matter of record at the Co. seat of Moorefield as explained on page 107 of Roy Wilson's history.

Attached hereto is a copy of a deed of trust executed by Moses Wilson of Hardy Co. in 1843, who is presumed to be the Moses Wilson from whom these 4 registrants have decended, as this old instrument was found among the effects of Alice Wilson Davis at her d.,in scraps, by her dau.,Miss Mabel Davis. Later upon receipt of the scraps from Mabel, I reconstructed the attached copy which has also been found recorded at Moorefield, as shown therein.

Who was this Moses Wilson- was he a member of our family or a member of some other Wilson family? He could not have been Moses 2nd, as he d. in 1786, neither could he have been a son of Moses 2nd; but he could have been one of Solomon's (XVI-9) and Margaret _____ Wilson's two unnamed children of page 107 of Roy Wilson's history."

The above was written 9-15-72. (This was before the record of Solomon Wilson's family had been found.)

Abstract of records of Old Linville Baptist Church beginning on p. 48, Rev. John Anderson Sr. & Jr.,Linville Creek, Rockingham Co.(Augusta) & Greenbrier Co. Original manuscript, Univ. of Richmond, VA.---"APRIL 29, 1790, MOSES WILSON AND MARTHA RICKY."

This may be a 2nd. m. of Moses Wilson (XVI-7).

Records in Hardy Co.,Book No. 17, Page 533 is recorded a deed of Trust, to John Ligget signed by Moses Wilson. This document dated 20 Sept. 1843.

A note to the deed, "Aug. 4th 1851 paid by M. Wilson to F.B. Watton $125.59 the balance in full of the within named bond."Moses 2nd. was b. in 1761. When this deed of Trust was paid in full he would have been 90 yrs. of age.

This is new information that has not been printed before. These people must belong to our Wilson family but the reader will have to use his own judgment.

SOLOMON WILSON (XVI-9).

The following information of Solomon Wilson (XVI-9) has been furnished by, Mrs. Ralph L. Meeker, 74 West Dominion Blvd.,Columbus, OH. 43214. I have copied it exactly as Mrs Meeker wrote it.

"This chapter has been written to provide information about Solomon Wilson (XVI-9). When C.J. Maxwell wrote his book, 1943, 'William Wilson (1722-1801) and Elizabeth Blackburn (1725-1806)' it became evident that the whereabouts of the family of Solomon Wilson was not known.

In 1972, Mrs. Ralph L. Meeker and her husband went to Moorefield, WV.,to research the will of William Wilson (XV-1) and the deed records pertaining to his son, Solomon During the trip the Meekers met Mrs. Virgie Gamble (XX-1106) and learned that she was a "Cousin" a decendant of of John Wilson (XVI-5) who was an older brother of Mrs. Meeker's great great great grandfather, Solomon.

Several months later Mrs. Gamble learned that Roy E. Wilson, Zanesville, OH.,had advertised in a WV. newspaper, during the research of his book "The William Wilson Sr. Family," trying to locate a decendant of Solomon Wilson (XVI-9). Mrs. Gamble sent this information to Mrs. Meeker, who contacted Roy E. Wilson. Soon thereafter, I received word from Roy that he had become acquainted with Helen Wilson Meeker, a decendant of Solomon, so I requested data about Solomon and his children, to be included here.

Solomon Wilson (XVI-9) b. 2 July 1766 on Trout Run, Hardy Co.,VA. (Now WV.) and d. 8 Sept. 1819. His grave has not been located but the probate of his estate is in the Probate Court, Brown Co.,OH. He was m. to Margaret Compton her parents have not been identified but the 1850 Census of IN. states that Margaret Wilson was b. in "MD." Solomon and Margaret were the parents of two sons: Stephen and Cornelius.

Solomon and his family lived in Hardy Co. on land that he inherited from his father. On 14 April 1814, he sold 5 tracts of land for $4000.00 to Wheeler Gillett of Baltimore. The sale included blacksmith tools, growing crops, negro slaves, etc. One tract included was for 150 acres which Solomon had purchased from John Wilson and Mary, his wife, of Randolph Co.,VA.,on 24 June 1805 for $500.00.

Solomon and his family moved to Fredrick Co.,VA. A deed dated 27 March 1815, from John Stephenson to Solomon Wilson, a res. of Hardy Co.,VA.,conveyed 145 acres located on Stephens Run, Fredrick Co.,VA., for $2000.00 and was witnessed by Stephen Wilson and Cornelius Wilson.

This family did not stay in Fredrick Co.,VA. On 31 Aug. 1818, Solomon Wilson and Margaret, his wife, sold for $3000.00 the above 145 acres to Jesse Taylor and on 31 Aug. 1818, Jesse Taylor and Isabelle, his wife, conveyed to Solomon Wilson, 250 acres located in Huntington Township, Brown Co.,OH.,for $3000.00, apparently this was a trade. The Clerk of the Court, Fredrick Co. affixed the seal of the Court to this deed on 26 Sept. 1818 so it would seem that Solomon and family started their journey west soon thereafter.

When Solomon d.,1819, this 250 acres was divided between the sons; Cornelius received 135 acres; and Stephen 115 acres on which the log cabin home was situated. This log cabin is still being occupied as a residence (1975).

Stephen Wilson (XVII-) was b. ca. 1796 in Hardy Co., VA. and d. 1 Sept. 1871, aged 75 yrs.,5 months, 3 days, as recorded in the d. records in Brown Co.,OH. He was m. in Brown Co.,17 Dec. 1820 to Mary Laney, dau. of John Laney Sr.,who had also moved from Fredrick Co. Mary was b. in Fredrick Co.,VA. and d. Brown Co.,20 Oct. 1870, aged 75 yrs.,6 months, 3 days, according to her tombstone. The tombstone of Stephen states; d. 2 Sept. 1871, aged 75 yrs., 9 months, 28 days, so the date of his b. is vague. Both Stephen and Mary are bur. in the Cem. at the Hickory Ridge Church, Huntington Township, Brown Co.,OH.

Stephen Wilson and Mary were parents of 8 children, 6 of whom grew to adulthood:- Solomon who m. Sarah Carmichael; John William m. Harriet Stephenson; Cornelius m. Josephine Games; Mary Ann m. Melvin Ellis; Sarah Elizabeth m. Lafayette Ellis and Lucinda m. Daniel C. Kerr.

Cornelius Wilson (XVII-) was b. 26 April 1802 in Hardy Co.,VA. and d. in Montgomery Co.,IN., aged 81 yrs., 5 months, 8 days (tombstone). He m. in Brown Co.,OH. 19 April 1827, Betsey Ann Taylor. She was b. in Brown Co. 16 Oct 1809 and d. at the age of 75 yrs.,7 months, 19 days (tombstone). They are bur. in the Peterson Cem.,Sugar Creek Township, Montgomery Co.,IN.

Cornelius and Betsey were the parents of 10 children:- Willie Ann m. William L. Bryant; James W. m. Sarah C. Ermentrout; Elizabeth Ann m. John Shumaker; John G. d. in the Civil War; Amanda I.;George M. private in Civil War, Co. B 72nd Indiana Infantry,and was m.;Henry H. also in Civil War, same Co. as his brother, George; Mary Margaret; Martin Cornelius; and Martha who m. Joshua Saidla.

Margaret Compton Wilson, wife of Solomon (XVI-9) lived in the homes of her sons, Stephen and Cornelius. In 1834 Margaret accompanied Cornelius (XVII-) and his family when they moved to Sugar Creek Township, Montgomery Co., IN.,where she d. 20 Oct. 1854. She is bur. in the Peterson Cemetry.

The records concerning the latter generations of the famalies of Stephen (XVII-) and of Cornelius (XVII-) are an ongoing project."

JOHN AND WILLIAM WHITE

From C.J. Maxwell's book, "Decendants of William Wilson (1722-1801) and Elizabeth Blackburn" and several other references.

"William Wilson came to America in 1737, landing at Philadelphia,then continuing their journey to Fredrick Co., VA. With him were his 2 cousins, JOHN AND WILLIAM WHITE, both of whom were later killed by Indians in Randolph Co."

The mother of John and William White must have been an aunt of William Wilson. It would seem from reading this, that the parents of John and William White, came to America, probably leaving John and William with their uncle, David Wilson, in Ireland. This White family must have settled in Fredrick Co.,VA.,probably around Cedar Creek. After becoming settled in the new country, they sent for John and William and their cousin, William Wilson, came with them. These famalies kept together. There were probably other relatives, settled in the vicinity.

William Wilson was only 15 yrs. of age and the White brothers must have been of about the same age.

From Mrs. Avis Jones records; "1734 Benj. Allen, Riley Moore, William White settle at or near Mt. Jackson."

"1739 William White gets patent for 989 acres near Mt. Jackson. (This was pat. on 29 June 1739)."

Mt. Jackson is about half way between New Market and Edinburg on the Old Valley Pike.

"William White also got a patent for 400 acres on 29 June 1739 and he also acquired another tract of 589 acres at another time."

From McWhorter's "Border Settlers of Northwestern VA." "Reference to Captain (William) White in border annuals is meagre, and nothing is known positive of his antecedents furthur than he was a decendant of Dr. White of Fredrick, Co.,VA.,who was the ancestor of the White family of that region."

We do not know Dr. White's given name.

The names of John and William White appear in the 1782 census of Hampshire Co.,VA.

From "Awhile Ago Times" Vol. 2, No. 4, by Glen Lough, 1973, "While out hunting one day, William came upon some Indians, and thinking they were seeking his life, killed 3 of them (Kercheval, "History of the Valley of Va."says 2 Indians were killed); but among the number was a squaw, and as he could not think of taking her life, he let her go, feeling confident that she would not know him. But she did recognize him; and it was in time of peace (Kercheval and others give the date for this adventure, 1768) and was a grave violation of the terms of the treaty; he was arrested and put in prison (Winchester); but his people raised such a storm about his confinement, and gathered about the jail and beat it down, and let him out the next day. (Kercheval gives a more detailed account of the event). He and a man named Pringle (John Pringle) then escaped to the Buckhannon Country, and made their home in a hollow sycamore tree near the mouth of Turkey Run on the Buckhannon river."

In 1776 the residents of the Tygarts Valley petitioned the governor of VA. for 3 Co's. of Rangers for protection from the Indians. John and William White, both, signed this petition.

History of Ritchie Co.,p. 77, "There were 3 of the White brothers that came from Scotland to America, William, David and Jonathan." This from the"grandmother's Story."

This "Grandmother's story" is based upon facts, but she is very emotional and the reader will have to judge for himself.

Magazine of Randolph Co.,Hist. Society, 1926, "The White family arrived and built their cabins in this community among the first of the pioneers. At least John and William were here and settled before the Point Pleasant Battle in which John took part and fell- William was killed by the Indians in Upshur Co. (Note to the above- David White was killed at Point Pleasant- John White was not at Point Pleasant).

Quoting from a letter from Miss Genevieve Ward, a member of the Randolph Co. Hist. Society, "According to the Augusta Co.,VA. history, John and David White were brothers. They had a sister, by the name of Margaret. who first m. John Stalnaker from Beverley. While on a trip to Buckhannon, VA.,John was killed by the Indians. Margaret, his wife later m. Richard Kettle.

Margaret and John Stalnaker had one son, John White Stalnaker. He is bur. in the Stalnaker Cem.,above Beverley, on the Old Stalnaker farm."

From History of Licking Co.,OH.,"The other Whites that were related to the Wilson's emigrated to KY. soon after the Revolution."This would seem to indicate that there were several White famalies, who had settled in the Shenandoah Valley."

But the question is; Is the William White who was killed near the Buckhannon Fort, the William White who came to America with William Wilson?

William White was the equal of Jesse and Elias Hughes, John Cutright and others on the frontier. To them, "A good Indian was a dead Indian" and they never passed up a chance of killing one. William White was in the party that murdered the Indians at Bulltown and threw their bodies in the Little Kanawha river. He was one of the early border scouts, and his wife probably raised the crops. Many of these early Indian fighters, spent their time scouting and hunting, leaving the raising of the family, to the wife.

From Hist. of Ritchie Co.,"David White was killed at the Battle of Point Pleasant."

Virgil McWhorter in the "Border Settlers of N.W.,VA." states that William White was in the Battle of Point Pleasant. Hist. of Ritchie Co. makes the same statement.

From the Hist. of Licking Co.,OH.,"After the Dunmore army had reached the OH. river, on their homeward march, Archibald Wilson and John and William White (his cousins) were discharged, at their own request, preferring to take their time, and to pursue their chosen course for their homes in the Shenandoah Valley. They thereupon left the army at the mouth of the Hock-Hocking, crossing the Ohio river, and passed up it on the VA. side, to near the mouth of the Little Kanawha, where they found some beautiful bottom land. They thereupon proceeded to make what is called 'A Tomahawk Improvement' for each one, which was done by blazing the trees and cutting their initials and date upon them. They intended at some future day to occupy these lands, as such titles were valid under the laws of VA. at the time. But John White, who was appointed a Lieutenant, and operated against the Indians, was killed by them at Tygart's Valley in 1775 (Note- this date in error- it was 1779), and William White was killed near Fort Buchannon (Note-8 March 1782), in Virginia."

Magazine, Randolph Co. Hist. Society, 1926, "It fell to the lot of Benjamin Wilson to preside and control a trial of this character. Captain William White had obtained a military warrant for 400 acres of land and had located it on the Valley south of the old Brick Church, and James Warwick settled on it and White drove him off. Others moved in the cabin with the same result, and later, John Couch Jr.,son of John Couch, who with his brother, James, had been living on Cheat near Holly Meadows since 1767 and had located near Shaver Run below Mill Creek in 1772, obtained the Warwick and Canaan claims to land covering White's 400 acres and refused to "get out" White demanded possession or a fight, and appointed the day at Hadded Fort. Col. Wilson summoned 2 of his Captains to sit with him and the old time-honored method of settling difficulties was staged and enacted to a finish. Couch proving the victor, was awarded the land, and the contestants washed and bound up their bruises and shook hands and departed as friends."

"Major John Couch, the son of John Couch Jr.,who was the first white child b. in this Co.,said White visited his father after the Dunmore war, when he was 8 yrs. old; that he looked at White (who was very tall and strong) and wondered how his father ever managed to whip such a man. It was said most of the people of the Valley attended the celebrated land suit, and there was no appeal, and the distinguished young Judge had been vindicated in his award."

In Sept. 1777, Leonard Petro and William White were engaged in watching the path, leading up the Little Kanawha river. They were captured by the Indians. They were made to run the gauntlet. White escaped but Petro was never heard of again.

From Haymond's Hist. of Harrison Co.,WV.:-

"In Oct. of the yr. 1779, a party of Indians lying in ambush near the road, fired several shots at Lieutenant John White, riding by, but with no other effect than by wounding the horse to cause him to throw the rider. This was fatal to White. Being left on foot and in open ground he was soon shot, tomahawked and scalped. This was in Randolph Co."

From Hist. of Licking Co.,OH.:- "Benjamin Wilson- He also commanded the volunteers raised to pursue the Indians that murdered and scalped Lieutenant John White in Tygart's Valley (1778)." (Note- This was 1779).

From Haymond's Hist. of Harrison Co.,WV.:- "The Indians commenced their depredations early this yr. and on the 8th of March 1782, as William White, Timothy Dorman and his wife were going to and in sight of the Buckhannon Fort, some guns were discharged at them and White being shot through the hip, soon fell from his horse and was tomahawked and scalped. Dorman and his wife were taken prisoners. The people in the Fort heard the firing and flew to arms, but the river being between, the savages cleared themselves while the whites were crossing over."

For a complete account of the murder of William White read, Virgil McWhorter's "The Border Settlers of N.W.,VA." and the killing of John White, read, Hu Maxwell's "History of Randolph Co.,WV."

William White was in the battle of Point Pleasant, but to have returned to VA., with his cousin, Archibald Wilson he had to change armies. Lord Dunmore did not want Gen. Lewis to cross the Ohio river into OH.,but Gen. Lewis did cross the Ohio river and marched to within 5 miles of Lord Dunmore's army before returning to VA. This was at Camp Charlotte, near present Chillicothe, OH.

John White and his cousins, Benjamin Wilson and Archibald were soldiers in Lord Dunmore's army. William White and his cousin, William Wilson Jr. were soldiers in Gen. Lewis's army. When the armies were near each other these men must have visited and talked with each other. Archibald Wilson and John and William White must have agreed to return, together, to VA. At this point William White must have left Gen. Lewis's army and joined the army of Lord Dunmore.

One must remember that these immigrants to America, were clannish, and to exist and prosper, remained together, and often m. cousins.

Joel Westfall, the step-son of John Wilson, m. Elizabeth White, the dau. of William White. This m. would imply some connection between John Wilson and William White. See the chapter on the Joel Westfall family.

Personally, I think that the William White, that was killed near the Buckhannon Fort, was the William White, that came to America with William Wilson, and the same William White, was in the battle of Point Pleasant, and the same William White was with Archibald Wilson at the Ohio river.

THE BLACKBURN FAMILY

Elizabeth Blackburn was b. 7 Feb. 1725, in Ulster Providence, Ireland, dau. of Archibald Blackburn. Archibald Blackburn came to America, with his family, sometime after the b. of Elizabeth. He must have settled in the Shenandoah Valley, probably Fredrick Co.,Va.,and probably in the vicinity of Cedar Creek.

Mrs. Daniel Jones, 103 Bell St.,Wierton, WV. furnishes the following. Augusta Co.,VA. records, p.236, 16 March 1768, "Nathaniel Steele to Rosanne to David Steele, 12 pounds for 202½ acres in Beverley Manor."

"Nathaniel Steele and Rosannah Steele parents of Rosanna Steel Blackburn, wife of Archibald Blackburn (This must be Archibald Blackburn Jr.)"

P.435- 15 Oct. 1782- "Hugh Oliver vs. James Lenk- Dedemus to take deposition of Archibald Blackburn who lives in Nolechucky." (Note- Nolechucky probably in TN.)

Mrs. Jones notes, "Land of the Watauga and the Nollichucky."

From the Hist. of Western MD.,p.68; "There was a mixture of Irish and Germans on Cedar Creek (Note- this was VA.), and its vicinity, The Frys, Newells, Blackburns and Wilsons being among the number."

This is all that is known of the Blackburn family.

JOEL WESTFALL FAMILY

James Westfall was a very early settler in Randolph Co. His name appears on the petition, to the Gov. of VA.,in 1776, petitioning for 3 Companies of Rangers, for the protection against the Indians. This petition was signed by 69 petitioners. The petition stated, "that at that time the residents of Tygarts Valley consisted of about 150 famalies."

"The town of Beverley, the Co. seat, was established by Leglislative enactment 16 Dec. 1790, on lands of James Westfall." He had a son, Jacob Westfall."

Jacob Westfall's name appears on the petition to the Gov of Virginia.

From Haymond's Hist. of Harrison Co.,"Jacob Westfall reports the strength of the Randolph Co. Militia at 174 or 200." Second Lieutenant, Jacob Westfall."

"Westfall's Fort was a large house enclosed in a stockade and was built by Jacob Westfall about a quarter of a mile South of Beverley, about the commencement of Dunmore's war."

At the formation of Harrison Co.,Jacob Westfall was one of the Justices. He must have removed to Harrison Co.

James L. Miles, 1127 Ralph Rd.,Newark, DE. is a Westfall familt historian. He writes, "I have one Jacob Westfall, listed, who d. in 1801 and left a widow, Sidney, who m. Christopher Lamberton 3-16-1802. Jacob left children; Margaret (Peggy; m. 3-12-1815 to Thomas Phillips), Sally (Sarah, went to OH.), Harvey (had William Wilson as a guardian after his father's d.), Mary (Polly?) who also had William Wilson as guardian and Isaac who had a guardian whose name I do not have."

Mr. Miles continues, "Miss Corrine Cutright in Randolph Co. Hist. Society Magazine in 1927:- Jacob Westfall Sr. she gives as m. to a Sidney, and his d. as in 1801, Randolph Co.,however, the children, as she lists them do not agree with my list, were, George, Jacob Jr. (b. 1755-d. 1835, m. 1777 to Mary King, b. 1758- d. 1838), James (m. Ann Truby), Joel (b. 10-14-1751- d. 8-22-1779, m. to Mary Houston b.10-6-1758- d. 1-20-1795) and Zachariah (m. 1788 to Hannah Wolfe and settled on Hacker's Creek, Lewis Co.)"

An article in the Clarksburg Exponant, 11 Feb. 1934, lists Zachariah (wife, Hannah Wolfe) and Joel Westfall (wife Mary Houston, dau. James and Hannah Houston) as brothers, and sons of Jacob Westfall, 1st sheriff of Randolph Co., and Judith Booth.

Joel Westfall was b. 14 Oct. 1751, son of Jacob Westfall His name appears on the petition, to the Gov. of VA.,in 1776. He must have been m. and res. in Randolph Co., at that time.

He m. Mary Houston, dau. of James and Hannah Houston. She was b. 6 Aug. 1758. Joel Westfall d. 22 Aug. 1779 at Beverley. (Note-Will recorded Augusta Co.,VA.)

They had two known children:- Hannah Westfall b. 11 March 1777 and Joel Westfall Jr. b. 23 Jan. 1779 at Beverley.

After the d. of Joel WestfallMary Houston Westfall m. John Wilson (XVI-5). No record of this m. has been found but it must have occured in Monongahela Co. The early m. records of Monongahela Co.,were destroyed by fire.

John Wilson and Mary Houston must have gone to Hampshire Co. to reside. They are listed in the 1782 census of Hampshire Co. John Wilson owned land in Hampshire Co. (Sold to Solomon Wilson in 1805). They must have, soon after 1782, returned to Randolph Co.

We do not know whether they had children or not. Hill's Hist. of Licking Co.,OH, lists 3 children or step-children (names unknown). If they had children they must have d., when young, as no record has ever been found of any ch.

Mary Houston Westfall Wilson d. 20 Jan. 1795.

Joel Westfall Jr. was b. 23 Jan. 1779 at Beverley. He was raised by his step-father, John Wilson (XVI-5). When he was large enough to work, he helped his step-father with the duties of the Co. Clerk, he being Co. Clk. of Randolph Co.

On 4 Jan. 1798 he m. Elizabeth White, dau. of Captain William White and Mary Wallace. He was a surveyor and farmer. In 1806 he removed to Buckhannon. A few yrs. before his d. he removed to Kincheloe Creek in Harrison Co. He d. 28 Aug. 1858 in Harrison Co.

He had a large family but I do not know the names of all of his children. One son was John W. Westfall, who was the father of Joel Westfall. This is the Joel Westfall whose name appears in the Hist. of Ritchie Co. Read the Chapter on the Whites and the Westfalls beginning on p. 74, Hist. of Ritchie Co.

Another son was, General or Colonel Henry F. Westfall of Buckhannon. The following by Gen. Westfall appears in Hardesty's of Upshur Co.,printed in 1883.

"GENERAL HENRY F. WESTFALL- Among the early settlers of N.W. VA. none is more prominent or accomplished more in the work of the conquest of the wilderness and its savage inhabitents than the Westfalls. To trace the genealogy of the family from the yr. 1751, when its first representative came west of the mountains, to the present time, would fill pages of this work, We notice, therefore, only the representative whose name appears at the head of this sketch. His father was Joel Westfall, who was b. at Beverley, Randolph Co.,(then) VA.,Jan. 23, 1779 and was raised by his step-father, John Wilson, Clk. of the Co. Court. As soon as the step-son was able to transact business, he was taken into the office and made a deputy Clk.,and afterwards served as deputy surveyor. 4 Jan. 1798, He m. Elizabeth White, dau. of William White, who was killed by the Indians near the Buckhannon Fort in 1782. Soon after this m. he settled near where the town of Buckhannon now stands and there he continued to reside until a few yrs. previous to his d.,when he purchased and removed to another farm on Kincheloe Creek in Harrison Co.,where he continued to res. until his d.,on the 25 Aug. 1858. Henry F.,the subject of this sketch, was his 2nd son, and was b. near Beverley, in Randolph Co.,1 Dec. 1799. At the age of 6 he removed with his father to the present site of Buckhannon. There he grew to manhood and on the 21st Jan. 1821, he m.,Mary, dau. of Leonard and Christena Simon."

THE WARTHEN (WATHEN-WARTHIN) FAMILY

The following hist. and genealogy of the Warthen Family has been written by, Mrs. Walton R. Collins, 2201 Riverside Drine, South Bend, IN. 46616.

Tradition states thet the Wathen (Warthen-Warthin) family originated in Flanders, where they fought along side of the Black Prince, Edward of England, at the Battle of Crecy. For this they were knighted by Edward III and subsequently migrated to England.

Wathens can be found early in Gloucestershire, especially around Bristol. They also lived in Northumberland, where the name meant "Councilman." The family is supposed to have been wool merchants and by the 16th century, at least ship owners.

William Wathen, master of the ship "Providence", received 400 acres of land for transporting 8 persons to the Colony of MD. in 1668. William apparently never stayed in America for, according to Dr. Johnson of Louisville, he m. Ellen Lindsey in Bristol in 1667 and d. there before 24 Feb. 1670/71. (William and Mary Mag. Vol. 20 p. 298).

May XXV MDC Savey 1668----Came William Wathen of Bristol and proved right to 400 acres of land which he assigned as followeth.

Know all men by these presents that I, William Wathen, master of the ship Providence of Bristol for valuable consideration to me paid by Daniel Jennifer of St. Maries in the County of St. Maries in the Providence of Maryland. Gents: Do assign unto said Daniel Jennifer all my right, title, interest, from me and demand of it and to the rights of land due to me by virture of the condition of plantation of the Right Honorable the Lord Proprietor of the said Providence for transporting Barbary Jones, Joane Vincent, William Howell, Margaret Thomas, Ann Harris, George Read, Jenkins Jones and Joseph Harding in all eight persons to the said Daniel his heirs and assigns foreever.

Witness my hand the XXVth of May in the XXXVI yr. of his Lordship Dominion. Anno Domini- MDC Savey 1668.

Signed and delivered in the presence of John Bloomfield.

Vie: Warrent to D.J. for 400 acres in fo:550.

Signed: William Wathen. Ref: Liber #11 Folic 338 (Transcribed from Old Liber GG Folio 281).

Traditionally, a John Wathen is supposed to have come to MD. around 1647 and m. Mary Mullett. Supposedly he d. 1698 in St. Mary's Co. and is the father of JOHN WATHEN, PROVEN ANCESTOR.

This John Wathen, supposed son of John and Mary Mullett Wathen, came to America in the ship, "Francis and Mary" around 1668. B. 1651, probably in Bristol (but possibly in MD.), he came from Bristol as an indentured servant of Hugh Thomas. By trade he was a carpenter, because on Sept. 14, 1703 a suit was brought against him by Francis Green in which he named John Wathen, carpenter of St. Mary's Co. On March 18, 1701 John Wathen petitioned the Council for payment for work done on the church at Newport. And on May 18, 1701 for work done on the Vestry in Kings and Queens Parish in St. Mary's and Charles Counties.

John Wathen demands right for land due to him for his servitude within the Providence according to the conditions of plantation now in force which right the 4th day of May was proven.

May 12, 1674 Before me: Charles Calvert

Warrant was then issued in the name of the said John Wathen of St. Maries Co. for 50 acres of land due for the consideration above said. Cert.

Cetur: the 12th of Aug. next.

Ref: Liber 18 Folio 16 (Transcribed from Old Liber MM Folio 552).

On July 15, 1702, he received a patent for 200 acres of land in Charles Co.,MD. which he called "WATHEN'S ADVENTURE."

Around 1678 he m. Susanna Hudson, dau. of William Hudson He d. in Charles Co.,MD. around June 30 1704/5.

And on the 18th of Jan. 1758 came Susanna Wathen and renounced the within will and calims what the law will allow her. Before Danl Jenifer D. Co. of Charles County.

The 2nd wife of Ignatius Wathen and mother of Leonard was Mary Ware.

John Wathen, son of Ignatius and Susannah Hawkins Wathen was b. in 1740 in Charles Co. He was very close to his 2 brothers and they tended to do everything together.

John m. Henrietta Riney in Charles Co. after 1761. During the Revolutionary war he served as a Sargeant in the MD. Militia, Cap. John Hanson's Co.,12th Battalion of Charles Co.,MD. 1777. This Co. was ordered to watch the movement of the enemy fleet and prevent their landing or plundering.

Around 1775 the 3 brothers and their famalies moved to Montgomery Co.,MD.,where they all swore allegience. Soon after his brother, Leonard's d. in 1782, John took his family to Randolph Co.,VA. (Now W.Va.). One son, Raphael, m. Margaret Modestus Coombs, dau. of Francis Coombes and Charity Woods, and d. in 1798. Three of John's dau's.,Mary, Nancy and Susanna m. there, though not until long after

John and Henrietta and the rest of the family went to KY.

Around 1798 John migrated to the Beardstown area of KY., where there was a large Catholic colony and where numerous of his relatives were going. He d. there 2 Dec. 1810.

Of his children:- Nicholas, little is known of. Just possibly this is the Nicholas who m. Sarah Heaton in PA. But this is questionable.

Raphael b. in Charles Co.,MD., m. Margaret Modesus Coomes; had 2 dau's. and d. in Randolph Co.,VA. in 1798. Margaret later went to KY. and re-married. She m. Zachariah Aud. (Raphael's will and appraisement in this chapter).

Nancy m. John Hill in 1811 in Randolph Co.,VA. They seem to have gone to KY., for John was a witness to Joshua Master's will in 1835.

Since the above was written I have found a copy of the will and apprasial of Raphael Warthen in Randolph Co. This tells us something of the Warthen family, how they lived, and the material things that they possesed.

"In the name of God, Amen. This 20th day of Jan. in the yr. of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight. I, Raphael Warthen of the Co. of Randolph and State of VA.,being weak in Body but perfect in mind and memory and calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed of God for all men once to die---do make constitute and appoint this to be my last will and testament in name and form following, That is to say, principally and first of all, I desire my body to be decently buried in a Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors, and as touching such worldly goods as it hath pleased God to bestow upon me, I will give and bequeath in the following manner, and first I will that all my debts be truly & justly paid by my executors, and to enable them to so to do, I impower my executors hereafter to be named to sell such part of my personal or moveable estate as they may think proper, and secondly I will and bequeath to Margaret my beloved wife one third part of all my estate real and personal, to have and to hold the same during her natural life, excepting that part which may hereafter be applied to the discharge of my debts and the expense of burying me and executing my will- and finally I will and bequeath an equal moity of all my estate not heretofore will and bequeathed in this my last will to my two daughters Catherine and Clothilda. Yet on this condition that whereas there is a probability that my wife is now in a state of pregnancy and may have another child and should that be the case I will and bequeath that the child which may be hereafter born shall have an equal part with the two others aboved named, and I also will and bequeath that so much of my estate as will be sufficient to educate my children to read properly, to write plainly and to have a knowledge of arithmetick as far as the rule commonly called the single rule of three, shall be applied to the use of their education, and I furthur will that the whole and every part of my estate not applied to the payment of my debts and other expenses above mentioned to be left in the hand and for the use of my wife so long as she remains my widow or until my children shall arrive to the age of inheritance but if she should choose to marry before my children shall arrive to the age of inheritance she shall not claim the use of any part of the estate excepting only that is willed to her as above stated and the better to asertain the real value of my estate the whole shall be appraised by appraisors appointed by order of Court, and should my widow at any time she remains my widow incline to sell my land, she shall have it at her option to do so, provided nevertheless that one of my executors must agree in the price at which it must be sold, but should she at any time marry before my children shall arrive to the age of inheritance then my other executor or executors shall have the power of selling it for the benefit of my children excepting only her Dower to be always reserved for her use, and I do hereby revoke disanull and make void all former wills legaces or bequeaths by me heretofore made establishing this only to be my only last will and testament, appointing my trusty friends Wilford Warthen, John Wilson and my wife Margaret my sole executors, to this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the day and year first above written.

The reader must understand that early family genealogy poses many problems. Bits and pieces of information are gathered from many sources and from different areas. Then these must be fitted together. Several ancestors with the same name confuse the genealogist.

Mr. John Warthen, 2475 Viking Ave.,Las Vegas, NV. 89121 is a decendant of Alben Warthen. Alben Warthen probably spent his youth in Randolph Co.,VA. John has never been able to learn the name of Alben's father. Both John and Mrs. Collins are dedicated Warthen genealogists. John does not agree with Mrs. Collins in regard to John Warthen.

This letter from John Warthen, 30 Jan. 1974.

Dear Barr:

It was very kind of you to remember me and in sending the information you just sent, it now gives me a new clue to work on for the finding of the parents of Alben.

There is considerable error in the information Mrs. Collins has compiled and I have sent her the family group sheets with documention in hopes it will correct her research on the John Warthen who went to W.Va.

There were 2 John Warthen's, both with father's named, Ignatius, but they were b. 20 yrs. apart, the older one m. to Henrietta Binney and d. in Washington Co.,KY. in 1810 (will proved 12 Dec. 1810. Apprasial and sale recorded in Will Book B.), the other John, who resided in W.Va. was b.

about 1761. Now if the older John did reside in W.Va.,he did not have any property there, or at least no record available, but the later John did have property as you will note on the sheets I am enclosing, his wife's name being Charlotte, and they both went to KY. (Washington Co.) Along with this I find Aquilla Wathen in MO. with a John Wathen, who I assume to be his brother. There were there in MO. in 1822, John was serving jury duty and Aquilla was an administrator of some property, both brothers apparently stayed together.

I find the Warthens, as you say, mostly Catholic, some Episcopal and those in Fredrick Co.,MD. were Lutherns, so we may have two entirely different famalies. All the Fredrick Co. Warthens spelled, WARTHEN and no WATHEN as we find in KY. and MD.

I do not have a copy of this John's will, who m. Henrietta Binney nor do I have a copy of the will of the other John, but have been desperately trying to get one, and I am searching for the latter more thanthe other, as I believe him to be my 3 gg father. If I can get the wills, I will send you copies.

It was interesting and informal, to find one dau., Susannah and John Bussey going to Licking Co.,OH.,it would seem the same family as they did stay together in most cases so I will now do some searching on this family in Licking County.

Many Thanks Again Ted (John Warthin).

THE MODESITT FAMILY

One of our ancestors was officially traced back to 1408. At that time he was appointed treasurer to the king. Our family came to this country prior to 1634. We are decendants of Zachary Mothershead who was one of the first 2 assemblymen of MD. (Note to the above- The Modesitt family that came to VA. may have belonged to this family. This branch did not come to America until 1750-1760. The following is a true account of this VA. family.)

In 1750-1760, 3 Modesitt bros. came to America from England; Euriah, Charles and Brooks.

Brooks Modesitt- No information of him.

Euriah Modesitt settled near the Shenandoah Valley, very close to the State line between VA. and MD. They built a log cabin on the VA. side of a very high hill overlooking the Shenandoah Valley. The old log cabin stands as a landmark today. Modesitt decendants still live in it. It is preserved.

The Modesitts are of French decent.

Charles Modesitt m. Frances Byrns, an Irish woman, who lived in Virginia.

Charles and Frances Modesitt came from Prince William Co.,VA. in 1782. They moved into Harrison Co.,VA.,the part that later became Barbour Co.

Charles and Frances bought 400 acres of land on Fox Grape Run. (Note- Fox Grape Run is a tributary of the Tygart's Valley river and is located about 3 miles below Philippi, Barbour Co.,WV.)

All the children lived here and raised their famalies except Charles Byrns Modesitt and James Modesitt.

When Charles, that is their father, d., his wife, Frances, was already d. All the land, horses, geese, cattle, sheep, bees, farming equipment was divided among the 9 living children. When he d. he had 9 negro slaves.

The estate was settled in 1830 in Harrison Co.,VA.

Some of the family moved to Park Co.,IN. Their oldest son was a farmer and Baptist preacher.

CLIPPING FROM A NB. NEWSPAPER; RUSHVILLE, NB.,12 MARCH ____. "Municipal finances are no problem for this small prairie town with a prewar population of 1,125.

A.M. Modesitt, a pioneer citizen who made his money in early day ranching, left the bulk of his estate, estimated between $250,000.00 and $300,000.00 to Rushville, the terms of the will disclosed today.

(A.M. Modesitt was b. in VA. 24 Aug. 1859. He started from Rushville Trading Post with $500.00 worth of supplies consisting of a team of mules, a wagon, a set of harness, a plow, a tent and a supply of groceries and began his career as a rancher.)

His brother, A. R. Modesitt, left most of his estate to Rushville, in the form of parks, municipal buildings and an airport, when he d. in 1935. A sister, Mrs. Rosa Corder left her estate of $65,000.00 to Rushville, when she d. in 1936."

(Note- Most of this information has been furnished by Mrs. Margaret Haydon (XXI-2031) of Monterey, VA. 24465.

THE HUDKINS FAMILY

In checking the records in Randolph and Barbour Co's. one will find the spelling of the name "HUDKINS" varies. This is mainly due to the writing in the old record books. The names, HOSKINS, HASKINS, HADKINS and HOPKINS are meant for "HUDKINS."

Much of the following information has been furnished by; the late Byron E. Hudkins of Kewanna, IN.;Mrs. W.D. Bailey of R.R. No. 1, Box 340, New Cumberland, WV. 26047 and from what information that I have been able to find.

This from Mrs. Bailey, "____ Hudkins said to be ½ or ¼ Indian Blood. (This must refer to Bennett Hudkins)."

The information of Bennett Hudkins and his 9 children is probably correct, but there is no proof, except where the m. record of some of the dau's.,show, "Daughter of Bennett" There may have been more than 9 children.

Bennett Hudkins was probably b. in Sussex Co.,MD. in 1754. He m. in 1776, Nancy Anglin, who was b. in Allegheny Co.,MD in 1760. Both Bennett and Nancy are probably decendants of English settlers, who settled early, in the MD. Colony. The Hudkins family and the Warthen family may have been related. Both famalies came to Randolph Co. from Montgomery Co.,MD. at about the same time, 1793-1795. Barton Hudkins (in his deposition for Mary Warthen Wilson when she applied for a pension) stated, "I knew Mary Warthen in Montgomery Co.,MD."

We have the date for the d. of Nancy Anglin as 10 Aug. 1854. She probably d. before 1810. The 1810 census of Randolph Co. shows Bennett Hudkins with 2 males 16 to 26, 1 male 45 and up, 1 female 10 to 16 and 1 negro slave. Nancy Anglin must have been d. at this time. Bennett Hudkins could have m. (2) a wife named Nancy or this could be another Nancy Hudkins, of which we have no information, who d. 10 Aug. 1854.

Bennett Hudkins and his family were in Randolph Co. by 1795. They came from Montgomery Co.,MD. Bennett Hudkins, after 1810, must have res. on Brushy Fork of Elk Creek or Hacker's Run or Fox Grape Run or in the vicinity of the watershed between Hacker's Run and Elk Creek.

The 9 known children of Bennett Hudkins and Nancy Anglin

1.-RICHARD HUDKINS b. 1777, d. 14 Nov. 1844. He m. in Randolph Co.,Elizabeth Ingram, 5 Nov. 1804. She was a dau. of Abraham Ingram and Elizabeth Slaven. They res. on Elk Creek (probably Brushy Fork of Elk). They spent their lives in this area. They have many decendants in Harrison Co. and the surrounding area.

Richard Hudkins wrote his will 14 Nov. 1844. This will was probated 27 April 1874 in Barbour Co. He probably d. shortly before this will was probated and not the date which has been given me which I used in the beginning. His will names dau's.; Mary Costilow, Rhody Hudkins, Elizabeth Simons, Lucy House and Emily Holder. His will names sons; John Hudkins, Abraham Hudkins, Bennett Hudkins and Jacob Hudkins.

There are many Hudkins bur. in Mount Tabor Evangelical U.B. Cem. on the head of Brushy Fork of Elk Creek. Many of these must be decendants of Richard and Elizabeth.

The son, Jacob Hudkins, m. Rachel Holder. They came to Ritchie Co. and are bur. in the South Fork Cem. They were parents of 10 children:-(1) Richard R. Hudkins b. 13 Aug. 1845; (2) John H. Hudkins and Emma Hudkins. Jackson C. Hudkins m. Mae Maxon and they had 2 children, Ova Leo Hudkins and Hayward Hudkins of Harrisville; (3) Cornelia A. Hudkins b. 1 Dec. 1847; (4) Angeline Hudkins b. 3 Sept. 1849; (5) Emma Hudkins b. 21 June 1851. She m. William P. McKinley. Their dau. Blanche E. McKinley m. A.F. Robison, son of Rev. A.J. Robison. 3.-BARTON HUDKINS b. 1783, m. 2 May 1804, in Randolph Co., Naomi Ingram, who was b. 1788. She was a dau. of Abraham Ingram and Elizabeth Slaven. Barton Hudkins d. after 1857. Naomi Ingram d. in 1874. Both are bur. at Highland, Ritchie, Co. Their graves are not marked.

From History of Ritchie Co.: "BARTON HUDKINS was the first pioneer to find a home here (White Oak). He came from what is now Barbour Co.,near 1826, and erected his dwelling where L.S. Clayton now lives, and after a brief stay, removed to the Bond's Creek side, and settled at the forks of the Parkersburg and St. Mary's Turnpike, where his life came to a close. He was of English-Irish origin, his father having come from England and settled in the MD. Colony. The father later removed to Randolph Co.,VA.,where Barton was b. in 1773 and where he grew to manhood, and m. Miss Naomi Ingram, who was 10 yrs. his junior. She was also a native of Randolph Co.,but was decended from a prominent Scotch family by the name of Slaven of Highland Co.,Va. He (Barton) was a soldier of the war of 1812, and had been a resident of Harrison- now Barbour Co. for a number of yrs. before coming to Ritchie. He d. at his old homestead on Bond's Creek, and his wife spent her last hours at St. Mary's, but both rest at Highland."

THE SLAVEN FAMILY

This is the family of John Slaven Sr.,b. 1725 in Tyrone, Ireland. He m. Elizabeth Stuart. He had Revolutionary war service, listed in DAR PATRITOTS INDEX with service in VA. as a private. Date of his will 18 July 1802.

FROM PRICE'S HIST. OF POCAHONTAS CO.,PUB. 1901;

"JOHN SLAVEN---One of the notable famalies in our local annals was the Slaven relationship, whose ancestor was, John Slaven, who came from Tyrone, Ireland about the middle of the previous century. He first settled in Rockingham Co.,and then he came to what is now Highland Co.,VA.,and located permanently at Meadow Dale, on the property now held by Stuart Slaven and James Fisher. His wife was a Miss Stuart. Traces of the old home are still to be seen near James Flesher's residence, who is decended by the fifth remove.

In reference to John Slaven's sons, we learn that Henry and Reuben went to OH. and settled in the famous Scioto Valley. Daniel Slaven located his home on Clinch river, TN. Isaih Slaven m. Martha Stuart and went to Montgomery Co.,KY.,in 1792. About this time the State came into the Union and he settled at Mount Sterling. William Slaven settled in Smith Co.,TN.

Stuart Slaven remained on the homestead. His wife was a Miss Johnson, a dau. of Jesse Johnson. He was one of the most prominent and influential citizens of his time. Stuart Slaven's children were; Reuben, for so many yrs. one of the leading citizens of his Co. and perhaps celebrated more marriages than any Magristrate that held that office in his section; Jesse, William, Nellie, who became Mrs. Adam Lightner; Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Sallie who was Mrs. Alexander Gilmore; Rachel, who became Mrs. Givens and went west; and Mrs. Matilda Wade. (Note to the above- Mrs. Alexander Gilmore is oneof the ancestors of the Strickler family of Ellenboro, WV.)

Margaret Slaven m. to the late Benjamin B. Campbell. Her dau's. are; Mrs. S.P. Patterson and Miss Mattie Campbell of Huntersville; Stuart Campbell of Belington; Brown Campbell, late of Monterey and Luthur Campbell, at Dunmore, are her sons.

John Slaven, son of John from Tyrone, was twice m. The first wife was a Miss Wade. There was one son, John Slaven who never m. The 2nd. m. was with Elizabeth Warwick, a sister of Andrew and William Warwick of Deer Creek. Not long after this m. he settled on the head of the Greenbrier, and is the ancestor of the Pocahontas branch of the Slaven relationship. By the 2nd. m. there were 5 dau's., 2 sons.

He was a person of remarkable powers, and was a Revolutionary veteran, a noted hunter and successful trapper. He had thrillings descriptions to give of the many bloody engagements he passed thro, the hazerdous risks he ran, and the bitter privations he endured in the service of his country. He lived to an advanced age and was so weakened by the infirmities of age as to make the use of crutches, in moving around in his closing days. In reference to his children the following particulars are available:

Sallie Slavin became Mrs. Dinwiddle and lived for a time at the head of Jackson's river, and thence to Harden Co.OH

Priscilla Slaven was m. to Joseph Woodell of Green Bank and lived in Pike Co.,OH.

Anna Slaven m. Patrick Bruffey and lived near Green Bank on property occupied by John Hevener. Patrick Bruffey was a very useful and prominent citizen; a skilled workman in stone, iron and wood; and filled most of the official positions in the gift of the Co.

Mary Slaven became Mrs. John Woodell, near Green Bank. The late Mrs. L.P. Slaven, Hon. W.J. Woodell and J.S. Woodell Esq.,were her children.

Margaret Slaven became Mrs. Samuel Ruckman.

William Slaven, son of John Slaven Jr. the pioneer, was b. 6 July 1798 and was m. in 1819 to Margaret Woodell, dau of Joseph Woodell at Green Bank. She was b. 27 June 1800.

They were the parents of 6 sons and 2 dau's. Their names were, Charles, who d. seeking gold in CA.;William Patrick, James Cooper, Henry, Nathan-A Confederate soldier killed at Fort Donelson, and Elizabeth, who became Mrs. Osborne of Gilmer County.

William Slaven's 2nd m. was with Nancy Cline of Lewis Co.,and they were the parents of 5 dau's. and 4 sons by this m. Mary, Sarah, Caroline, Martha, Lucy, Frank, Lanty, Ronland and Perry. William Slaven's decendants mainly live in Jackson, Wirt, Lewis and Gilmer Co's., and are reported to be prosperous and good people of this section of WV.

While living in Pocahontas Co.,William Slaven was a person of marked prominence-a member of the VA. leglislature, Magristrate and assessor. More than 60 yrs. ago he concluded to move to Lewis Co. Assisted by John Woodell, his household effects were carried over Cheat Mountain to lawyer See's, near Huttonville, on pack horses. There being only a bridle path at that time. He lived a while on Leading Creek, Lewis Co.,thence went to Wirt Co.,near Burning Springs; and finally to Jackson Co.,a few miles from Ravenswood. In his new place of residence, after leaving Pocahontas, he was honored with places of trust, served the public as a Magristrate and deputy sheriff, which at that time meant the full, active duties of sheriff. He leaves the reputation of being always an efficient, trustworthy business man.

Jacob Gillispie Slaven, son of the pioneer, John Slaven Jr.,of that much named region, head of Greenbrier, Upper Tract, Travelers Repose, m. Eleanor Lockridge, dau. of Lanty Lockridge Sr.,on Knapps Creek.These persons passed most of their m. lives on the head of Greenbrier, in a widely known and attractive home. In their time there was an immense travel along that road, Staunton and Parkersburg Pike. The most of the communications between the western and eastern parts of VA.,was by this route. Gov. Joe Johnson and Stonewall Jackson have stopped over here to enjoy Trout and Venison. Everything seemed prosperous and pleasant with Jacob Slaven until the terrible ravages of war laid his home in ashes and exiled the happy inmates. The family consisted of 8 dau's. and 4 sons. We lay before our readers the following particulars concerning these sons and daughters.

Harriet, was greatly admired for her personal attractions, became Mrs. Patrick Galleger and went to MO.

Elizabeth m. Col. William Gammon, a citizen of marked prominence. She now lives in Odessa. MO.

John Randolph Slaven, late of Huntersville, m. Margaret P. Woodell, lately deceased.

Lanty Lockridge Slaven m. Isabelle Burner and settled on Back Allegheny, where his widowed wife with her sons, Jacob, Charles and Gratz, resides.

Mary P. Slaven was m. to Jesse B. Slaven at Meadow Dale, where she d. and is buried.

Warwick Slaven m. Mary Riley and lives near Green Bank.

Martha Slaven became Mrs. J.T. Hoggsett and lived near Mill Point at the time of her d.,a few yrs. since.

Adalaide Eleanor Slaven was 1st m.(by the writer) to Washington Arbogast. He d. in 1864 of wounds received in the battle of Spottslyvania Court House. He 2nd m. was with Samuel L. Brown Esq.,and lives at Green Bank.

Margaret Eveline Slaven, now Mrs. J.H. Patterson, lives at Marlington. Mr. Patterson is the Clk. of the Pocahontas Circuit Crt. He was a Confederate soldier, from start to finish and shared the perils of those who were first in battle and last in retreat.

Sarah Slaven was 1st m. to Peter H. Slaven and lived in Monterey, VA. Their son, Emmit lives in NB. Her 2nd m. was with Arista Hartman, now living in KS.

Winfield T. Slaven m. Nannie P. Ruckman, lives Marvin.

In reference to the dau's.,it is interesting to note that Eleanor and Margaret were twins. Mildren and Alice were also twin sisters.

John Salven and his wife, the ancestral pioneers, that had their home on the beautiful banks of the upper Greenbrier, had a m. life of 52 yrs.,10 m's.,21 days. It could be well could their graves be identified, where unheeded o'er their silent dust the storms of the eventful present and the recent past have raged in such ominous fury. The story of their lives helps us very much toward a proper understanding of what it cost to make it possible for the comforts that gladdened our lives."

THE INGRAM FAMILY

The Ingrams are a very hardy and hard working people. Ingrams must have been in VA. by the yr. 1650.

We find a John Ingram and Jane- Northumberland Co.,VA., Great Wicomoca. Patented land 5 April 1651.

John had a son, Thomas Ingram, b. 1648, d. 1707, will dated 12 Oct. 1700. The will lists sons, John Ingram, Charles Ingram and Abraham Ingram. It may be, that one of these three, is the gf. of our Abraham Ingram.

From "A History of the Valley of Virginia" by Samuel Kercheval, page 32. The following taken from a description of Bacon's Rebellion which occured in the latter 1670's. "IN A WHILE BACON DYES & WAS SUCCEDED BY HIS LIEUTENANT GEN'LL INGRAM."

Abraham Ingram must have been b. ca 1750. Probably in Augusta Co.,VA. He must have m. there before 1775, Elizabeth Slaven, dau. of John Slaven Sr. and Elizabeth Stuart.

Abraham Ingram had Revolutionary war service but it has never been proven. I have the following from Mr. Harlan Gorrell of Charleston, WV.,but I do not know the source of his information. Quote, "Abraham Ingram had Revolutionary war service from Augusta Co.,VA. in Captain Vance's Co."

Abraham Ingram must have res. in Augusta Co.,Bath Co., or the part that later became Highland Co.,Greenbrier Co. and later to Randolph Co.

Abraham Ingram was surety for m. 2-22-1786 of Isaih Slaven and Patty Steward.

Isaih Slaven and Abraham Ingram were surety for attorney Stuart.

Abraham Ingram & Elizabeth. Ref. deed in Randolph Co. 1803. Abraham Ingram at the time of his d. res. on Hacker's Run below Philippi. This must be the land mentioned in the deed.

Abraham Ingram's will, written in 1817, is recorded in Harrison Co.He must have d. soon after writing his will. He is probably bur. in the old Quaker Cem.,near Philippi.

It is not known when Elizabeth Slaven Ingram d. She is probably bur. in the old Quaker Cem. There are no Ingram markers in this Cemetry.

The will of Abraham Ingram only mentions 3 children; Abraham, Jacob and Comfort.

Mrs. Millie (Warren) Reed, Rt. No. 1, Williamstown, WV. gives us the names of the 17 children of Abraham Ingram. This is the only source of the names of these children but every bit of evidence points to this as being the correct number and names of the children.

Mrs. Reed quoted an Ingram family tradition that, "Abraham Ingram and his 17 children migrated from England" This tradition, like many family traditions, is just not true.

REDWOOD AVOCATE- LAYTONVILLE, CA.- FRIDAY APRIL 15, 1966 DOWN MEMORY LANE by KATE MAYO.

THIS IS THE STORY OF THE INGRAM FAMILY, PIONEERS OF THE WEST, THEY SETTLED IN ANDERSON VALLEY, JUST PRIOR TO 1862.

Uriah Ingram, gggf. of Everett Ingram, Cummings, CA.,was b. in VA. in 1791. He served as an Ensign in the 6th Reg. of the VA. Militia, under Col. Coleman. The Reg. was commanded by Jonathan Wamsley. Uriah was also a veteran of the Revolutionary war (Note- This could not be, but his father, Abraham Ingram may have had service in the Revolutionary war, in Cap. Vance's Co. from Augusta Co.,VA.)

He was m. to Hannah Holder of DE. in 1809 in Randolph Co VA. They raised 7 children, 3 boys and 4 girls. One of the boys, Daniel H.,Everett's ggf.,m. Nancy Burgess in OH. in 1832 and 2 children, Amos and Diana were b. in Pike Co.,OH

Uriah John (Jack) was b. in IN. Then the family moves west, Martha, Nathan, Daniel Cass (Everett's gf.) and Mercer were b. in IL. Lidia was b. in Iowa.

In the spring of 1859, the family left Pottowattamie Co. with the youngest child only 5 yrs. old and travelled overland in a covered wagon caravan. While on the long trek across the plains to CA.,those who were able, walked. This was done for several reasons. One to lighten the load on the animals pulling the heavy wagons. Another reason was because the wagons were rough riding and very dusty, unless it rained. If it rained they all had to get out and push the wagons through the mud anyway.

Jack rode horseback helping with the family stock. They brought one milk cow with them on the trip. One gun, about a 70 calibre muzzle loader so long and heavy, a tripod was used under the barrell for accuracy, was brought along and is now in the possession of Clair Holliday, Talmage, CA.

Martha, age 17, drove one of the teams and wagon all the way to their designation.

While on the trip across the country, the family, who were all musical would sit around the campfire at night and sing and play music much to the enjoyment of every one on the wagon train. Jack and Amos both played violins.

They arrived in Cloverdale, 20 Aug. 1859. The trip on to the Anderson Valley, where they settled, was rough, over hills and crude trails, as there was no roads at that time

They settled on a piece of property between Booneville and Philo, which was later sold to Earl Prather and now owned by Marion Prather. This was before the Homestead act of 1862. One of the first sawmills in the Valley was built on this property and operated by a family named Irish.

Two of the boys, Amos and Jack, joined the 1st Reg. of the OR. Territory and they both m. while in service. Jack raised 4 boys and 2 girls. They were all musical and in about 1888, he moved to San Jose, where they operated a dray business. Norvel, Jack's grandson still operates a delivery service in that city.

Martha m. Sam Lawson in 1859 and had 11 children, 9 boys and 2 girls. Diana m. William Prather in 1860 and they reared 4 boys and 4 girls. Nathan m. Delia Witheral in 1866 and they became parents of 1 boy and 2 girls.

Late in 1880, Amos, who had been teaching in the Redding area with his cousins, the Lawson boys, returned to his home in Manchester. Upon his arrival he found that his second wife had gone to San Francisco because she was unhappy alone in the country. At that time there was an epidemic of smallpox in the city, and Amos, while unsuccessfully looking for his wife, became ill. His brother, Mercer, went to the city and brought him to their home in Calistoga. Amos d. of smallpox on 25 Dec. 1880 and by 12 Jan. 1881, Nancy, Daniel H.,Lidia and Mercer were all d. of the dread disease.

They weren't allowed to be bur. in the Calistoga Cem. and so the family bur. them on the corner of their ranch near the county road. In 1955, permission was granted by the living heirs to const. the State highway 12 over the graves.

Daniel Cass and his family, now consisting of only 5 children, were forced to sell the ranch to satisfy the existing heirs and so they returned to Mendocino Co. He engaged in hauling tan oak bark, railroad ties and freight in the Cloverdale area. 2 more children, Mercer and Alva, were b. in later yrs. In time he acquired land from his daughter Etta and her husband, Burnham Ball in Anderson Valley. The property had been formerly owned by Jefferson Davis Ball who had settled in the valley in 1853.

Daniel Cass erected a house, planted fruit trees and supplimented his income by farming. The house was built with the fireplace in the center and during the 1906 earthquake it broke loose from the roof and turned half way around but did not tumble. The house is still standing north of Booneville near the Evergreen Cem. Upon the d. of Daniel Cass, the property was sold to Jess Ginochio.

Daniel's children m. as follows:- Etta m. Burnham Ball; Ted m. Maude Linville; Daisy m. Jefferson Smally; Irvin m.

Everett m. Mary Smith of Ukiah and they have 2 children, Donald who is stationed at Laury Air Force Base, Denver,CO and Nancy, who is a sophmore at Leggett High School.

Everett is a member of the Ca. Highway Patrol stationed in the North Mendocino and Southern Humbolt areas. They have their own home which they built at Cummings.

Everett's father has an old violin that belonged to one of his relatives many yrs. ago. It is in perfect condition complete with an old wooden case. It is one that Alva learned to play on when he was a boy. The instrument originally belonged to his brother, Irvin. When they were boys, he and his brother were trimming apple trees when an accident injured his leg severley. While he was recuperating he borrowed the violin and learned to play it.

Everett's father, Alva, attended the old Con Creek School in Anderson Valley. Everett attended the 1st grade in the same school and to-day, Rea's wife, Barbara teaches Kindergarden there.

THE SHINN FAMILY

There is a written history of the Shinn family. The title is; "THE HISTORY OF THE SHINN FAMILY IN EUROPE AND AMERICA" by Josiah H. Shinn, A.M.The book was entered in the library of Congress in 1903.

The author of the book did not come to the Doddridge Co. area and secure the history of the Aaron Shinn Family. Ernest Shinn (XIX-737) of Vienna, WV. and Ralph Shinn (XIX-738) of West Union, WV. have copies of this book.

JOHN SHINN was the original immigrant to America. On pages 59 and 60 are listed the children of John Shinn. James Shinn, b. in England, is the fourth child.

JAMES SHINN m. Abigail Lippincott. Their children are listed on page 70. Clement Shinn is the seventh child.

CLEMENT SHINN m. Elizabeth Webb. Their children are listed on page 93. Levi Shinn is the fourth child.

LEVI SHINN m. Elizabeth Smith. Their children are listedon page 133. Aaron Shinn is the fifth child.

502. AARON SHINN (5),Levi (4), CLEMENT (3), JAMES (2), JOHN (1).

"Aaron, son of Levi and Elizabeth (Smith) Shinn, b. in VA.;m. Mary Piggott 5/23/1811. He was a stone mason and built the stone house in Shinnston, now occupied by his nephew, Luther Clive Shinn; he carried the stone in a leather apron from the river; he moved into the western part of the state and left a large family, whose names, I have not been able to ascertain."

The following are mostly paragraphs copied from newspaper accounts, "of the gift of the Levi ShinnLog House,"to the Shinnston Historical Society. The Shinns were Quakers.

"What is believed to be Harrison Co's. oldest remaining house, the Levi Shinn House, soon will become the possession of the Shinnston Historical Association.

The structure, a two story log is located at the southern entrance on Rt. No. 19 to Shinnston and has been at the site since its const. in 1778.

When built by Levi Shinn in 1788 the house was no doubt considered imposing, for most log houses in that far-away time were smaller and cruder. Certain features of its construction reflect the New Jersey origin of its builder, for example, the large central chimney. The fact that it has survived the ravages of nearly two centuries is evidence that Shinn built well. It was indeed a fitting home for a pioneer leader, and here often visited many men and women prominent in the early developement of the Upper Monongahela Valley.

Born near Burlington, NJ.,in 1748, Levi was a child of Clement and Elizabeth (Webb) Shinn. His ggf.,John Shinn, came to America from England in 1678, and his gf.,James Shinn, much enchanced the family's position in 1697 when he took for his bride Abigail Lippincott, dau. and gdau. of powerful NJ. Colonial Worthies. As a young man, Levi and his brothers, Clement, Jonathan and David succumed to the lure of the frontier and journeyed into the savage infested lands of the Trans-Allegheny wilderness and eventually they established the settlement that evolved into present day Shinnston, Harrison Co.,WV.

Two early Shinn houses still stand. On Charles St. in Shinnston is the "Old Stone House" built by Levi's son, Aaron, in 1821 and mentioned in Granville Davisson Hall's novel "Daughter of the Elm". According to tradition, the builder and his wife carried its stones from the nearby river in leather aprons. It is interesting to note that among Aaron's decendants is Governor Arch A. Moore Jr."

Aaron Shinn m. Mary Piggott. When they left Shinnston they came to what is now Doddridge Co. They settled below Central Station on Arnold's Creek. They res. near the Piggott Cem. They are bur. in the Piggott Cem.

Their son, George Washington Shinn m. Mary Amy Wilson (XVII-72).

Their son, Jehu Shinn m. Jane Wilson (XVIII-304).

Their son, Levi Shinn m. Louisa J. Williamson. See page 76 "DOAK FAMILY" by Rev. Berkeley Hanes.

Their dau.,Phoebe Shinn m. Thomas Jones. See the Jones Family.

THE RICHARDS FAMILY

The Richards are of German decent. The name first spelled, REICHARDT, then to RICHERD and finally RICHARDS.

GEORGE RICHARDS was b. in 1759 in Rockingham Co.,VA. He m. Catherine Bush 27 July 1788, recorded in the Courthouse in Clarksburg, WV. He was an Indian spy during the Revolutionary war having served under Cap. Gregory, John Thomas and Col. William Lowther, in spying the country around Clarksburg and to the Ohio river.

George Richards is bur. in an old Cem. about 1 mile below the Fair Grounds, near Pennsboro, WV. Grave not marked.

Lucullis Virgil McWhorter, in his history of "Border Settlers of N.W. VA." states, "Isaac Richards was b. in Rockingham Co.,VA, also in 1759 and he was a son of John who came from Germany,"(not necessarily direct). Isaac and George undoubtedly related and maybe even twins. (This from Aubrey Richards.)

From History of Ritchie Co.:- "THE RICHARDSES were the pioneers of this creek (Note-Lynn Camp Run.) George Richards and his wife, Mrs. Katherine Bush Richards, with their large family, having come from Harrison very early in the century and settled at the mouth of Lynn Camp, on land that afterwards became the home of Edmund Taylor. They came as early as 1800, and it is claimed by some, that they were here in 1795, but this cannot be verified, however; and John Bunnell still holds the distinction that has always been accorded him, as being the first settler within the bounds of the County."

"The Richards are said to have come and to have gone back to their home in Harrison Co. a number of times, before settling down here permently. George Richards removed from the mouth of this stream to the late L.P. (Dump) Wilson (XVIII-295), p. 204, farm, where his life came to a close. (Note- This farm just below the Fair Grounds.)"

Alva Richards states that the Richards were members of the hunting party, which built a camp of Lynn wood, and gave the name to Lynn Camp Run. Their several trips to and from Harrison Co. would tend to prove this fact.

From Callahan's History, "Fort Richards built on the west bank of the West Fork river in Union District, Harrison County.

West Milford, near Clarksburg, WV. a beautiful monument stands erected to the following, "ERECTED BY CO. COURT OF HARRISON CO. 1932 TO DESIGNATE SITE OF RICHARDS FORT BUILT 1775 ON LANDS OF ARNOLD RICHARDS N. 15 E. 100 FT. AND TO MARK THE PLACE WHERE ARNOLD AND PAUL RICHARDS WERE KILLED BY INDIANS AUGUST 1782 AND BURIED 125 FT. N. and 20 W."

THE JONES FAMILY

JAMES JONES b. in Charles Co.,MD. 1762. He d. 10 Nov. 1850 in Ritchie Co.,WV. He m. Sarah Ravencraft 18 May 17-91. She was b. 18 March 1776. They lived in Tyler Co. on Long Run. No record has been found of theirowning land. It may be when they first came here, they were squatters, for several yrs. The 1850 census of Ritchie Co. lists them living with, their son, Jesse I. Jones on Bunnels Run. James Jones applied for a pension in 1835, but was refused-found out much later that there had been a mix up with another Jones with the same name. Sarah Ravencraft applied much later, 12 Sept. 1854 and received a pension and 160 acres of bounty land. Sarah Ravencraft d. ca 1860. Both are bur. in the Old Cem.,on Bunnels Run, about 1 mile below Pennsboro Fair Grounds. Ray Cottrill owns the land upon which the Cemetry is located.

Dr. William Smith Jones of Central Station, WV. wrote a letter to the war dept. in 1910, regarding James Jones Revolutionary war soldier. Quoting from page 2 of letter;

"I do not know who any of his officers were, nor what Regiment he belonged to. He was in the service over 1 yr. and perhaps at the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown. Though I guess he was in no regular battles. The maiden of his wife was Sarah Ravencraft. His wife drew her pension until her d.,which was all that was due." (Note- Gov. Arch A. Moore, the Gov. of WV.,used the services of James Jones to join, "The sons of the American Revolution.")

Their children were:- 1.-John Jones; 2.-Samuel R. Jones; 3.-James R. Jones; 4.-William Jones; 5.-Thomas Jones; 6.-Jesse I. Jones; 7.-Anne Jones; 8.-Priscilla Jones; 9.-Easter Jones(?); 10.-Ruth Jones; 11.-Sarah Jones.

Before we start with the children of James Jones we will give the history of 2 other Jones famalies; Keener Jones and John A. Jones. These 2 famalies must belong to the James Jones family, but we do not know the connection. Keener Jones and John A. Jones are probably grandsons,James Jones and Sarah Ravencraft, but we do not know the names of their parents.

KEENER JONES shown in the 1850 census of Ritchie Co. as being 21 yrs. of age. This would make him too young to be a son of James Jones and Sarah Ravencraft. He must be a grandson--we do not know.

Keener Jones m. Mary B. Richards. She was b. in 1828 dau of George Richards Jr. They res. on Rock Camp. Parents of six children:-

1.-Elizabeth C. Jones.
2.-Robert Calvin Jones m. Zealie Hogue (XIX-723) p. 321. Her name was Zelia Annas Hogue. For the children see Wilson history page 321.
3.-William Jones m. Harriett Hogue (XIX-2055) p. 323. Her name was Harriett Lenore Hogue. Children p. 323.

4.-John S. Jones m. Columbia Jones, dau. of Mansfield Jones. Their children:- Creed Haymond, Bert, Mrs. Hiram Collins. There must have been other children. Columbia Jones that m. Thomas Dotson must have been a dau.
5.-Festus Jones m. Fanie Jeffries, a dau. of George and Nancy Jeffries. Parents of :- Manuel Jones, Haymond Jones, Gail Jones, Fanie Jones, one dau. m. Elmer Howard.
6.-Marshall Jones m. Catherine Elder. Parents of:- Scott Jones, Ben Jones, Keener Jones, Lafayette Jones, John O. Jones, Mahala Jones and Sherman Jones.

JOHN A. JONES m. Martha Martin. His son, Creed Jones was b. in 1872 so this John A. Jones would not have been old enough to have been a son of James Jones and Sarah Ravencraft. John A. Jones owned a vast acreage of land in Tyler and Ritchie Co's. Uncle Bill Wilson (XIX-623) p. 125, bought his farm on Indian Creek from John A, Jones. John A. Jones was quite a character. At Uncle Bill Wilson's 60th Wedding Anniversity he talked of John A. Jones. He said, "He was a well to do man at one time owning much land in Tyler and Ritchie Co's. He owned 700 acres of land on Indian Creek and I bought 400 acres of this land. He kept himself surrounded by a bunch of the poorest tenants he could find. The tenants lived in poverty. He was always in a lawsuit with somebody. Here is where he used his Tenants. They would swear to anything he told them to. One time he got into a lawsuit with father (John Marshall Wilson XVIII-291, p. 101.) They did not finish the lawsuit at Harrisville that day. John A. THE DOTSON FAMILY

The information of the early Dotson History has been furnished by Mrs. Bertha Sellers, Toll Gate, WV.

SAMUEL DOTSON b. ca. 1675, or earlier, in England, came to America in the ship "Assurance" 17 July 1692. His wife's name was Sarah, but we do not know if she came with him or whether he m. her here. However, Samuel landed in Northumberland Co.,VA.

SAMUEL AND SARAH were the parents of ABRAHAM DOTSON b.13 Jan. 1690, so we must assume that they were m. and that Abraham and Sarah came about the same time that Samuel did But there is no proof of this at this time. The dates are conflicting, as Abraham's birthdate and birthplace is listed as Northumberland Co.,VA. He also d. in the same Co., so he probably spent his entire life there. He m. Elizabeth Dameron, who was b. 18 April 1692 and also lived and d. in Northumberland Co.,VA. She was the dau. of Richard and Margery Dameron.

ABRAHAM AND ELIZABETH DOTSON were the parents of THOMAS DOTSON b. in Northumberland Co.,VA.,4 Nov. 1731. Thomas was m. to Frances Minor, dau. of John Minor and Anne Washington Minor. Both John Minor and Anne Washington Minor d. in Westmorland Co.,VA. John Minor d. 22 Feb. 1698. Anne Washington Dotson was the dau. of John Washington and Anne Pope Washington.

The Genealogist, Mrs. Miller, lists her as Ann Hines, sister of Thomas Pope, so therefore the dau. of Nathaniel Pope. It is almost a certaintly that she had been m. before, but in Minnie Kendall Lowther's History of Mount Vernon, she was the wife of Walter Broadhurst. In the Northumberland records reference is made to a suit which was brought by Anne Broadhurst, relict of Walter Broadhurst and administratrix, of 30 Sept. 1659. Anne Pope's father was John Washington, who was the ggf. of GEORGE WASHINGTON.

THOMAS AND FRANCES MINOR DOTSON were the parents of RICHARD DOTSON, b. Shenandoah Co.,VA.,10 Jan. 1752.

All of the Dotson's of this area of WV. are decendants of Richard Dotson, as no other male Dotson, came to this area. Richard had 4 different wives in his lifetime and was supposed to have fathered 20 children. However, at this time, proof of all of this has not been found.

Richard's 1st. wife was Sarah Jeanne Hollyday, b. 11 June 1752 in Easton, MD. She was the dau. of Henry and Anne M. Robins Hollyday. Their children according to data of Mrs. Miller were; Peter, Sarah, William and John R. This is probably correct. In a story published in the "Awhile Ago Times" states that some of Richard "Dick" Dotson's children were killed by the Indians in a skirmish. So since William Dotson is the only older child of which we have record as being the son of Richard and Sarah JeanneHollyday, then we must believe that Peter, Sarah and John R. were the ones killed by the Indians. William Dotson was b. about 1777 in Greene Co.,PA.

Richard Dotson's 2nd wife's name was Mary but her maiden name is still unknown. According to her d. records, Richard and Mary were the parents of William, but she could well have been his step-mother.

Richard Dotson and Amelia "Millie" Miller were m. in 1802 and "Millie" d. 1810.

Sometime after this, Richard Dotson, took for his 4th wife, Naomi Villers Gregg, the widow of George Gregg.

Mrs. Miller data from Research Books, Materials, lists the children of Richard and Sarah Jeanne Hollyday as being Peter, Sarah, William, John R.,Mary and Peter. (Note- Peter's name is listed twice.) So the following without complete proof, must be the children of Richard and Mary Dotson; Thomas, Emmanuel, Nancy, perhaps two girl children, Joseph, Michael, Richard Jr.,Esisha, James, Zachariah. Since Richard and Amelia were m. in 1802, then they must have been the parents of Ruth, b. 1803; Stacy; Elizabeth b. 1806 and Lidia. Richard and Naomi Gregg were the parents of Naomi b. 16 Jan. 1816.

More information of Richard Dotson:-

All of the Dotsons of this area of WV. are decendants of Richard Dotson. No other male Dotson came to this area. The early Scott settler, of the West Union area, probably m. a sister of Richard Dotson.

The first record we have of Richard is in the yr. 1801. On 7 Sept. 1801, Joseph Spencer sold Richard Dotson 250 acres of land on waters of Hughes river, part of lot 21.

6 June 1803, Richard Dotson, sold James Marsh 250 acres of land. Part of lot 21. Richard Dotson signed this deed with his mark. It was also signed by Amelia Dotson.

This tract of land is located just east of Toll Gate. It is now owned by Homer Dotson and The Carnegie Natural Gas Company (1975).

From Hardesty's of Doddridge and Ritchie Co's.,published 1883, Central Dist. Doddridge Co. "The first settler was Richard Dotson who entered 600 acres of land and 1802 built his cabin."

This land has not been located in any grant or deed. This 600 acres may be located in Clay Dist. Ritchie Co. Much of this land could be located in the following boundary, "Beginning in the low gap, between Buck Run and Yeager Run then following the ridge coming down the hill to the mouth of Buck Run, then following Buck Run to the Right Hand Fork, then up the Right Hand Fork to the place of beginning."

This area covers about 600 acres.

This land was mostly owned by decendants of Richard Dotson up until the period of WWII. Some Dotson decendants still own some of this land (1975).

"The first white child b. in this area, was, Ruth Dotson, a dau. of Richard and Millie."

"The first religious discourse ever delivered in this section was by a travelling Hebrew, in the yr. 1808, at the house of Richard Dotson."

Richard Dotson, removed to Tyler Co.,probably in the vicinity of the "JUG", sometime after 1810. His name appears as one of the appraisers, of the estate of George Gregg Jr., in 1823. This was at the "JUG." He must have been a landowner and a man of means to have qualified as an appr.

He applied for a pension from Tyler Co. in 1833. From pension records; He was living in the home of his son, James Dotson, in 1840. Records show him 88 yrs. of age in 1840. He d. about 1847.

He was m. 4 times. He m. (1) Sarah Jeanne Hollyday; m. (2) Mary _____; m. (3) Amelia "Millie" Miller. Amelia d. 1810. She could be bur. in the old Cem. east of Toll Gate or at Greenwood.

George Gregg, a miller, came to Middle Island, around Middlebourne, in the yr. 1800. He was a cousin of the George Gregg, who came to the "JUG", in 1796, and who built the famous mill there.

This George Gregg m.,Naomi Villers, a widow woman, in the yr. 1800. They had 4 children. We know 3 of these children m. decendants of Richard Dotson. We do not know who the 4th m.

George Gregg d. in the yr. 1810. Some time after this, Richard Dotson, took for his 4th wife, Naomi Villers Gregg the widow of George Gregg. They must have resided in the vicinity of the "JUG."

Richard Dotson made application for a pension, from Tyler Co.,in 1833. He was awarded a pension for Revolutionary war service. The following application for his pension gives a splendid record of his life before coming to this

Some additional Dotson information:-

Recorded in Guy Tetrick's office, Clarksburg, WV. and written by Mrs. I.S. Dotson, age 75, at time of writing 16 April 1931.

"My great grandfather (Richard) had a friend living near Sutton. His name was Mr. Sutton, and the town of Sutton,WV was named for him. Great grandfather went to Sutton to hunt on this tract of land. I do not know the length of the stay--but while there he killed 63 bears. Mr. Sutton kept the bear meat for his share. Great grandfather brought home the bear hides for his share. "Old Dobbin," the horse, pulled the sled from Sutton to Toll Gate. Great granddad and "Old Dobbin" took the hides on to Parkersburg,VA. and sold them to a Flat Boat Man and he took them to New Orleans, LA.,and they were put on the world market."

Another from Mr. Tetrick's office (presume from same source):- Great grandfather Richard served in the Revolutionary war. War was nearing the end. Great grandfather and some other soldiers were in a fort. His horse began to wander off, and he left in pursuit of the horse and unexpectantly spotted a small number of Indians. He fired and killed one Indian. He ran back to the Fort for the other soldiers, and they joined in at once and killed two more of the Indians. This made 3 dead Indians. THE SOLDIERS EACH MADE HIMSELF A LEATHER BELT FROM THE SKINS OF THE INDIANS!!

Note to the above. This must be the skirmish mentioned in his application for a pension. The History of Greene Co PA. mentions this skirmish. Each version is told differently, but it is the same skirmish.

THE BROADWATER FAMILY

Three Broadwater brothers came to this area, from Allegheny Co.,MD. Jefferson Broadwater settled about 2 miles below Toll Gate in 1843 or 1844.

Ashford Broadwater, his youngest brother, must have visited him or maybe came with him. Ashford became acquainted with Rachel Taylor and they became engaged. He then returned to Maryland.

When he returned to the Toll Gate area, to m. Rachel Taylor, his brother, Peter Broadwater, ask him if there were any other girls in the Taylor Family. Peter returned with him. Peter must have been a fast worker. A couple of days after they arrived, there was a double wedding. Ashford Broadwater m. Rachel Taylor, Peter Broadwater, m. her sister, Love Taylor.

Ashford and his bride returned to MD. to reside, returning and making their home in Tyler Co. in 1862. Peter Broadwater settled at Hannahdale.

Amos Broadwater, the oldest brother, wrote a very interesting history of the Broadwater family, printed in 1891.

A SKETCH OF THE BROADWATER FAMILY AND ITS CONNECTIONS WRITTEN BY AMOS BROADWATER IN THE YEAR 1891. Which is intended to be printed and bound in a small volume, for private use only, and which is affectionately dedicated to my children. Originally printed in 1891, reprinted in 1954.

"I have for a considerable length of time contemplated writing a sketch, or a brief history of my race and kindred, to be bound in a small volume, which may be of interest to those who are to follow the writer.

An undertaking like this is never willingly commenced,at least such are my feelings. It is to be hoped that it may be read with more pleasure by the few for whom it is intended than the author experiences in what in the beginning appears to be reluctant labor. Still I am anxious for those dear to me to know as much of my family matters as I do and in this way communicate them. I have not the means or time at command to go very far back among our ancestry. It is to be regretted that so little is known of the stock from I came.

On my fathers side I can only reach back to his father, my gf.,whose name was Cornelius Broadwater. He emigrated from England, but in what town or locality he was b.,I do not know. I will now give the reader a brief sketch of my experience from my boyhood up to the present date of the improvements of the 2 Co's.

When I first knew Westernport, there were only 2 stores and 1 blacksmith shop. One store was kept by William Price the other by James Morrison, who came from Alexander, VA. There were very few houses in Westernport, now there are 8 or 10 stores and 8 or 10 saloons. The population is supposed to be 1,500 or 2,000 inhabitants.

Now, for a word about Piedmont. Where now stands there was only one house, owned by widow Burns, when I first knew Piedmont; now there are from 10 to 15 stores, 10 or 15 saloons and 2 or 3 taverns stands and one R.R. machine shop. Population from 2,000 to 2,500 inhabitants.

There were no stores along Georges Creek at that time. William Shaw some yrs. afterwards, put up a small store where Burton now stands, the only house at that time there There were no other stores along Georges Creek at that time. There was no house at all where Lonaconing now stands. There are now about 15 or 16 stores there, besides Saloons and taverns. There are 4 large churches in Lonaconing. The population is about 6,000 inhabitants. Mr. Samuel Buskhart had a mill about 3/4's of a mile above Lonaconing. Old Tommy Wright and Henry Koontz both owned farms along the road from Lonaconing to Frostsburg. When I first knew Frostburg there were only 4 or 5 houses in that place, and no stores at all. The 1st store was kept by Adam Claire, now there are a great many stores there. The population is about 5,000. There was only one tavern along the National Road to Little Shades when I first knew it, and that was kept by widow Brumley, 4 miles above Frostburg. The properrty now owned by Thomas Johnson heirs. The 1st store kept at LittleCrossing was by George Matthews. The 1st store kept at Petersburg, PA.,was owned and kept by Robert Hunter. When I first knew Salisburg, there was only 1 store, owned by John Shirley. There were but 5 or 6 houses, now there are a number of stores and other improvements. I was there only a few weeks ago and was astonished to see the houses and improvements made in 13 or 14 yrs. Population about 4,000. When I look around and see the improvements made in the 2 Co's. within the last 60 yrs.,I am ready to cry out and say the half has never been told.

My father d. at his own residence at Savage river in the yr. 1859, aged 81 yrs. Mother survived him 18 yrs. She d. on the 19th day of Dec. 1887, aged 91 yrs.,3 months, 9 days. They are both bur. at the farm home, now owned and occupied by his gson, William B. Broadwater.

I will now close by saying what a change it has been since I first settled here 65 yrs. ago,,when there were no roads except a path to the National Road and no houses. The first house built in Wolf Swamp, lived Adam Spiker who m. Annie Reckner. The first settler in New Germany was William Weitzel. This Co. was mostly all woods when I first came here, but most of it now is improved. The early settlers who lived around here are all gone.

Swatzingroover, John Ogg, Peter Fiske, Jacob Shrock, Jasper Heller, Jacob Brenneman, Daniel Durst and John Hartman. These men are all d. and other people occupy their places. There were no stores or blacksmith shops closer than the National Road or Westernport.

This limited work here closes. I trust it may be of some interest and use to those for whom it was intended, in the future, whether it reaches them in manuscript or print.

AMOS BROADWATER, Brants Fancy, 1 January 1891.

THE DUCKWORTH FAMILY

The following is taken from, "The name and family of Duckworth compiled by the Media Research Bureau."

"The name Duckworth is derived from the residence of its first bearers at DUCKWERTH, an estate at eswaldtwistle, in the Parish of Whalley, Laneashire, England. The literal meaning of the name is 'Doeea's Estate.' Doees being an ancient Angle-Saxen personal name of uncertain origin. In ancient English and early American records the name appears in the various spelling of DUCWERTH, DUKEWERTH, DUKWERTH, DEKEWARD, DEKWERTH, DUCWERTH, DUCKWORTH and others. Of the forms mentioned, the last is that most frequently in evidence in America, in modern times."

The first Duckworth of whom we have record, is, Aaron Duckworth who was in Allegheny Co.,MD. by 1788. He had served in the Revolution, probably from NY. State. He must have come to Allegheny Co. from NY. State. The d. record of his son, Henry Duckworth, b. 1777, states that he was b. in New York State.

The following taken from, History of Allegheny Co.,MD. by V.I. Thomas.

"In 1774, while the whole western part of the state was comprised in Fredrick Co.,there seems to have been a rush to secure land grants in the Allegheny Territory. At that time Robert Smith was surveyor General of the land office for the Western Shore and John Hanson Jr. his deputy for Fredrick Co. The land office business for these grants was interrupted by the Lord Dunmore War and then came the Revolution. Lots of land west of Fort Cumberland were offered by the State Government to volunteers in the Continental army. In 1788, Francis Deskins laid out 4,165 of these military lots."

Aaron Duckworth received one of these lots.

We do not know the name of Aaron Duckworth's wife. From the 1800, 1810 and 1820 census of Allegheny Co. we can assume that Aaron Duckworth had a family of 7 sons and 1 dau (Note--the reader must not accept this as a proven fact). Aaron was the only known Duckworth that settled in Allegheny Co. Aaron Duckworth left no will and there are no records of his children or the name of his wife. The 1800 census shows, Aaron Duckworth with 7 males and 2 females in family. The 1810 census shows 2 males and 1 female. Most of his children must have m. between 1800 and 1810.

The eight children:-

1.-William Duckworth shown in 1800 census with 2 males and 1 female in family. 1810 census shows 2 males and 6 females. 1820 census shows 3 males and 5 females.

2.-John Duckworth shown in 1810 census with 3 males and 3 females. 1820 census with 5 males and 5 females.

3.-Henry J. Duckworth. M. records show that he m. Abigail Tichnell 1 Oct. 1801. 1810 census shows Henry with 3 males and 4 females. 1820 census shows 5 males and 6 females. More information will be given of the family of Henry J. Duckworth.

4.-Mathias Duckworth. M. records show that Mathias Duckworth m. Ann Wilson 25 April 1810. 1810 census shows Mathias with 1 male and 1 female in family. 1820 census shows 4 males and 4 females.

5.-Aaron Duckworth. M. records show that he m. Ann Beam 28 July 1801. 1810 census shows Aaron with 1 male and 4 females in family. 1820 census shows 3 males and 1 female.

6.-Uriah Duckworth. 1810 census shows Uriah Duckworth with 5 males and 2 females in family. 1820 census shows 10 males and 3 females. (M. records in Allegheny Co. show Uriah Duckworth m. Ellen Wilson 14 Dec. 1824. This Uriah is probably a son of William Duckworth.) More information will be given of the family of Uriah Duckworth.

7.-George Duckworth. M. records show that George Duckworth m. Olive Varnham on 19 May 1812. 1820 census shows 4 males and 5 females in family.

8.-Eliza Duckworth. M. records show that Eliza Duckworth m. Richard Beem on 28 July 1801.

URIAH DUCKWORTH. We have no information of Uriah Duckworth We must assume that he d. in MD. but we do not know. We have the name of one child:-
URIAH DUCKWORTH JR. This m. recorded in Harrison Co.,WV. "Uriah Duckworth and Darkas Weaver, married 6 Dec. 1839. she dau. of Uriah Weaver."

The 1850 census of Allegheny Co.,MD. shows Uriah and Sarah Duckworth residing in the household of Uriah and Dorcas Weaver Duckworth.

In the 1840's Uriah Duckworth and Dorcas Weaver purchased 75 acres of land from Zachariah and Eliza Dotson. This land situated on Sugar Camp Run. (This land is probably in Ritchie Co. but the deed for the sale was recorded in Doddridge Co.) They sold this land to Admiral Nelson Duckworth (son of John) on 23 Aug. 1851.

The deed reads, "BETWEEN URIAH DUCKWORTH OF URIAH." This is the only proof we have that Uriah was a son of Uriah.

Uriah and Dorcas must have res. in Allegheny Co.,MD. until after the civil war. They then removed to Long Run of Arnold's Creek in Doddridge Co.,WV.

From William Clark's diary, "Uriah Duckworth d. 18 Jan. 1886. Darkus Weaver Duckworth was bur. 4 Nov. 1898."

Both are bur. at Duckworth Summitt. This on the tombstones; "Uriah Duckworth, b. 28 March 1818, d. 18 Jan. 1886." "Dorcas, wife of U. Duckworth, b. 15 Oct. 1820, d. _____."

They were the parents of seven children:- Minerva Mays Hanley, Sam Duckworth, Zedrick Duckworth, Mrs. Garner Devol, Marion Duckworth, Wellington A. Duckworth, Oliver Duckworth and George Duckworth.

George Duckworth m. Eva Dotson, dau. of Armstrong Dotson and Katherine Doak. They were the parents of two children; Leland Duckworth and Kathleen Duckworth. Kathleen Duckworth m. Barr Wilson (XX-1049) page 166.

HENRY DUCKWORTH. M. records in Allegheny Co.,MD. show that Henry Duckworth m. Abigail Tichnell, 1 Oct. 1801. She was b. 1 May 1785, d. 10 March 1874. They may have lived at one time in Hampshire Co.,WV. They later moved to Taylor's Drain in Barbour Co.,WV. They are bur. in the old Cem. on Taylor's Drain not far from Berryburg Junction. Death records in Barbour Co.,"Henry Duckworth died 26 May 1855, parents, Aaron and Elizabeth Duckworth, born New York State, wife, Abigail Duckworth." Information furnished by son, Orson Duckworth. Henry Duckworth was b. 25 Sept. 1777, d. 26 May 1855, age 77 yrs.,8 months, 1 day.

After the d. of Henry, the children deeded their share of the farm or estate, to the son, Orson (Orrison) Duckworth. Names of the children signing the deed:-

Samuel Ellifritt and Mary Duckworth. They settled on White Oak in Ritchie Co. See the Ellifritt history.

William James and Amanda Duckworth, his wife. This family went to KS. See Hardesty's of Tyler Co.,WV.

Aaron Duckworth and Jane Duckworth. They settled in Doddridge Co.,WV. They are the parents of Henry Ephriam Duckworth who m. Temperence Jane Shinn (XVIII-316) page 351.

George Duckworth and Rachel, his wife. For more of this family see Hardesty's of Braxton Co.,WV.

Admiral Duckworth and Sarah DuckworthDuckworth, his wife. This is the Admiral Duckworth that purchased 75 acres of land on Sugar Camp Run from Uriah and Dorcas Duckworth in 1851. The deed recorded in Doddridge Co. This family settled on Long Run of Arnold's Creek in Doddridge Co.,WV.

The will of John Duckworth in Allegheny Co.,MD.,lists a son, Admiral Nelson Duckworth. Sarah is the dau. of Henry Duckworth and Abigail Tichnell. They were 1st cousins.

William Duckworth and Mary Jane, his wife.

George Weaver and Guldey, his wife.

Uriah Weaver and Margaret Duckworth, his wife. Uriah Weaver is the brother of Dorcas Weaver that m. Uriah Duckworth. Mrs. Phyllis Hiett is a ggdau. of Uriah and Margaret. Her address, 2305 Matthews, Muncie, IN. 47304. She has furnished most of the information for this Duckworth history

Isaac Mitchell and Durinda, his wife.

Solomon Weaver and Emeline Duckworth. (Solomon brother of Dorcas Weaver Duckworth and son of Uriah Weaver and Rebec-

THE CLAYTON AND AMOS FAMALIES

From Now and Long Ago by Glen D. Lough. Monongahela Survey Book No. 1. "David Anderson and David Claton (Clayton) 10,000 acres, lying in Big Paw Paw and Little Paw Paw Creeks from just below (now) Baxter to above Fairview and to the head waters of the two Paw Paw's, 1783. Anderson and Clayton gained control of this great tract through procuring assignments of individual tracts from the early settlers, and the procurement of land office treasury warrants, numbers: 21007, 21009, 21008, 20977, 20949 and 21670, all issued in 1783. The survey was entered Jan. 5, 1785, "Paw Paw Creek and the waters of Indian Creek, accepting and relinguishing 10,000 acres which includes 20,000 acres to the claims of sundry persons included within the same."

This tract adjoined the lands of Augusta Ballah (Granttown area),and Thomas Pindall (Indian Creek area), who did not join in the project. The survey was made in Nov. and Dec. 1782-1783, for William Worth. How long Anderson and Clayton had been in control of the lands at this time isn't clear. Exactly how the project fared is not clear, either. Monongahela records show that several of the settlers who assigned their titles of lands to Anderson and Clayton were still residing on these lands as owners long after 1783. So it is safe to assume the project failed, at least partially, and most of the land reverted to their original owners.

Adam O. Heck informed this writer that the David Clayton mentioned here was the father of ELISHA CLAYTON, Revolutionary soldier, early Marion Co. area settler, and highly respected citizen, whose pioneer home was on Little Paw Paw Creek, on lands that were once part of the great Anderson and Clayton Tract.

Note to the above; ELISHA CLAYTON was the father of ELIJAH CLAYTON, who m. Millie Amos and settled on White Oak, Ritchie Co. Elijah Clayton was the father of Rebecca Jane Clayton who m. John Marshall Wilson (XVIII-291) page 101.

From History of Ritchie Co.:-

"ELIJAH CLAYTON in 1841 purchased the Barton Hudkins improvement of John M. Wilson (XVII-69) p. 53 and became the first permanent settler here (White Oak), remaining until his d.,on Aug. 3, 1873. He was of Irish Lineage, his father, Noah Clayton (Note- Noah was not his father--Elisha Clayton was his father--see above)having crossed the sea and settled in VA. early in the 19th century, and then removed to Monongahela Co.,where he d.,on Sept. 27, 1811, on Little Papau (Paw Paw), in what is now Marion Co.(Note-some of this in error). Elijah Clayton was b., and there he grew to manhood. He was one of a family of 12 children, some of whom became very prominent. John Clayton represented his District in the Richmond Leglislature in both the house of Delegates and in the Senate; David L. Clayton, another brother, being a musician of note, wrote the "Old Virginia Harmony." Richard, Ezekiel, Little, William and Elisha were the other brothers; and the sisters were, Mrs. Effie Snodgrass, Berea; Mrs. Nancy Holden, Mrs. John D. Parker and Mrs. Wilson, all of Marion Co."

"Elijah Clayton m. Miss Millie Amos, dau. of Stephen and Elizabeth Miller Amos of Marion Co.,and was the father of 14 children. He was a Lay Minister of the Methodist Episcopal church and his influence was a power of good. At his home the first church society in the community was organized. He gave the grounds for the White Oak Church and Cemetry, and here, beside his wife, who d. Aug. 10, 1891, he reposes. He was one of the corner stones of the church, and was a pillar as long as he lived. A splendid life portrait of this venerable man, which was placed there by his son, Leander Summerfield "Bud" Clayton, not long since, now impessively greets the visitor to this church, reminding him that though his form had vanished, his memory is revered, his influence is still large.

His children:- Leander Summerfield "Bud" Clayton, res. at the old home and the late Stephen and Perry of White Oak; Mrs. Rebecca (J.M.) Wilson (see John Marshall Wilson (XVIII-291) p. 101), and J. (Note to the above--Mrs. Addie Elswick, Route 2, Box 88, Elkview, W.Va. 25071 has written (1975) a 34 page small book entitled, "The Family of Mary Clayton Amick (1884-1974)." This is a splendid history of the Clayton family, tracing their lineage back to about the yr. 1000. Also contains more information of the Ritchie Co. Clayton's. Any one interested in the Clayton family should get this book.

From "Now and Long Ago" by Glen D. Lough.

AMOS BLOCKHOUSE--Thomas Arnett (1816-1899) told Adam O. Heck and others that John Amos and his neighbors built a blockhouse on the land on which Amos lived on Indian Creek above present Arnettsville, before 1790. Arnett said he was about 20 yrs. old when this "Fort" was taken down, and the logs used by Charles Glasscock in constructing a barn, Rev. Peter Barrack (1818-1899) told Rev. Henry Morgan that he several times preached in this blockhouse. Henry Amos is mentioned as owning the land upon which the blockhouse stood. Stephen H. Amos (1825-1906) and David M. Arnett (1829-1918) said it was their understanding that Henry Amos built the Amos Blockhouse (with the help of neighbors) the same yr. Jacob Straight was murdered and scalped by Indians (1786?).

Henry Amos was a native of DE.,but at an early age located on the head of Indian Creek, in Monongahela Co.,WV.-then VA. There, in the midst of a vast wilderness, he established himself, and began clearing of a farm. This was an undertaking which at that time, required, the display of no ordinary amount of courage, as the country was inhabitated by roving bands of trecherous and blood-thirsty savages; he, however succedded, and devoted the remainder of his life to the pursuit of Agriculture."
